

Sunday School

INTERNATIONAL LESSON NO. XIII
JUNE 28, 1903.

Review.—Read Rom. 1:7, 13-16.

Summary.—Lesson I. Topic: Paul's ministry at Ephesus. This is near the close of Paul's first missionary journey. After the riot at Ephesus he visited Macedonia, a city about 35 miles south of Ephesus. He sent for the elders and made them an affectionate farewell.

II. Topic: The change that will take place in the body at the resurrection. Christ's resurrection is fully established. The one who is resurrected is an important reason for believing that all the dead will be raised. This mortal body cannot inherit the kingdom of God, but must be changed.

III. Topic: Purity of life. Christians pay their debts except the debt of love, which is a perpetual obligation. The one who loves his neighbor as himself will not trespass in any way.

IV. Topic: Paul's coming afflictions. Paul reaches Tyre; meets with a cordial reception; enters the house of Philip the evangelist, one of the seven; tarried there many days; the prophet Agabus arrives; takes Paul's girdle and binds his hands and feet, saying that thus Paul will be bound at Jerusalem and will be delivered to the Gentiles. When the disciples heard the prophecy of Agabus they begged Paul not to go to Jerusalem, but he told them that he was not only ready to be bound at Jerusalem, but also to give his life for the truth.

V. Topic: Paul mobbed and rescued. As soon as Paul reached Jerusalem he conferred with the elders of the church. He then entered into the temple and purified himself, according to the ceremonial law. Jews from Ephesus saw him in the women's court with strangers and supposed he had taken a Gentile into the temple and thus polluted it. They stirred up a mob against Paul for the purpose of taking his life. Paul was rescued by Roman soldiers, and afterwards while standing on the stairs delivered an address to the assembled throng.

VI. Topic: Paul delivered from the Jews. At the close of the address delivered on the stairs the mob was again stirred against Paul. Lysias, the Roman captain, about to scourge him, when he learned that Paul was a Roman citizen. After this a conspiracy was made against Paul by the Jews, forty of them binding themselves together to take a curse that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed him. The plot was discovered and Lysias sent Paul with a strong military escort to Caesarea.

VII. Topic: Paul's good confession. Paul at Caesarea; a Roman prisoner; is tried before Felix, the governor; Jews come from Jerusalem accusing him; the charges were sedition, heresy, sacrilege; Paul's defense was clear and unanswerable; their charges could not be proved; Paul confessed that he was a Christian. After certain days Paul spoke before Felix his accusers, and reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come; Felix trembled; hoped that money would give him that he might release Paul.

VIII. Topic: Paul's defense. After Paul had been in prison two years he was called before Festus, the new Governor of Judea, and King Agrippa to make his defense. Paul had appealed to Rome, and Festus desired to frame a charge against him. Paul's address deeply impressed Festus and Agrippa, and they decided that if he had not appealed to Rome, he might have been released.

IX. Topic: Life through the Spirit. The law has no power to deliver from sin; it is weak through the flesh; Christ, who came in the likeness of sinful flesh, has power to save from sin. The Christian bears a carnal mind, but is spiritually minded; he walks not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

X. Topic: Paul's voyage to Malta. Paul set sail from Caesarea to Rome, August 21, A.D. 60. They landed at Fair Haven on the island of Crete during the stormy season. Paul advised them to winter here, but Julius, the centurion, who had charge, decided to sail for Phoenicia, a more commodious port of Crete.

XI. Topic: Paul preaching to the Jews at Rome. Paul performed many miracles on the island of Malta, and the people of the island honored him and his companions with many honors. In the spring Paul and the others with him were taken to Puteoli, near Naples. The apostle then went to Rome, called the Jews together; explained why he was there; a prisoner, and preached Christ.

XII. Topic: The duties of the Christian minister. Paul wrote this letter to Timothy from Rome. These were among his last words. Timothy had learned much concerning the Scriptures from a child. Paul charges him to be faithful as a minister and to preach the word.

PRACTICAL SURVEY. The story of the quarter is very interesting and may be briefly told with profit. When Paul had farewell to the elders at Miletus he was returning on his third missionary journey. Before he reached Jerusalem important stops were made at Tyre and Caesarea. Through the prophet Agabus and the premonitions of the Spirit Paul was apprised of trouble ahead at the capital city. His arrest at Jerusalem came soon after his arrival there, and to preserve his life Paul was hastily sent to Caesarea, the Roman capital, to Felix the governor. Here Paul's accusers met him, and although he showed their charges to be false, yet he was compelled to remain a prisoner for two years. Two memorable addresses are referred to, one delivered before Felix and Drusilla and the other before Festus and Agrippa. At last Paul saw that he could not obtain justice at the hand of the petty ruler who governed Palestine, and he accordingly appealed to Caesar, the Roman emperor.

A few points should be noted. 1. Paul had an affectionate nature. He loved intensely. His greetings and farewells show great warmth and affection. 2. He was sympathetic. He carried the burdens of the church upon himself. He was an indefatigable worker. Men do not often die of overwork. Worry kills more people than work. 3. Paul had a persevering spirit. When his course of action was once decided upon, nothing was allowed to hinder him. He overcame difficulties that would have discouraged ordinary men and pressed on to victory. 4. Paul was a man of prayer. Some of his best writings are prayers for the church. Eph. iii. 14-21; Col. i. 10, 11 are examples. 5. He was an exceedingly humble man, putting himself as less than the least of all saints. 6. He was also bold and courageous. Whether he was facing Gaius as Paphos, or the mob at Lystra and Jerusalem, or wild beasts at Ephesus, or governors and kings at Caesarea, or the emperor at Rome, he was the same undaunted, courageous man. 7. Paul was resigned to God's will. Like his Master, he could say, "Not as I will, but as thou wilt." There was no controversy between him and God, but whatever God did was at once acknowledged as right. 8. Paul had great faith in God. God was real to him.

Wins Instant and Constant Favor

WITH ALL JAPAN TEA DRINKERS.

"SALADA"

Ceylon GREEN TEA is pure, delicious and healthful. It is as far ahead of Japan Tea as "SALADA" black is ahead of all other black tea. Lead packets only. 25c and 40c per lb. By all grocers.

THE GERMAN MAID SERVANT

She Must Have a Pass-book Before She Can Serve.

The young person who fills so important a place in our domestic arrangements as housemaid, parlour-maid or "general" often undergoes a pride in her appearance, which, though entirely natural, is sometimes irritating to the less reasonable type of mistress, says the St. James' Gazette. What would she think if it were necessary for her, as it apparently is in Germany, to provide herself with a special pass-book, in which a full description of her appearance must be entered? This description of the German maid-servant is entered by the police of her native district, and is sometimes dictated more by candour than by chivalry. The color of the eyes and hair and the shape of the nose are all duly chronicled, and if the constable is of the opinion that any of these features are ugly, he has no hesitation in saying so. What possibilities such a system suggest! Imagine the young person about to start a career as cook or parlour-maid, presenting herself before the constable to await his verdict on her nose and lips!

IN HOT COUNTRIES Painkiller finds many uses. Colds, cramps, diarrhoea and all such troubles readily give way to it. Dose, one tea-spoonful in sweetened water. Avoid stimulants. There is but one "Painkiller," Terry Davis.

The inventors of an aliphair are not necessarily light headed, but many of them are.

Tom Hayes had told them to take the places marked off for them, and in response to his question each answered promptly that he was ready. There was a wait of a few seconds, and then Tom began calling, one, two, three. There we stood, like cowards, trembling, and over-whelmed at the murderous spectacle. Terry was the coolest man in the crowd. He stood with his coat carelessly unbuttoned and his hat thrown back jauntily on his head. Broderick, on the other hand, had pulled his hat close over his eyes, and had buttoned his coat closely. He appeared to be struggling to control himself, while Terry seemed perfectly at ease.

"I shall never forget the sharp, ring of Tom Hayes' voice as he called out the three numbers. At the sound of 'three' both Broderick and Terry fired, but I think Broderick was first. His bullet struck the ground between Terry and me, and I saw the little cloud of dust it raised. His pistol went off before he had brought it to a level or sighted it. He had a hair-trigger gun, and he wasn't accustomed to it. Terry aimed deliberately, but quickly, and Senator Broderick sank to the ground, first resting on his right hand and then rolling over on his

"I heard Terry say to Tom Hayes, 'I hit two inches too far to the right.' The doctor pronounced it a fatal wound, and the duel was declared at an end. Sure enough, the doctor said the bullet had passed two inches to the right of the heart, and Terry's remark to Hayes shows how the Judge shot with intent to kill Terry and his friends at once left the place, and Broderick was quickly carried to his carriage and conveyed to the house of his friend, Haskell, the woolen manufacturer, where he died two weeks later."

When Alfred Henry Lewis, the author, was a correspondent at Washington for a Missouri paper, he had a difficulty with Governor Dockery, who was then a member of the house of representatives. Lewis cast about for a suitable revenge. After thinking about the matter for some days he wrote an innocent paragraph for his paper which said that Mr. Dockery, who is a rich man, had decided to give a large portion of his wealth to the various churches of Missouri, and had begun by sending cheques for $500 to churches in St. Joseph and Kansas City.

Then he sat back and waited. Dockery was begging for mercy in less than a week. Every church in the state, almost had written for its share. Lewis printed another paragraph saying that Mr. Dockery's contributions would not be made for some years, and since that time Dockery has been scrupulously polite.

You Will Like This Dessert. Put the yolks of five fresh eggs in a bowl, add to them a few heaping tablespoons of granulated sugar, take an egg beater and grate in a quarter of a good-sized nutmeg and stir it well into the mixture, add two cups of cream and with an egg beater whip it into a foam with the other ingredients. Pour this mixture into small china cups, stand them in a shallow pan of cold water, stand the pan on the range, and when the water has boiled gently for ten minutes, take the cups out and stand them where they will get ice cold, but will not freeze. Just before serving them sprinkle over the top of each cup a thick layer of grated macaroons.

This dessert is easily made and is dairy and delicious. If one does not like the flavor of nutmeg, vanilla may be used instead.

A Token of Attachment. In former days it was usual for a couple seated together to eat from one trencher, more particularly if the relations between them were of an intimate nature, or again if it were the master and mistress of the establishment. Walpole relates that so late as the middle of the last century the old Duke and Duchess of Hamilton occupied the dais at the head of the room and preserved the traditional manner by sharing the same plate. It was a token of attachment and tender recollection of unreturnable youth.

A Notice to Burglars. The following quaintly worded notice is posted outside the offices of one of the street car companies of Paris: "We beg to inform burglars that we do not leave money or valuables in any of our depots during the night. You are requested to make known this fact among the confraternity, so as to avoid unnecessary trouble and loss of time." The newspaper which publishes the above adds, "Prudence and prevention are the two methods of safety."

Strong Local Color. Detroit Free Press. Timmins—I've got a great idea for enriching my stories since I was in Chicago. Simmons—What is it? Timmins—Am going to have them wind up with 'so they lived happily and went on marrying ever after.

Mrs. F. Wright, of Oelwein, Iowa, is another one of the million women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A Young New York Lady Tells of a Wonderful Cure:— "My trouble was with the ovaries; I am tall, and the doctor said I grew too fast for my strength. I suffered dreadfully from inflammation and doctored continually, but got no help. I suffered from terrible dragging sensations with the most awful pains low down in the side and pains in the back, and the most agonizing headaches. No one knows what I endured. Often I was sick to the stomach, and every little while I would be too sick to go to work, for three or four days; I worked in a large store, and I suppose standing on my feet all day made me worse.

"At the suggestion of a friend of my mother's I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it is simply wonderful. I felt better after the first two or three doses; it seemed as though a weight was taken off my shoulders; I continued its use until now I can truthfully say I am entirely cured. Young girls who are always paying doctor's bills without getting any help as I did, ought to take your medicine. It costs so much less, and it is sure to cure them.—Yours truly, ANNE LAMPHIER, 174 St. Ann's Ave., New York City."—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

String Local Color. Detroit Free Press. Timmins—I've got a great idea for enriching my stories since I was in Chicago. Simmons—What is it? Timmins—Am going to have them wind up with 'so they lived happily and went on marrying ever after.

Wilson's Fly Pads

will kill millions and do it quickly. 10 Cents

Overcoming the Obstacle. "Yes," said the young man who was taking the young woman for an auto ride, "the auto has its advantages; but still there is a great difference between it and the good old horse."

"Oh, yes; I suppose there is," answered the young woman. "For instance," went on the young man, "with the horse, when one was driving with the pretty girl, he could hold the lines in one hand, or wrap them about the whip, and—and—ah—hug the girl."

"Oh-h-h-h! you awful thing!" exclaimed the blushing young woman. They sped along in silence for several miles. At last the timid young thing said: "But I should think that difficulty could be easily overcome."

"What difficulty?" asked the young man. "Why, that—what you said about the times when the men took the girls driving behind a horse, and when they wrapped the lines about the whip, and when they—oh, when they did what you say they did."

"I don't see how it could be overcome," said the youth. "If you stop the auto it's liable to start up of itself and upset you in the ditch, and a fellow simply has to keep both hands busy while it is in motion."

"I know," faltered the girl, "but—but it seems to me there would be a way."

"I'd like to know what it is?" "Well, couldn't the girl—couldn't she hug—the man?"

Wins Instant and Constant Favor

WITH ALL JAPAN TEA DRINKERS.

"SALADA"

Ceylon GREEN TEA is pure, delicious and healthful. It is as far ahead of Japan Tea as "SALADA" black is ahead of all other black tea. Lead packets only. 25c and 40c per lb. By all grocers.

THE GERMAN MAID SERVANT

She Must Have a Pass-book Before She Can Serve.

The young person who fills so important a place in our domestic arrangements as housemaid, parlour-maid or "general" often undergoes a pride in her appearance, which, though entirely natural, is sometimes irritating to the less reasonable type of mistress, says the St. James' Gazette. What would she think if it were necessary for her, as it apparently is in Germany, to provide herself with a special pass-book, in which a full description of her appearance must be entered? This description of the German maid-servant is entered by the police of her native district, and is sometimes dictated more by candour than by chivalry. The color of the eyes and hair and the shape of the nose are all duly chronicled, and if the constable is of the opinion that any of these features are ugly, he has no hesitation in saying so. What possibilities such a system suggest! Imagine the young person about to start a career as cook or parlour-maid, presenting herself before the constable to await his verdict on her nose and lips!

IN HOT COUNTRIES Painkiller finds many uses. Colds, cramps, diarrhoea and all such troubles readily give way to it. Dose, one tea-spoonful in sweetened water. Avoid stimulants. There is but one "Painkiller," Terry Davis.

The inventors of an aliphair are not necessarily light headed, but many of them are.

Tom Hayes had told them to take the places marked off for them, and in response to his question each answered promptly that he was ready. There was a wait of a few seconds, and then Tom began calling, one, two, three. There we stood, like cowards, trembling, and over-whelmed at the murderous spectacle. Terry was the coolest man in the crowd. He stood with his coat carelessly unbuttoned and his hat thrown back jauntily on his head. Broderick, on the other hand, had pulled his hat close over his eyes, and had buttoned his coat closely. He appeared to be struggling to control himself, while Terry seemed perfectly at ease.

"I shall never forget the sharp, ring of Tom Hayes' voice as he called out the three numbers. At the sound of 'three' both Broderick and Terry fired, but I think Broderick was first. His bullet struck the ground between Terry and me, and I saw the little cloud of dust it raised. His pistol went off before he had brought it to a level or sighted it. He had a hair-trigger gun, and he wasn't accustomed to it. Terry aimed deliberately, but quickly, and Senator Broderick sank to the ground, first resting on his right hand and then rolling over on his

"I heard Terry say to Tom Hayes, 'I hit two inches too far to the right.' The doctor pronounced it a fatal wound, and the duel was declared at an end. Sure enough, the doctor said the bullet had passed two inches to the right of the heart, and Terry's remark to Hayes shows how the Judge shot with intent to kill Terry and his friends at once left the place, and Broderick was quickly carried to his carriage and conveyed to the house of his friend, Haskell, the woolen manufacturer, where he died two weeks later."

When Alfred Henry Lewis, the author, was a correspondent at Washington for a Missouri paper, he had a difficulty with Governor Dockery, who was then a member of the house of representatives. Lewis cast about for a suitable revenge. After thinking about the matter for some days he wrote an innocent paragraph for his paper which said that Mr. Dockery, who is a rich man, had decided to give a large portion of his wealth to the various churches of Missouri, and had begun by sending cheques for $500 to churches in St. Joseph and Kansas City.

Then he sat back and waited. Dockery was begging for mercy in less than a week. Every church in the state, almost had written for its share. Lewis printed another paragraph saying that Mr. Dockery's contributions would not be made for some years, and since that time Dockery has been scrupulously polite.

You Will Like This Dessert. Put the yolks of five fresh eggs in a bowl, add to them a few heaping tablespoons of granulated sugar, take an egg beater and grate in a quarter of a good-sized nutmeg and stir it well into the mixture, add two cups of cream and with an egg beater whip it into a foam with the other ingredients. Pour this mixture into small china cups, stand them in a shallow pan of cold water, stand the pan on the range, and when the water has boiled gently for ten minutes, take the cups out and stand them where they will get ice cold, but will not freeze. Just before serving them sprinkle over the top of each cup a thick layer of grated macaroons.

This dessert is easily made and is dairy and delicious. If one does not like the flavor of nutmeg, vanilla may be used instead.

A Token of Attachment. In former days it was usual for a couple seated together to eat from one trencher, more particularly if the relations between them were of an intimate nature, or again if it were the master and mistress of the establishment. Walpole relates that so late as the middle of the last century the old Duke and Duchess of Hamilton occupied the dais at the head of the room and preserved the traditional manner by sharing the same plate. It was a token of attachment and tender recollection of unreturnable youth.

A Notice to Burglars. The following quaintly worded notice is posted outside the offices of one of the street car companies of Paris: "We beg to inform burglars that we do not leave money or valuables in any of our depots during the night. You are requested to make known this fact among the confraternity, so as to avoid unnecessary trouble and loss of time." The newspaper which publishes the above adds, "Prudence and prevention are the two methods of safety."

Strong Local Color. Detroit Free Press. Timmins—I've got a great idea for enriching my stories since I was in Chicago. Simmons—What is it? Timmins—Am going to have them wind up with 'so they lived happily and went on marrying ever after.

Mrs. F. Wright, of Oelwein, Iowa, is another one of the million women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A Young New York Lady Tells of a Wonderful Cure:— "My trouble was with the ovaries; I am tall, and the doctor said I grew too fast for my strength. I suffered dreadfully from inflammation and doctored continually, but got no help. I suffered from terrible dragging sensations with the most awful pains low down in the side and pains in the back, and the most agonizing headaches. No one knows what I endured. Often I was sick to the stomach, and every little while I would be too sick to go to work, for three or four days; I worked in a large store, and I suppose standing on my feet all day made me worse.

"At the suggestion of a friend of my mother's I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it is simply wonderful. I felt better after the first two or three doses; it seemed as though a weight was taken off my shoulders; I continued its use until now I can truthfully say I am entirely cured. Young girls who are always paying doctor's bills without getting any help as I did, ought to take your medicine. It costs so much less, and it is sure to cure them.—Yours truly, ANNE LAMPHIER, 174 St. Ann's Ave., New York City."—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

String Local Color. Detroit Free Press. Timmins—I've got a great idea for enriching my stories since I was in Chicago. Simmons—What is it? Timmins—Am going to have them wind up with 'so they lived happily and went on marrying ever after.

Wilson's Fly Pads

will kill millions and do it quickly. 10 Cents

Overcoming the Obstacle. "Yes," said the young man who was taking the young woman for an auto ride, "the auto has its advantages; but still there is a great difference between it and the good old horse."

"Oh, yes; I suppose there is," answered the young woman. "For instance," went on the young man, "with the horse, when one was driving with the pretty girl, he could hold the lines in one hand, or wrap them about the whip, and—and—ah—hug the girl."

"Oh-h-h-h! you awful thing!" exclaimed the blushing young woman. They sped along in silence for several miles. At last the timid young thing said: "But I should think that difficulty could be easily overcome."

"What difficulty?" asked the young man. "Why, that—what you said about the times when the men took the girls driving behind a horse, and when they wrapped the lines about the whip, and when they—oh, when they did what you say they did."

"I don't see how it could be overcome," said the youth. "If you stop the auto it's liable to start up of itself and upset you in the ditch, and a fellow simply has to keep both hands busy while it is in motion."

"I know," faltered the girl, "but—but it seems to me there would be a way."

"I'd like to know what it is?" "Well, couldn't the girl—couldn't she hug—the man?"

The Markets.

Toronto Farmers' Markets

June 22.—Receipts of grain on the street to-day were small, with little change in prices. Wheat a trifle easier, 200 bushels of white selling at 75c to 76c, 200 bushels of red winter at 76c to 77c, and 100 bushels of goose at 69c to 70c. Barley sold at 44c a bushel for one load. Oats easier, 500 bushels selling at 35c to 35c.

Country produce and dairy products were in good supply, with prices generally steady. The best butter brought 18 to 20c, and fresh eggs 18 to 20c per dozen.

Hay in moderate supply, with prices steady. 25 loads sold at $12 to $13.50 for timothy, and at $8 to $9 for mixed. Straw dull, four loads selling at $7 to $8.50 a ton.

Dressed hogs are steady, light selling at $7.75 to $8.25, and heavy at $7 to $7.25.

Following is the range of quotations.—Wheat, white, bushel, 75c to 76c; do., red, 76c to 77c; do., goose, 69c to 70c; oats, bushel, 35c to 35c; barley, bushel, 42c to 44c; peas, bushel, 75c to 78c; hay, timothy, per ton, $12.00 to $15.50; do., mixed, per ton, $8 to $9; straw, per ton, $7.00 to $8.50; apples, per bushel, $1.50 to $2.50; dressed hogs, light, $7.75 to $8.25; eggs, per dozen, 18 to 20c; butter, dairy, 18 to 19c; do., creamery, 20 to 25c; chickens, per pair, 75c to $1.00; turkeys, per lb., 13 to 14c; potatoes, per bag, $1.25 to $1.50.

The Cheese Markets. Shelburne, June 20.—To-day three factories boarded 450 boxes colored cheese, for which 10-3-8 was offered. London, June 20.—To-day fourteen factories offered 2,115 boxes cheese; 200 sold at 10-1-2c.

Watertown, June 20.—To-day six thousand cheese sold at 10-3-4c for large and at 10-4-4 to 10-3-8 for small.

Belleville, June 20.—To-day 3,320 boxes of cheese were offered; 3,120 white, balance colored. Sales—Watertown 2,000; Houghton 800; Alexander 785; Magrath 285; Breton 50. All sold at 10-7-16c.

British Live Stock Markets. London, June 20.—Live cattle steady, at 10-1-2 to 11-2-6 per lb. for American steers, dressed weight; Canadian steers, 10 to 11c per lb.; refrigerator beef, 8-1-2c per lb.

Toronto Fruit Markets. Trade in strawberries was brisk at the fruit market to-day. The run of berries offering was large, and buying was fairly keen. Prices ran about steady with those of yesterday. The average run of berries were sold at 5 to 7c per box. A few lots of fancy grades brought as high as 8c, and some of the best as high as 11c to 11-1-2c. The general quality of the fruit was rather better than that of the previous day's market.

Bradstreet's on Trade. The continued advances in the markets for staple goods has stimulated the demand at Montreal for fall delivery. The fine outlook for the crops is helping trade in all lines, and the general opinion in trade circles is that the turn-over in the coming fall will be much larger than ever before. There has been a steady increase in the demand for goods for fall delivery at Toronto this week. The movement in seasonal goods is quite brisk in some lines. Wholesale trade at Quebec during the past week is reported satisfactory and merchandise is moving freely. At Victoria, Vancouver and other coast trade centres there is a good demand for fall staples. Trade generally appears to be in a healthy condition. The feature of the situation at Winnipeg is the steady progress being made by the crops. Business at Hamilton has shown steady progress this week. The firm tone of the markets for staple goods has had a good effect on country orders for the fall, and the calls for current requirements of retail trade are very encouraging. The conditions of trade, as reported to Bradstreet's, are exceedingly encouraging. In London there has been a steady demand for fall staples the past week. Retail trade is showing more activity, and it is expected that country remittances will show improvement soon. The movements in wholesale trade at Ottawa this week have been quite large, the retailers, under the stimulus of advancing prices of staple goods, having ordered freely for the fall.

The Correspondent's Revenge. When Alfred Henry Lewis, the author, was a correspondent at Washington for a Missouri paper, he had a difficulty with Governor Dockery, who was then a member of the house of representatives. Lewis cast about for a suitable revenge. After thinking about the matter for some days he wrote an innocent paragraph for his paper which said that Mr. Dockery, who is a rich man, had decided to give a large portion of his wealth to the various churches of Missouri, and had begun by sending cheques for $500 to churches in St. Joseph and Kansas City.

Then he sat back and waited. Dockery was begging for mercy in less than a week. Every church in the state, almost had written for its share. Lewis printed another paragraph saying that Mr. Dockery's contributions would not be made for some years, and since that time Dockery has been scrupulously polite.

You Will Like This Dessert. Put the yolks of five fresh eggs in a bowl, add to them a few heaping tablespoons of granulated sugar, take an egg beater and grate in a quarter of a good-sized nutmeg and stir it well into the mixture, add two cups of cream and with an egg beater whip it into a foam with the other ingredients. Pour this mixture into small china cups, stand them in a shallow pan of cold water, stand the pan on the range, and when the water has boiled gently for ten minutes, take the cups out and stand them where they will get ice cold, but will not freeze. Just before serving them sprinkle over the top of each cup a thick layer of grated macaroons.

This dessert is easily made and is dairy and delicious. If one does not like the flavor of nutmeg, vanilla may be used instead.

A Token of Attachment. In former days it was usual for a couple seated together to eat from one trencher, more particularly if the relations between them were of an intimate nature, or again if it were the master and mistress of the establishment. Walpole relates that so late as the middle of the last century the old Duke and Duchess of Hamilton occupied the dais at the head of the room and preserved the traditional manner by sharing the same plate. It was a token of attachment and tender recollection of unreturnable youth.

A Notice to Burglars. The following quaintly worded notice is posted outside the offices of one of the street car companies of Paris: "We beg to inform burglars that we do not leave money or valuables in any of our depots during the night. You are requested to make known this fact among the confraternity, so as to avoid unnecessary trouble and loss of time." The newspaper which publishes the above adds, "Prudence and prevention are the two methods of safety."

Strong Local Color. Detroit Free Press. Timmins—I've got a great idea for enriching my stories since I was in Chicago. Simmons—What is it? Timmins—Am going to have them wind up with 'so they lived happily and went on marrying ever after.

Mrs. F. Wright, of Oelwein, Iowa, is another one of the million women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A Young New York Lady Tells of a Wonderful Cure:— "My trouble was with the ovaries; I am tall, and the doctor said I grew too fast for my strength. I suffered dreadfully from inflammation and doctored continually, but got no help. I suffered from terrible dragging sensations with the most awful pains low down in the side and pains in the back, and the most agonizing headaches. No one knows what I endured. Often I was sick to the stomach, and every little while I would be too sick to go to work, for three or four days; I worked in a large store, and I suppose standing on my feet all day made me worse.

"At the suggestion of a friend of my mother's I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it is simply wonderful. I felt better after the first two or three doses; it seemed as though a weight was taken off my shoulders; I continued its use until now I can truthfully say I am entirely cured. Young girls who are always paying doctor's bills without getting any help as I did, ought to take your medicine. It costs so much less, and it is sure to cure them.—Yours truly, ANNE LAMPHIER, 174 St. Ann's Ave., New York City."—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

String Local Color. Detroit Free Press. Timmins—I've got a great idea for enriching my stories since I was in Chicago. Simmons—What is it? Timmins—Am going to have them wind up with 'so they lived happily and went on marrying ever after.

Wilson's Fly Pads

will kill millions and do it quickly. 10 Cents

Overcoming the Obstacle. "Yes," said the young man who was taking the young woman for an auto ride, "the auto has its advantages; but still there is a great difference between it and the good old horse."

"Oh, yes; I suppose there is," answered the young woman. "For instance," went on the young man, "with the horse, when one was driving with the pretty girl, he could hold the lines in one hand, or wrap them about the whip, and—and—ah—hug the girl."

"Oh-h-h-h! you awful thing!" exclaimed the blushing young woman. They sped along in silence for several miles. At last the timid young thing said: "But I should think that difficulty could be easily overcome."

"What difficulty?" asked the young man. "Why, that—what you said about the times when the men took the girls driving behind a horse, and when they wrapped the lines about the whip, and when they—oh, when they did what you say they did."

"I don't see how it could be overcome," said the youth. "If you stop the auto it's liable to start up of itself and upset you in the ditch, and a fellow simply has to keep both hands busy while it is in motion."

"I know," faltered the girl, "but—but it seems to me there would be a way."

"I'd like to know what it is?" "Well, couldn't the girl—couldn't she hug—the man?"

A GHASTLY TRADE

Human Skulls of New Guinea in Demand in Europe.

Human skulls are a strange article of commerce. Yet such is the demand which has arisen among curiosity dealers in Europe for the skulls of New Guinea native ancestors, which have ornamented the poles of native dwellings in New Guinea, that the Australian Government has inhibited the trade, says the London Express.