

	No. 8.	PAGE.
Sir H. Holland to the Governor General, 28th July, 1887.—Encloses correspondence with United States Minister and Sir A. Shea, favouring a separate arrangement. Sir A. Shea could take no steps except under directions from Her Majesty's Government. Governor of Newfoundland informed no action should be taken without advice from Her Majesty's Government.	5	5
	No. 9.
Sir H. Holland to Governor General, 22nd August, 1887.—Forwarding Minute of Executive Council of Newfoundland. Council would take no action towards separate arrangement without knowledge of Her Majesty's Government	6	6
	No. 10.
Sir Charles Tupper to Secretary of State, Canada, 23rd August, 1887.—Forwards copy of letter from Colonial Office, enclosing extract from Minute of Executive Council of Newfoundland, on the subject of the proposed separate arrangement with the United States.	7	7
	No. 11.
Minute of Council, 11th October, 1887.—Deals with Sir Henry Holland's despatch of 20th May, 1887, enclosing correspondence between Colonial Office and Newfoundland Government's representatives in London. Ample assurances were conveyed that Bait Act would not curtail privileges of British fishermen. Such safeguards being considered sufficient, Her Majesty assented to the Bill.	8	8
	No. 12.
Governor of Newfoundland to Governor General, 28th November, 1887.—Acknowledging a despatch of 20th of October, enclosing extract from Minute of Executive Council of Newfoundland, on the subject of the proposed separate arrangement with the United States. Regulations not yet framed, but will be communicated to Canadian Government when ready.	13	13
	No. 13.
Minute of Council, 11th May, 1888.—Respecting the issue of licenses to United States fishing vessels under the modus vivendi of the Treaty of Washington of 1888, and an equal division of the fees collected thereon with Newfoundland.	13	13
	No. 14.
Governor of Newfoundland to Governor General, 12th May, 1888.—Newfoundland Government agrees to division of fees on licenses to United States fishing vessels where coasts of both colonies are used.	14	14
	No. 15.
Deputy Minister of Fisheries to Colonial Secretary of Newfoundland, 11th June, 1888.—With copies of licenses issued to United States vessels, and asks similar information as to licenses issued by Newfoundland Government.	14	14
	No. 16.
Minute of Council, 2nd July, 1888.— Modus vivendi licenses should run one year from date of issue. Expresses hope that Newfoundland Government will accept this reading of terms of modus vivendi	14	14
	No. 17.
Governor of Newfoundland to Governor General, 29th August, 1888.—Encloses extract of Minute of Council as to duration of modus vivendi licenses; they should expire on the 31st December.	15	15
	No. 18.
Minute of Council, 15th September, 1888.—Dealing with despatches of Governor of Newfoundland of 29th August, 1888, concurring in the suggestion of the Government of Newfoundland that in future all modus vivendi licenses should expire on 31st December.	16	16
	No. 19.
Governor of Newfoundland to Governor General, 2nd October, 1888.—Newfoundland Government will recognize the validity of all licenses then granted by Canada, as Canada has agreed that future ones should expire 31st December.	16	16
	No. 20.
Hon. C. H. Tupper to Colonial Secretary, Newfoundland, 16th October, 1888.—For lists of modus vivendi licenses issued to United States vessels.	17	17
	No. 21.
Minute of Council, 12th November, 1888, respecting modus vivendi licenses to United States vessels.—Government of Newfoundland have not sent list of licenses issued by them. Concessions under licenses have not interfered with protection of Canadian fisheries, and has removed chief cause of complaint on the part of United States fishermen.	17	17

Newspaper office
Hon. C. H. Tupper to Colonial Secretary
Hon. C. H. Tupper to Colonial Secretary
Governor of Newfoundland
C. E. King
J. W. L. Fisher
Hon. C. H. Tupper
Minute of Council
Colonial Secretary
Lord Knutsford
Minute of Council
Collector of Customs
Hon. C. H. Tupper
Collector of Customs