Solidity guarantees Security,
thus producing Satisfaction.

You would not put your money in a bank that could not pay dividends; neither should you insure your life in a Company whose record does not clearly show it to be in a sound financial position.

The North American Life can point to a record of steady progress and stability.

Intending insurers will do well by examining these statements, and, having verified them, show that they have grasped the moral taught, by insuring in the North American. This done, your satisfaction will be complete.
