

"Cholera Infantum"

THE SUMMER COMPLAINT OF INFANTS

Cholera infantum begins with a profuse diarrhoea, the stomach becomes irritated, and in many cases vomiting and purging set in. The child rapidly loses flesh, and is soon reduced to great languor and prostration.

Cholera infantum can be quickly cured by the use of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Mrs. David A. Cleveland, Apple River, N.S., writes:—"Last September my little boy, four years old, and little girl, two years old, were taken one afternoon with vomiting spells, and in a few hours they had cholera infantum. I had Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in the house, and commenced using it. The cholera got so bad the next day, they passed nothing but blood. I kept on using the medicine, and in a few days they were cured. I always keep a bottle in the house, as I don't think there is anything better for summer complaint than Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry."

Some dealers may try to sell you something else, but for the good of your child's health, insist on having "Dr. Fowler's." It has been on the market for over sixty-five years, so you are not using a new and untried remedy. Price 35 cents. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THE SPICE OF LIFE.

Heck—"Is it true that your wife has an impediment in her speech?"
Peck—"Yes, she gets sleepy about eleven and begins to yawn."

Hard Worker—"Well, Jim, there's a job for you at last. Boss told me to tell you to see him at ten to-morrow, sharp."

Hard Loafer—"Can't go! I've promised to carry the flag in the unemployed procession to-morrow."

A stingy farmer, having married a $10,000 widow, was congratulated by a neighbor, who said:

"John, I hear you are $10,000 to the good."

"No," replied Farmer John, sorrowfully. "Not quite $10,000, not quite $10,000. It cost $2 for the license."

Cannon, at a dinner, said soothingly to a young suffragette:

"After all, you know, there is room for both men and women in this world. Men have their work to do and women theirs."

"It is the woman's work to provide for the inner man, and it is the man's to provide for the outerwoman."

Jamie, having come into the possession of considerable wealth through the death of relatives, was thus addressed by one of the neighbors:

"Ah, Jamie, it was a guid thing for you that your rich freens were born before ye."

"Weel," said Jamie, "I'm nae so sure about that—but it was a guid thing that they dee'd afore me."

Pat was a bashful lover; and Biddy was coy, but not too coy.

"Biddy," Pat began timidly, "did yer iver think of marryin'?"

"Sure, now, th' subject has niver interred me thoughts," demurely replied Biddy.

"It's sorry Oi am," said Pat, turning away.

"Wan minute, Pat!" called Biddy, softly. "Ye've set me a-thinkin'."

A bird dog belonging to a man in Mulvane disappeared last week, and the owner suspected it had been stolen. So he put this "ad" in the paper, and insisted that it be printed exactly as he wrote it:

"Lost or Run Away—One livver culered burd dog called Jim. Will show signs of hyderfobby in about three days."

The dog came home the following day.

"Murdered For Her Money: A Thrilling Drama in Seventeen Spasms," had come to the Provincial theater for two nights only.

The first night saw a fair audience assembled, but scene after scene met with a storm of booming and hissing.

At length, at the end of Scene 4, Act 3, the villain muttered to his scoundrelly accomplice, the grocer's assistant:

"Hush—not a sound! Are we alone?"

A voice, smothered in a yawn, came from the back of the pit:

"No, man, not to-night; but you will be to-morrow night!"

In the mountains of bonnie Scotland a kilted Highlander and an American were walking. In due course they came to a basin in the hills from which a wonderful echo could be obtained.

Having explained matters to the Yank, the Scotsman proceeded to demonstrate. He emitted a warlike shout, and after nearly three minutes the echo returned as per programme.

"Mon," said the Scot, "ye can't show anything like that in your country."

But the American was not abashed.

"I guess we can," he replied. "Why, in my camp in the Rocky Mountains, when I go to bed I just poke my head out of the tent and shout: 'Time to get up!'"

"Wake up, there!"

"Yes?" queried the Scotsman.

"Eight hours later that echo travels back and wakens me!"
