THURSDAY, JUNE 24, 1858.

Communications designed for this paper must be accompanied by the name of the writer in confidence. We do not undertake to return rejected articles.

last year to place the affairs of the respective de- course.

of its deliberations, changes, if deemed after the maturest consideration, advisable, may take place.

On Friday the Committees of the Contingent law embled. The paucity of attendance by lay members, was, we understand, a matter of great regret by their Ministerial brethren, all the season of Conference, and, up to the close of the confession and without delay, and thus occupy about three minutes each, for an hour; if about three minutes each, for an hour; if about three minutes each, for an hour; if commence, the sun became very oppressive, and to hear a sermon of the meeting at eight o'clock, the tent commence, the sun became very oppressive, and the cane whose in the rest commence, the sun became very oppressive, and the cane whose in the rest commence, the sun became very oppressive, and to hear a sermon of the Reformed from the Rev. A. A. Willits, of the Reformed of the meeting strikes a little bell, which quickly brings the speaker to a pause.?

In the evening at eight o'clock, the tent commence, the sun became very oppressive, and the cane whose in the rest commence, the sun became very oppressive, and the cane whose in the rest commence, the sun became very oppressive, and the cane whose in the rest commence, the sun became very oppressive, and the cane whose in the rest commence, the sun became very oppressive, the sun became very oppressive, and the cane whose in the rest commence, the sun became very oppressive, and the cane whose in the rest commence, the sun became very oppressive, and the cane whose in the rest commence, the sun became very oppressive, and the cane whose in the rest commence, the sun became very oppressive, and the cane whose in the rest of the Cardinal's both the Reformed from the Rev. A. A. Willis, of the Reformed from the Rev. A. A. Willis, of the Reformed of the case, and to find the cane whose in the rest of the case, and the cane whose in the rest of the case, and the cane whose in the rest of the case, and the cane whose in the rest of the case, and the case of the case, an great regret by their Ministerial brethren, altheir sympathy with, while it would afford the Beyond this, I have been astonished that I During the afternoon services, which linesencouragement and aid of their countenance and could only discover the difference of an commenced at four o'clock, a shower of rain counsel to, a work on which Almighty God has Episcopalian from a Methodist, by the more came on, accompanied with thunder and less has been done by this most important con-

Monday, the 21st, elicited ample evidence of the healthy and progressive state of our Book estab. and, we may be permitted to add, gave, at the daily through the whole land.

In addition to these public and large be used for his glory on earth, his petition ing circulation and appreciation of our journal meetings, multitudes of smaller ones are in- was that the Tent thus dedicated might, that our solicitous endeavours to make it worthy flourishing literary establishment met on Tueshigh value placed upon the distinguished advantages it offers for the moral and intellectual culable and accomplished Precentress, and the the instructors, in this, as well as in the Male ed the highest species, in many instances, of Divine grace: moral improvement.

The Board having had under their consideraly agreed to recommend to the present Conference measures for the establishment on a proper basis of so desirable an institution.

It only remains for us to remark the absence of the venerable Co-Delegate, Dr. Knight, from he Preparatory Committees, a circumstance with confidence on being present at the opening of the Conference. The prayers of the Church will not be wanting that his valuable life may yet long be spared.

(From Evangelical Christendom.)

the United States.

LEWISBURG UNIVERSITY, PENN.,

May 4th, 1858.

MY DEAR FRIEND .- I had the unexpected pleasure of receiving your kind letter of April 13 at the time I received a telegraph of the safe arrival of my grandson Rest. It was, indeed, a singular coincident, and it awakened many and various associations. I regret to hear your powers are in any degree tailing, I thought mine were. For some years I had abstained from all evening meetings, but late events appear to have rejavenated them, and produced such an effect as has astonished me. I lately attended five prayer meetings of an hour each in one day, and the funeral of a friend in addition; and that day was, by common consent, observed as a fast. This, with the natural cares of a family, and an extensive business. was more than I should have expected a man on the border of seventy could have passed through without some dangerous reaction. Such I have not, however, experi-

This personal revival of health, strength, vigor, united with intense interest and enj yment, is, perhaps, as good an introduction as any I could wish to the communicatton you request from me of the wonders that are passing all around me at this time.

I am filled with surprise that you should runs, but I must conclude; the progress of heaven. The spirit of unity evinced on the me to write to you on these subjects, this outpouring of the Spirit still proceeds present occasion was warmly commended. ples,—when our alliance with France gives un. supply school books and other educational works accumen. That rotund and merry looking young when you must have many friends in the increasingly; we hope it may spread, not and the hope expressed that the day was at when you must have many friends in the increasingly; we hope it may spread, not and the hope expressed that the day was at ministry far better qualified; but my surprise only through our land, but all lands, till the hand when all the denominational isms, and ity,—and when for the canada Conference has met in Months. is greatly increased, that you, at such a diswhole world shall be full of the glory of the sectarian bigotry, which now divide the bringing before the Houses many very momenfact that, allowing one teacher to every sixty tenance is Satural Coley, whose silvery elotreal. Now let the Eastern and Western things that are." Our union prayer meetings, at which thousands meet in the middle of every day in every city, town, and village day, the 17th inst. The first draft of the Sta- and present themselves voluntarily when my a face as the most fastidious weather dismissed. tions does not receive publicity till the third day called upon, one after another, without in- critic could have desired. By eleven desirable and important, as tending to augment | we know the Gospel will cure them all .- | ing the atmosphere really delightful.

ters' and Widows' Fund, assembled on Saturday. The aggregate amount of its income for tensely filled with the earnest desire for the the past year, we are glad to learn, exceeds that conversion of the soul to God, that he has of the preceding one. At the same time, the very limited means of support, approaching the that carried the conviction of sincerity to the "Then a cloud covered the tent of the congre- of all set formality, he entered upon his The investigations of the Book Committee, on state some one would energize in prayer for moito, printed at the head of the circulars hearing that their flist and greatest duty A. D., 1858.1 him, with such entreaty as could not be de- issued for this occasion. nied. I need not tell you no minister could After the reading of the Scriptures, the grimage to heaven. The deep interest Eshment, under the judicious and energetic machine delivered the most finished sermon principal dedicatory prayer was offered by nagement of the Rev. Charles Charchill, A.M.; with such effect. Such scenes are witnessed the Rev. J. P. Halsey, of the O. S. Presbyof the official position it occupies have not been the most unlikely—omnibus drivers, for instance. A poor woman, whose husband thousands of souls to a saving knowledge of According to a requirement in the Charter of and brother-in-law had been among these the truth as it is in Jesus. According to a requirement in the Charter of our Academic Institution, the Board of that take her request for them to the large prayer meeting, but she knew no one, and was Reformed Dutch Church; the opening lines made a few remarks relative to the great day, the day previous to the opening of the Condaunted; then she thought she would take were—

"Salvation! Oh the joyful sound, ference. The Treasurer's report was highly her petition herself to God alone, and, wonsatisfactory, showing a small balance in hand, derful to say, whilet she was thus engaged, clency. The handsome manner in which the carried through. I say have been convert. Tabernace Tent, by saying that he felt that, prayer was then offered by the Rev. A. ed; all benefitted. We are astonished at this; but ought not our astonishment to be that earnest, tervent, heartfelt prayer, is not always and immediately answered? Our the companies (very different from yours). In one sense, he was standing there in the place of the dead, inasmuch as, had it not been for that cloud of mysterious providence which had lately swept over this community. At the close of these exercises, a short years have degenerated from what they to preach this opening sermon. The words teachers associated with them in their anxious and wicked, that I cannot attempt to desand bonoured toils, have materially increased its cribe them; you could hardly credit me, the occase of :—" And in this mountain shall claims the past year to the confidence of the and I do not wish you should. These men the occa- n: - And in this mountain snan claims the past year to the confidence of the and I do not wish you should. These men the Lord of hosts make unto all people a public. To all who have at heart the best inter- have given up their large and costly Halls feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the ests of youth, it cannot fail to be matter of den as places for prayer. I have heard of one lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines ence has attended and crowned the labours of with the exception of two. Our late severe mercantile afflictions may have in measure prepared men,s mind, but this cannot be all,

tion the resolutions of the Conference of last have been, I think most beneficial in proyear regarding the establishment of a College moting and conducting these public and priproper, for which our readers are aware a char- vate meetings, but it has extended far beyond taily such as will be saved." In Philadelphia, a vast tent has been made, and has been endowed by liberal individuals, so that no collections are to be teeply regretted by all. It has been occasioned ties where there are no places of worship by sudden and serious illness of that reverend adapted for the poor, for the great bulk of gentleman from which however we are rejoiced these are elegant and costly structures, and be in a very few days, several applications what they are with you.

It is intended there shall be attached to It is intended there shall be attached to this Tabernacle worship two Evangelists or of the Lutheran Church, read the hymn, ent-keeper. All eminent preachers are "Form all that dwell below the skier,"

Let the Creator's praise arise of the skier," preachers, one copporteur, and a sexton or The Great Religious Revival in Evangelists or preachers will be the main Episcopal, and, the benediction by the Rev. eighbourhood, and "compel them to come " distribute tracts, &c., &c. It is intended that there shall be preaching three times may judge the interest the public take.

elf to the promotion of every good work, pal Church, commencingnd the daily prayer meetings especially .in the midst of his usefulness, he got his rm entangled with machinery-it was manled dreadfully, and could not be saved-it was amputated at the shoulder, but that the German Reformed Church, and would not save his life, and he died; but His wife, six children, and his aged father, rounded his dying bed, with great composure. He delivered each a cdarge-that to his father will never be forgotten-" Stand Drovincial Westernam which the Holy Spirit has been pleased to proper, in whole or in part, alter or abridge, adopt to produce His effects. He has passed by the ordinary means of communication as your own good taste may suggest. I overboard the cargo of their worldly idols, ing tired of Parliamentary sparring,—and in-Maynooth grants, by presenting the College a candidate for the chair of Conference at a long. with the people, and chosen "base things have only one object, to comply with your take Christ for their pilot, and thus ensure a deed it is time that our House of Commons were with a large and final sum. They modestly hint have only one object, to comply with your

" All hail the power of Jesus' name

stituted, and are increasing daily, and for through the accompaniment of a faithful

With this hymn the devotional exercises contained in the 6th verse of the 25th chapolicited, and consented to preach as oppor- the singing of which was followed by a praymity and convenience may offer, but the er from the Rev. Wesley Kenny, Methodis tay. The colporteurs will go round the Albert Barnes, New School Presbyterian. AFTERNOON SERVICES.

The tent although very well filled in the ach day, if well attended. I send you en- morning, was attended with a larger conlosed the particulars of the dedication of gregation in the afternoon, and one still his, cut out of a political paper, so that you more numerous in the evening, when the main ar a, the surrounding galleries, and Another event, which has created great the plattern were all closely occupied.

The singing of the hymn was followed by a prayer from the Rev. J. H. Bomberger, of his latter hours were his most useful ones. of the Baptist Church, and a second hymn, was to join the people of God in their pilelicited by his appeals was soon depicted on every countenance. At one time the thrill of joy kindled by his inspiring portrait of future bliss would be reflected in a smile on every face, not even excepting the grave clergy on the platform; anon all eyes were moistened with a startling tear by some the speaker.

A sermon was then preached by the Rev.

movement for which they had asembled, tiful hymn of his own composition, entitled. "Stand up for Jesus," which was sung by Letter from England.

[From our own Correspondent.] ENGLAND, May 28th, 1858. To shape a letter out of the crude and under rule in India. They have therefore availed of our metropolitan thoroughfares. It is two vout gratulation that a delightful spiritual influ. whole company who have been converted, on the less well refined." The interpretation of this poetic figure of prophecy was ing the creation of a world out of chaos. A army, as favourable to their own release from and one hour before the doors are opened. A felicitous y applied by the speaker to the newspaper correspondent, unless he be one of foreign sway. Dr. Duff, who is no mean author-stranger is surprised to see the long train of holi Branch of the Establishment, giving thus an for those who have not suffered, equally to facts. In vain has be a vigorous and brilliant causes of the popular dissatisfaction are the grant causeway. So gay is the appearance of the street causeway. So gay is the appearance of the street causeway. object for which they were then assembled. the penny a line brigade, must confine himself ity on Indian questions, states that the chief day looking people passing earnestly upon the course were the "Gospel feast," of saving imagina on, -in vain does be possess in a large oual depression and extinction, under our sway, at nine o'clock in the morning, that one would truth which was typified in the text, and degree the creative faculty,—he must have some of so many of the chiefs, with the decay of once almost fancy that a whole town was going to "The Caristian Association of Young the "Mountain" of the Christian Church, framework on which to hang his testoons, some liburishing towns, in consequence of the suppressent of the suppressent and the supp Men," whose constitution I will send you, from which the streams of God's enlightening grace were flowing out into all the be given to gossip, he must at least have some and confidential intercourse between the British perspiring crowd. Here is a grand crush of At the conclusion of the sermon, George little nucleus around which to dispose his re- authorities and the native chiefs and people, people thronging to get as near to the doors as At the conclusion of the sermon, George gular tit-bits. A stern rublic, by no means the annexation of native states, not as the result possible, and to make sure of a good seat. Laly seen in the addition made to the various Men's Curistian Association, came forward averse to the fictitious in its own proper depart—of war and conquest, but in times of peace—the dies have to submit to lamentable destruction of Churches. The Lord is there "adding on the platform, and in a brief pertinent adment, demands truth from its newspapers. No conversion into life-tenures of hereditary rentdress, stated the facts attending the rise and thing excites its indignation more than the dis-free tenures of land—the alienation of zemin- its head and looks decidedly tame and flabby. progress of this Tabernacle Tent movement, covery of the falseness of newspaper reports, dary lands from the ancient feudal families for excitement and heat have reddened many afair and, at the same time made an earnest, and It likes to take up its broad-sheet as it takes up arrears of revenue-and, above all, our slow, brow so as to suggest the idea of the cook rathas we are happy to learn, effectual appeal its Bible, the one to be the infallible directory uncertain, expensive, and demoralizing judicial er than that of the young lady bent on evangelical made in it. This is to be placed in localities where there are no places of worship lies where the congregation in its behalf. It had of secular truth, the other a spiritual. Hence enjoyment. Half an hour later vehicles begin lies Bible,—the one to be the infallible directory uncertain, expensive, and demoralizing judicial to the congregation in its behalf. It had of secular truth, the other a spiritual. Hence enjoyment. Half an hour later vehicles begin to separate themselves from the stream of traffic and I know not why I should be without the other and the plain of secular truth, the other are truth are truth. The other are truth, the other are truth are truth, the other are truth. The other are truth are truth are truth are truth are truth are truth are truth. The other are truth are tru and scarceness in the world of news should be entirely unsuited to native ideas and habits, is and take a halt at the gates. There is the plain pleasure of sending you an extra occasionally. to learn he is now so far recovered as to reckon the rent of the peaks about double or treble for it having been already received from an object of generous sympathy. The inevita- generally regarded as an absolute curse by the light cart or whitechapel conveying honest John when I have to communicate, though hardother sections of the city—there shall be no ble mail-day comes round, whether the past has people at large. It is to be hoped that the direct and his wife and buxom children "to the mabeen full of incident or not, and it anything may tors of our future policy in India will weigh these ling." There is the bus with its load of sub. I must, however, first acknowledge the clear be gathered from Editorial hints in the columns of statements, and that we shall torego the attempt urban contributions to the crowd. Cab after and elegant style in which your printer gave the Provincial Wesleyan the non-actival of the to Anglicize a people stereotyped by the pre- cab succeeds, depositing a very heterogeneous my letter of May 1st, the last I have remonthly budget from England is viewed with judices and traditions of thousands of years. | company before the doors. Then come brouconsiderable deprecation and disgust on the part. In the meanwhile supendous evangelical ghams and carriages until the street is almost of the "staff." A man whose only material for efforts are being made for the benefit of our Inorrespondence is the history of Eogland dur- dian empire. Large tunds are being raised for seen to heave, the doors are opened, and, for tinct as are their respective subjects. ng the month of May, in the year of our Loid the immediate increase of the missionary staff. an hour a ceaseless crowd pours into the Hall. at a venture, allow me to remark, while I

lic, and dealt with accordingly. interest, is the death of Dudley A. Tyng, an Episcopalian diergyman who gave him by the R. w. Mr. Huntington, of the episcoof the Baptist Church, and a second hymn, rance with a previous policy seem desirable, which was read by Rev. E. de Schwenitz, there must be no scruple about it. The Conser- on any plan, and after any fashion. Among returned from abroad. The advent of each calls His wife, six children, and his aged father, of the Moravian Church; the hymn begina noble old Epi-copalian elergyman, surtotal and the Moravian Church; the hymn begintotal and the Moravian Church; the up for Jesus." These words now sound everywhere through the length and breadth following text of Scripture: "I count all missionaries from their merely tuitional work, for the missionaries from their merely tuitional work, for the Majesty's advisers. For some reasons it is well thought desirable unat native agencies snound be employed. Such a plan, too, would free the procession made up of the staff of the day. The pen that this Montreal Methodist legislative gathering is as gratifying an event as it f the land. He then asked his wife, as a things but loss for the excellency of the the present crisis of commercial depression would missionaries from their merely tuitional work, first are the Missionary Secretaries. That plain tive gathering is as gratifying an event as it last favour, to sing his favorite hymn, "Rock knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord."— be very undesirable. But when such tremen- which occupies their time to a most considerable looking man with Scotch face and dress in the is important, and the history of Methodism ages cleft far me," which she did, with Phil. file, 8. In this discourse, the speaker dous issues are at stake, when an Empire of two extent: A Society has therefore been organized Right Honorable Lord Panmure, Ex-Minister of in the Canadas can never dispense with it. her elegant but tremulous voice, and whilst depicted graphically the comparative insig- hundred millions of souls is trembling in the balance of under the presidency of the Earl of Shaftes. War. That gigantic figure is Dr. Gutbrie, It tells the world that there is fraternity, singing the last verse, his spirit peacefully niticance of all earthly acquisitions, when departed aged about twenty-five.

| Coording the last verse, his spirit peacefully niticance of all earthly acquisitions, when when a grand army of British veterans is exposcontrasted with the enduring riches of a soul ed to all the perils of a guerilla warfare; when Christian vernacular training institutions for ding Chalmers in brilliancy of fancy as Chal. You see my dear friend, how my per redeemed from sin and made an heir of the perils of a guerilla warfare; when the progress of heart of fact in this case is delightfully emphatic, and school-masters and should have sought just such channels as are Know the Lord, for all shall know him nobler appreciation of the example of Christ position, it really is grandly necessary that we quired to instruct her Majesty's subjects in Hinlands and anon to tears. That portly and tend their dominion! How many thanks their common head. All present who were should have a wise, vigorous, independent, and dustan.

stance, heard even an unpleasant word in of those occupying seats in the rear. The read by Thos S. Malcom, of the Baptist A debate of unusual importance was proceeding; friends. though, in most instances, satisfactory reasons relation to any of the popular but more advantages of the open tent in warm weawere assigned for their absence. The presence worldly subjects of the day. Politics, slather were, however, soon finely realized in with a prayer from the Rev. Francis Church, passing censure upon her Majesty's Government occurred between the Earls of Derby and over, and a number of servants are engaged in with a prayer from the Rev. Francis Church, passing censure upon her Majesty's Government occurred between the Earls of Derby and over, and a number of servants are engaged in of the lay members of our connexional Com- very, temperance, &c., have not been refer- the cooling zephyrs which stole gently from of the Associate Presbyterian persuasion, mittees, is, we conceive, in various aspects, highly red to, except in the general terms in which the open-sides across the congregation, makof the Disciples' Church, beginning with the ator had got up a speech upon the subject. All fortnight since, on a Sunday evening. In the Most of the annual district meetings h England waited almost breatblessly the issue of the House of Lords the Earl of Derby, referring to held, and the result proves most encouraging Does his successive journeys run."

The Rev. Mr. Willis then came forward was at stake. The interests of an empire of hun was present. The character of the noble Early the year is not perhaps so great as some may counsel to, a work on which Almighty God has stamped the conspicuous signature of His approsation. We announce with satisfaction the grant life ing fact that the receives of the Fond for the Counce, and the index of the came of the one, and the index of the came forward satisfaction the grant five ingregation as the depressed stat for trade under which the receives of the Fond for the other policy of the structure was to be initiated and shaped by said. Genuine, heartfelt prayer is—must the receives of the Fond for the other policy of the canopy overhead, and the massive sides of the structure. Such an enoch in the massive sides of the structure. Such an enoch in the massive sides of the structure was to be initiated and shaped by said. Genuine, heartfelt prayer is—must the results of the more forward this was at stake. The interests of an empire of hunder when the total of emigration and countered this was at stake. The interests of an empire of hunder when the total of emigration and countered this was thus seriously involved,—especially so may be at the year is not pectually as some may be the year is not pectually as the year is not pectually as some of the year is not pectually as the year is not pectually as come then with us, and we will do thee good; have been sought. Hecatombs would have fall on a Sunday evening. Of course Lord Shaftesnexional institution than might be realized were a sceptic, as proof of a poor.

The de licatory services were commenced, I put this before a sceptic, as proof of a proof of a poor.

The de licatory services were commenced, I put this before a sceptic, as proof of a poor. Israel."—Numbers x., 29. The sermon would have smoked with incense. Commerce all the sources whence the Conference directs is supplies to be sought, systematically drawn in the morning, by prayer from the Rev. Divine power; he said "it was a singular in the morning, by prayer from the Rev. Would have smoked with incense. Commerce which followed was entirely extempore, as would for a time have been suspended. Even proof of good feeling, good sense, good of feeling the Rev. Which followed was entirely extempore, as would for a time have been suspended. Even were also the two preceding ones, by Revs. proof of good feeling, good sense, good Joseph H. Kennard, of the Baptist Church.

Inste, &c." I said, "No: it was none of the Baptist Church agreed the prayer, the Rev. Alexander Newton and Jenkins. We regret that we The Committee of the Supernumary Minis.

The Committee of the Supernumary Mini that it was one of the happiest and most in-Let ingels prostrate fail."

When the bymn had been sung by the spiring efforts of that eloquent divine. For such moment,—up rises her Majesty's Prime day,—and perhaps there will be no more of of the preceding one. At the same time, the remark we have ventured to throw out in reference to the Contingent Fund, as to the prac-The May meetings have all passed off well ference to the Contingent Fund, as to the practical first of the Contingent Fund, as to the practical ference to the Contingent Fund, as to ticability and means of greatly augmenting its income, is equally, if not more emphasically, applicable to the present one, the object of applicable to the present one applicable to the applicable to the present one, the object of one of the most wicked of men. Men and which appeals alike to the sense of justice and one of the most wicked of men. Men and tained the Mosaic account of the tabernacle what he desired to rear in his discourse.—
"We have been journeying to heaven," and "We have been journey in the world when the which appeals alike to the sense of justice and the impulses of sympathy and gratitude towards the impulses of sympathy and gratitude towards one of the most weeded of men. Men and the invarious account of the most weeded of men. Men and their various constituencies, and consult the parties of sympathy and gratitude towards of the work of the work of the property of the resident ties by whose suffrages they have been elected and Dr. Guthrie, the orator of Scotland. As were the constituencies, and consult the parties of sympathy and gratitude towards are constituencies. the service of souls, are many of them, with that carried the conviction of sincerity to the beart. The whole mighty mass of 3,000 gation, and the glory of the Lord filled the incomparable generalship of Sir Colin Camp- beautiful estate of Lord Panmure late Minister and probably under the style and title of Baron tered the Doctor calmly waiting for a bite on the country is far from satisfactory. Our war-work fully demanded that he should pay a little root many important and pregnant suggestions. The touching incident opportunely introduced by fight such large bodies of troops as have hitherto voluntered to allow his Lordship to state his own ulation than when they built their Normal At the close of the sermon, the Rev. the campaign will settle down for years to come doctor should preach two sermons for him, as the never made so true an election of the right man George Duffield, Jun., N. S. Presbyterian, into a guerilla contest, a kind of warfare far penalty of his trespass, one in Scotland and the more perficus and unsatisfactory than that other in London. The terms were accepted,—and Rev. John Scott as its principal. Long may which has been hitherto pursued. Fever and Lord Panmures' known regard for the Wesleyan be be spared to sustain the responsible functions after which the same minister read a beau-disease will hold high revelry among our Missionary Society procured for us the honour which he discharges so ably, and graces so well! after discharging the pecuniary obligations of the year. Never was the Institution in greater offi Newton commenced the first sermon in the prayer meeting for them. This has been that the devotional exercises and up for Jesus, which was suming a some one, turknown to her, was arranging a were concluded after which the Rev. Dr. the congregation. Some additional remarks were constitution in greater offi

Newton commenced the first sermon in the prayer meeting for them. This has been that the doctor regarded it as no small honour to precated; and yet it seems to be inevited to preach the annual sermon of one at the Missionary Meeting, and the Rt. Hon. We precated; and yet it seems to be inevitable. The be invited to preach the annual sermon of one at the Missionary Meeting, and the Rt. Hon. W. with anxiety and alarm. The main satisfaction But whatever the nature of the bargain, we had to be gathered from it is, that from all accounts | him. and he served us well. ture of the daughters of our friends; while the asidusus and most efficient performance of their asidus and most efficient performance of their his may not be said of the war in Oude. That so a national rising against British rule. But spiring scenes in our annual history as a nation. the kingdom of Oude has been so recently annexed, that the people have had no opportunity the outside of a somewhat dingy and unimposing of judging of the beneficial effects of England's building in one of the most populous and busy > sighteen hundred and fifty-eight, ought to be The Church of England Missionary Society pro- It is a magnificent building, very well arranged am for once touching your types, that an viewed with very tender compassion by the pub- poses the sending out of several bishops, and the for purposes of seeing and hearing, and capable enlargement of the Provincial Wesleyan's In the political world atl is hazy and under One has not very much faith in bishops and sons. The platform alone, will accommodate fined. We know that we have a government bishopries, unless they be framed after the model six or seven hundred. This speedily begins to and that is au. What its policy may be; what of his Lordship of London and his see. If Dr. no positive and definite policy,-its movements But it seems to many people in England, and are those of a party determined to keep in power at any cost. It ford Ellenborough seems to be complicated organization of functional at any cost. It ford Ellenborough seems to be complicated organization of functional in the way of its maintaining the position to which in the way of its maintaining the position to which is not believed by in onical cheers. Then some popular min tors of the Grand Trunk Railway, was largein the way of its maintaining the position to which tionaries and forms is not half so desirable as a sister of our body passes in view, and is welcomin the way of its maintaining the position to which to have been elevated, he must be sacrificed. If plain, unaffected mission of godly men, fired with ed by the clapping of hands. He is succeeded the adoption of a line of action altogether at va. zeal, bent on self denial and sacrifice, unfettered by some well known and generous layman from the adoption of a line of action altogether at value and free to preach the glorious gospel of Christ the country, or by some missionary recently be compelled to embrace Liberal principles. provement, is that of Christian vernacular edudissenting minister who is known as a friend of where, it is in Montreal, and it kindness to Power, not government,—position, not wise and cation. In order to make Christian instruction the body. His appearance is greeted loudly. By Methodist Ministers, and liberality to Mepatriotic policy, seem to be the ambition of her as acceptable as possible to the natives, it is this time the clock is pointing to eleven, a sound thodist Institutions be the criteria, they are Majesty's advisers. For some reasons it is well thought desirable that native agencies should be of many footsteps is heard, and there enters a among the first. It shall not escape my questionable signs of feebleness and superficial- prepared on Christian principles. The magni- man, with a twinkle of quiet humor in his eye, Canadas and Hudson's Bay, are realities.

You can use this in any way you think not yet converts to the truth were affection patriotic government,—one in which principle The Irish Romanists catch eagerly at Lord is well received by the crowd is Samuel D safe entrance into the haven of eternal rest. used for other purposes than those of the jills at eight hundred thousand pounds! But it is to venerable Dr D.xxxx who x xx appears to the purpose of the p as his portion for ever.

At the close of the sermon, the Rev. Mr.

The President, the electors of South Buckinghamshire, the annual, is not necessarily perpetual. It remains Dr. Hannuah. Meser. Particular Rev. Mr. The Conference Committees.

The Committees, The Committees appointed by the Conference last year to piace the adiatrs of the respective desartements of our economy entrusted to their management in a position for its consideration and content in an annual, is not necessarily perpetual. It remains the close of the service, the close of the service, the close of the service, the close of the interesting potent form. Chanceler of the Exchangement of the its and others are all the content in the close of the service, the close of the service, the close of the its annual, is not necessarily perpetual. It repartments of our economy entrusted to their management in a position for its consideration and moved by the same spirit, in your application and moved by the same spirit, in your application and moved by the same spirit, in your application and moved by the same spirit, in your application and moved by the same spirit, in your application and moved by the same spirit, in your application and moved by the same spirit, in your application and moved by the same spirit, in your application and moved by the same spirit, in your application and moved by the same spirit, in your application and moved by the same spirit, in your application and moved by the same spirit, in your application and moved by the same spirit, in your application and moved by the same spirit, in your application and moved by the same spirit, in your application and moved by the same spirit, in your application and moved by the same spirit, in your application and moved by the same spirit, in your application and moved by the same spirit and purpose it is intended.

Course.

Course.

Course.

It would seem that you are unwittingly the chairman introduces the total purpose it is intended.

It would seem that you are unwittingly the chairman introduces the total purpose it is intended.

It would seem that you are unwittingly the same means to ching to power, he would have the chairman introduces the total purpose it is intended.

It would seem that you are unwittingly the chairman introduces the total purpose it is intended.

It would seem that you are unwittingly the same means to ching to power, he would have the chairman introduces the total purpose it is intended.

It would seem that you are unwittingly the same means to ching to power, he would have the chairman introduces the chairman introduc action at its present session, entered upon their duties in the order specified in the announces ments that have already repeatedly appeared in our columns.

The Stationing Committee, on which devolves the responsible, and, on that account, unenvisible and on the account, unenvisible and on the religion of the country is and superstition of heathen lands—

The hymn commencing of this country and the stability antagonistic to the religion of this country and the stability of ber throne. Cardinal Wiscana, it is said, is dangerously ill. But this is the very sevent of the country is so broken by the make a most graceful and not the religion of this country and the stability of the country is and superstition of the country and the stability of the country is and superstition of the country and the stability of the country is and superstition of the country is and superstition of the country is and superstition of the country is and superstitio nagement in a position for its consideration and action at its present session, entered upon their duties in the order specified in the annuace-to duties and the ord the responsible, and, on that account, unenviable prayer, but individual private Christians, ties, the advantages and disadvantages of of the Associate Reformed Church, after dury, of fixing the appointments of our Ministers who, unfitted by habit, but impelled by a the tent as a place of public worship. The who, unitied by name and the congregation was producted by sense of daty, manifestly take up a Cross day was ushered in with as bright and sunelevating Lord Palmerston to the peerage, with by a man of mind. Notwithstanding all that the Societies, the ladies employ their the personal the Premiership, and making Lord John Russ has been said, by the enemies of Rome, of the embroidery &c., a plan very much to be repreof the session of Conference, and, up to the close trusion and without delay, and thus occupy o'clock, the hour for the morning services to

In the evening at eight o'clock, the sun because taries of the Romish faith pay to their Pontiff, to the speakers and the cause whose in a reste debate. The fate of the Conservative ministry this meeting, insinuated that Lord Shaftesbury The numerical increase of our societies during tifying fact that the receipts of this Fund, for the be—the same in every true child of God, of the carvas itself were swaying from the year, show signs of progress, but candor comThe child of the rich crieth for natural supmast-heads to the circumference, giving the denies that he was present on the occasion, and > quent Doctor is an ardent disciple of Master Notwithstanding the brilliant victories which Izaak Walton, of piscatorial saintliness. His is not yet done. Though we may not have to for the privilege. Nothing loth, the doctor Weslevan Methodists never made a better speccounger recruits; and the chance shot of an of the Doctor's services. I suspect that the It is worthy of note, in passing, that at our two

> > Your Nova Scotian readers can have very

ub-division of the continent into Episcopal sees, of holding between five and six thousand per- the thing we now want, and then, with the the order of procedure, strays down to the front dignized gentleman who follows next, and who are due to the great Leader, whose wondrous country has been suffering during the year, an nowards of twenty-one toqueand on trial, is int. ter of mutual congratulation and devout thanks. giving to God. But it our numerical in rease be omewhat lower than the more sanguine amonest us were led to expect, our District medines reyeal other tokens of the presence and sanction of Almighty God, even more choring and sitisfactory. A very large number of Candidates for the Ministry have offered themselves and been accepted provisionally, and all our Connexional Funds exhibit a healthfulness and vigour surpassing that of many of the latter years of our history. The exact numbers cannot be reported as some of the District Meetings have not yet been held. Your readers will perhaps have seen the report of our annual Educational meeting held a: the Centenary Hall, under the able presidency of the Ex minister of Elucation. He gave the ... most flattering testimony to the genera' efficiency of our Day Schools throughout the country; and it is now a fact admitted on all sides, and on the authority of the most competent witnesses, that have been won by our troops in India under the chosen sphere of action with hook and line is the Wesleyan Methodism is taking the lead among the educational efforts of the day. The Right ell, who is at last to be elevated to the peerage, of war. Some time since his Lordship encoun- Hon. Chairman's speech contained something more than mere complimens, and outlit to be Campbell of Clyde,—the present state of that banks of one of his trout streams, and play- placed on permanent record, as the shrine of seen opposed to our troops, it is probable that terms, whereupon the latter required that the Training College at Westminster, - and they out won it by the force of its own zeal and mo-

> I cannot conclude my letter with a piece of news more interesting than that the members of he London Book Committee base resolved to erect a suitable monument over the grave of Charles Wesley, the poet of Methodism. His tomb in an obscure corner of an obscure charch yard in London has long been in a state of meiancholy dilapidation, -and it is creditable to the Book Committee that the subject has been promptly taken up It is to be hoped that the result will be successful and respectable. The only objection that can be made is that the scheme of the Book Committee shuts out the people of Methodism from paying their tribute of respect to the memory of their " sweet singer." The scheme should be connexional, - and doubtless the gratitude of tens of thousands who have found the hymns of Charles Wesley to be see ond to the poetry of inspiration, would find glad and liberal expression.

Letter from Canada. From our own Correspondent

CANADA, June 14th, 1858. edly, what Weslevans say is the best news. ed from just a single annoyance had the compositor not inadvertently put the fifth old Editor and Book Steward, broader broadsides might shake the a rongholds of anti-Wesleyans and anti-Christians.

The Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Canada assembled in Monly attended by the Pastorate of our Church in a City, which, for the first time, has the long too respectable and hospitable for this to be the first time it is worthy of being the and union with the British Conference, and