

Baby's Portrait.

Will baby ever be its present age again?
Can it ever be sweeter to you than it is?
Don't you want to perpetuate its present daintiness?
Delays cannot be overcome—the past cannot be recalled.
Better bring the little thing up to us, we'll do it justice.

ECHOES

—FROM—ERIEAU

W. W. Scane and family moved to Erieau to-day.

Mrs. G. T. McKeough and daughter Beattie spent yesterday at Erieau.

Miss Blackburn and Miss Cora Merritt, of Outlaw Inn, spent the day in the city.

Chas. Williamson and family moved out to-day and are occupying their summer cottage.

Commodore T. J. Rutley and Capt. M. Houston took a merry party of young ladies for a sail in the Louise yesterday. The party comprised Mrs. Dr. McRitchie (chaperone), Mrs. Jas. Oldershaw, the Misses Morrison, the Misses Garrett, Miss Young, Miss Jessie Houston and Grace Morrill.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Northwood had a narrow escape. At an early hour this morning Mrs. Northwood got up to get some cough medicine for the baby and by mistake the mother gave the baby a dose of mosquito cure which Mrs. R. V. Bray had given her the day before. Fortunately Mrs. Northwood noticed her mistake at once and emetics were administered. The baby had quite recovered this morning.

Tuesday, Harold G. Norton, son of W. A. Norton, Chatham Township, picked up an empty beer bottle which he found floating in the lake. Within the bottle he found a slip of paper with the following on it: "This bottle of ale was drunk by two girls from Detroit and was sent adrift off Belle Isle Bridge. Whoever finds this bottle please address Blanche Detroit, Mich." Mr. Norton requested their correspondent not to print the girl's name that was signed to the note cast up by the waves as she might not perhaps like the notoriety that she would receive. The bottle had quite a trip down the Detroit River and across Lake Erie to Erieau.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Boggs, of Cleveland, were in the city yesterday. They are visiting at the Eau.

The lacrosse team which played against Blenheim yesterday will play the senior team next week.

Archie Moffatt had his arm badly cut by the explosion of a bottle at Lambert & Turner's pup factory.

Stanley Horning, of Portland, Mich., who has been visiting in Dresden and Chatham, returned home to-day.

Mrs. F. S. Dunlop and child, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Dunlop, returned to Chicago to-day.

Mrs. Denmon, of this city, left last evening for Goderich, where she will spend a month visiting her parents.

Frank Babcock, has returned from Montreal, where he has been attending the Shamrock-Brandford games.

The steamer City of Chatham went to Wallaceton last night and is making an excursion out of Wallaceburg to Belle Isle to-day, under the auspices of the "Burg Band."

V. J. Bosworth, who for many years has been baggage man at the G. T. R., has been compelled to give up the work on account of ill-health. Mr. Bosworth has now purchased a lot on William street, on the athletic ground, and will, at a cost of $2,300 build a grocery. Geo. Rayment has the contract for the building.

John Connor, the twine maker at the binder twine factory, has gone to Walkerton to get enough hands for a night shift in the local factory. The factory had more work than they can turn out at present and have been working over-time. If Mr. Connor cannot secure a night shift, the Walkerton factory will turn out some twine for the local factory.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

A very pretty wedding took place in the Roman Catholic church in Ridgeway on June 17th, 1903, being the marriage of Mr. Thomas Casey, of Botany, to Miss Cecelia Sinnett, an accomplished young lady of Howard, Ont. They were married by the priest of that parish in the absence of the bride's uncle, Rev. Fr. Sinnett, of Quebec, who intended to officiate but could not be present. The bridesmaid was Miss Minnie Lambe, of Harwich, a friend of the bride's, and the groomsmen were Mr. Edward Sinnett, brother of the bride. Both the bride and the bridesmaid looked charming. The bride wore a costume of light grey crepe de chene trimmed with cream satin and cream silk applique and wore a cream chignon hat trimmed with cream lace, ribbon, and roses. The bridesmaid wore a pale blue crepe de chene trimmed with cream silk chignon over cream silk and cream silk applique and wore a pale blue hat trimmed with lace and medallions and wreathed with cream roses.
