D. B. Viger to Neilson. (In French.) Acknowledges letter of the 18th April. Speaking of the state of mind in Great Britain, he said he was becoming more indulgent towards the errors of his compatriots, which may be attributed to lack of experience, when he sees men of knowledge and science agitated by passion and prejudice. Comments on political incidents in Canada—the Fabriques, the Montreal West election, actions of Attorney General, independence of the judges, changed attitude of English party towards Neilson. Intrigues against Viger in London. Regrets Neilson's distaste for public affairs. Is himself very fully occupied.
