Thompson, is recorded in St. James' Register as Richard Collier Hore (which we take as a slip of the pen for Richard Collier Hore) and duly witnessed by Capt. Hodgetts of the Establishment. Surgeon Hore had the misfortune to lose his kit of surgical tools, which went to the bottom of the Bay in crossing to Magazine Island in a severe storm. They still repose in the company of D. Macdonald's valuable gold watch which later went to the bottom at the old dock near by, while the owner was on a tour of inspection of the Ontario Reformatory for Boys.

CHAPTER XIV.

MILITARY OFFICERS, ETC.

An entry in St. James' Register, dated 21st July, 1839, records the baptism of Sophia, daughter of Fulford B. Feilde of the Garrison. A letter from Mrs. Grant of Prescott, daughter of the late Col. Fulford B. Feilde, says that Sophia died in her girlhood and her remains rest in the family plot in the Anglican Cemetery at Barrie. Her father served, as a youth, under the Duke of Wellington, and she further states that after the Battle of Waterloo her father was stationed at Barbadoes, West Indies, and Sierra Leone; he also served in Portugal and Mauritins, where he was disabled with fever and invalided back to England. The late Capt. Frederick Feilde, who lived near Hamilton and was an officer on the field of Waterloo, was a brother. Col. Fulford B. Feilde was sent to Canada in Dec., 1830, and served in Guelph twice, London, Prescott and Penetanguishene. An item in the Toronto Globe of June 15th, 1915, referring to the death of his widow at the age of 94 years, said he was sent to Canada as Commissary-General of the forces. He was a successor of Commissary-General W. H. Robinson who served in Canada during the American War and became Sir W. H. Robinson and whose name is engraved deep in well-formed letters on the inside wall of the old Magazine, with the date 1759 probably cut there by Feilde himself as one of his successors or successor in office. The late Col. F. B. Feilde while stationed here married a daughter of Capt. Wickens, an old military officer resident here and who afterwards removed to the Military road near Barrie and gave his name to Wickens' Creek, and built a saw-mill, and represented Simcoe in 1836.
