DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Grandma's Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens so Naturally That Nobody Can Tell.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowdays, by asking at any drug store for "Wych's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray is all gone, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy. Sport Notes

Rube Deane, the eminent Windsor citizen, thinks well of the Brantford team. He thinks particularly well of Brantford's first baseman.

Rube Deane has dug up a good catcher in Lexroix. The latter is a player of experience, with a good baseball head and a good arm. He will prove a source of much strength to the team, especially as three of the infielders are youngsters.

Lou Criger, the old Red Sox catcher, who has been desperately ill in Boston, is now on the mend.

Howard Camnitz, former Pirate star slaban, who hopped to the Pittsburg Federals, is said to be slated for release.

Jimmy Sheekard's Cleveland team is sitting in the American Association cellar. "I hain't got no pitchers," wails James.

Pitcher Comstock, purchased from Minneapolis, by Detroit last year for $10,000, will be sent to Providence next year if waivers can be secured.

Bob Hodges has turned down an offer of $250,000 for the Browns, according to a St. Louis report. Do you believe it?

The hitless White Sox established another record last week, during two games, forty-seven consecutive men ment to bat without making a safety.

Heinie Wagner, of the Red Sox, has water on the elbow. "Oh, no," argued Larry McLean, when told about it, "you mean water at the elbow."

Chicago experts are beginning to pick Henry O'Day's successor. Tommy Leach is the favorite candidate, with Roger Bresnahan a good second choice.

Cincinnati fans declare they would not trade Herb Moran, the former Superba, for Bob Bescher.

A "frenzied multitude" of almost 700 fans turned out to see the Cubs of the other afternoon.

Westerners say that Charley Her-
