

And Pharaoh's chariots were capsized :
 Immersion never was surmised
 By any but the Baptists.

B. To Israel's sacraments you flee
 Where Pharaoh like, you can't them see a
 When in the cloud baptized they be b
 And going in and out of sea,
 A figure of true baptism.

P. In Moses' time at God's command,
 The law was published in the land :
 Baptism flowed from his right hand,
 And sprinkling was the law demand.
 Shut not your eyes ye Baptists.

P. Then holy priests did mend the matter,
 Among the people blessings scatter,
 Sometimes with blood, sometimes with water,
 And all without such idle clatter
 As may be heard from Baptists.

B. Those diverse washing had a flaw ; c
 In Jesus' yoke you will not draw,
 But build with stubble hay and straw, d
 And prove your sprinkling from the law, e
 Which Jesus Christ abolish'd. f

B. Believers from the law are freed, g
 They learned from Christ another creed, h
 When he came forth to die and bleed,
 And set a pattern to his seed
 Despised by Pedobaptists.
