THE MILLINER'S FORTUNE.

CHAPTER III.

THE SEVERING.

One night more beneath the beloved liberty-and then Winnifred was to go a stately mansion of her husband. Maplewood was a sea-side residence, a few miles above the ancient town of Plymouth, and so far away from Boston, that Mr. Winthorp would not be at home more than twice a week, and for this Winnifred felt grateful. The slavery, she thought, would be more tolerable while the master was

This last night in the hills of her childhood, she had demanded solitude; her maid was forbidden to intrude; and she asked of Mr. Winthorp, as a special favor, immunity from his society.

The night was bitter cold; the fell fiercly from an angry sky, and the icy north wind whirled over the earth as though bent on an erand of destruction. For a couple of hours Winnifred paced the chamber restlessly; at last she paused before a window, and throwing open the casement leaned out into the darkness The fury of the storm filled her with a wild delight. It was like the commotion in her own soul. She threw a shawl over her head, and stepping into the corridor, listened intently to satisfy herself that the household was wrapt in slumber.

Then she glided down the back staircase, undrew the great bolts of the outer door softly, and emerged into the cold and gloom. The piercing wind made her shiver, but the freshness and freedom of its breath gave her a mad strength, and she went on down the lawn, heedless of the drifts whose billowy whiteness obstructed the patheway.

On and on, her hand pressed hard against her heart, she flew; she had reached the pine copsewood at the foot of the meadow, and was losing herself in its dentes of shadow, when an outstretched human arm stayed her progress. A voice. strangley familiar, said:

Winnifred! Winnifred! where are you fleeing?'

'Let me go! Let me go, Gerard Middle ton! I am in no mood for company!' 'You shall not go until I tell you of the life wretched and heart broken! of the terrible agony which another than yourself is enduring! Oh, why, why had not been born a peer, or you a pauper? 'It was not so decreed. And where fore ask that question? It could no have changed my fate!'

Winnifred, our stations in life ar different; a wide gulf separates; but before God we are equal. As a friend, as an equal, I ask you do you love this man whom you have wedded?'

'Love him? It is desecrating the holy word of love to speak it in connection with his name.

'Winnifred-I cannot tell you by your new title-one query more. Deem me what you will, I must relieve my heart of this crushing burden of doubt. Loving him not, do you love another?'

intensity of his eyes searched her countenance. She did not speak, but the moon burst through its treble vail of clouds, and the pure ray of light fell down on the burning flush which crimsoned the cheek, brow, and bosom of the trembling girl. He was answered.

'For this moment, Winnifred, I am happy. In loving and being loved, why ld despair find a place to dwell? 'In being loved!' she cried, bitterly has not the earth closed over the only one who loved me! Is not my path through life to lead me always over barren fields and streamless deserts?' 'None to love you! Would to Heaven Winnifred, that I could tear out my heart, and fling it at your feet, that, seeing al its anguished throbbing, you might be convinced!' She comprehended him-she knew ther how well and earnestly she had been loved; for a moment the earth swam before her, then all her woe and despair surged forth in two simple words:

'Too late!' His arms opened to enfold her-they held her madly to his breast; his lips idol. rained down passionate kisses upon her

It might have been!

She tore herself away and stood erect earth stretched out before her a barren dern additions, and fortified on all sides honor of his family! -pale and cold as a chiseled statute. Gorard Middleton, I am a wife. My hope; no merciful grace there! Why verandas, from all of which the bleak ing. Laug.ter ec.aced around the locity verandas, from all of which the bleak ing. time of weakness is past; I am strong in the determination to do my duty! This weight of years, and her eyes grow dim visible. There were a few trees, such as love which might have created for us an with age before the sleep of the grave—flourish on sea-shore—trees of grand proearthly paradise must henceforth make its sweet, dreamless sleep came upon us strangers. To-night I bid you farewell her. flourish on sea-shore—trees of grand proportions, which had been beaten by the praying for life only that she might enjoy storms of many a winter. forever!

forehead upon it and said :

'The decree is just! Farewell! The next moment Gerald Middleton

Middleton. She gave him a loving sis- There was a dull, sleety breeze blowing; with the costliest velours de Venice, and it seemed, for never on any account would Middleton. She gave him a loving sister was a dull, sleety breeze blowing; with the cosmissist trends, and the tempest of yesterday had spent its the heavy silken curtains were looped the tempest of yesterday had spent its the heavy silken curtains were looped breat, and no amusement was powerful. each other-and set a chair for him by fury, but the skirts of its garments yet back with bands of enameled gold. the cheerful little fire. She noticed his trailed over the earth. pale face and abstracted air, but she was Ruth put her little room in order, trim- were all inlaid with pearl-rare specidiligently; both silent, yet both anxious.

At length he started up, and flung himself down on the chintz covered lounge—

When everything was arranged, she foldings, with clasps of gold, her shawl over her shoulders, and and emitting faint odors of perfume, soft locked the door of the cottage behind as the breaths of Araby's breezes; but led as she laid aside the garment on as they hurried past.

which she had been engaged. He drew her down on the lounge and retained the a cold hand seemed clutching at the warm these books were held, their contents of the christian another, he would never quit the protecting cashes though the cashes though another, he would never quit the protecting cashes though the cashes the cashes of the christian another, he would never quit the protecting cashes though the cashes the cashes of the christian another, he would never quit the protecting cashes though the cashes the cashes of the christian another, he would never quit the protecting cashes though the cashes the cashes the cashes of the christian another, he would never quit the protecting cashes the cashes t perfect and child-like confidence she felt than the world-the desolate, heartless of a Christian church, abhorred the sight world!

in him.

'You will cail me presumptuous; you will say my punishment is just; but oh, Ruth, I am very miserable?'

world!

She lifted her hands to heaven and cried aloud—'God receive me!'

The fatal spring was made—the earth the heart to comprehend. And she cast turists of France.

temples with her soft fingers, saying strong hand held her back-a grave superstituous error, it was on the side of

'Yes; I know you are, my child, and 'I would die!' she said, simply.

life-have known the honey and gall of given? existence-I have loved!'

white as December snow.

she loved me in return! Ruth's disengaged hand shaded her storms cling to tenaciously?' face; she did not look up as she said: 'Well?'

'She loved me, but by the command of her father—her dying father—she wedded a man whom she loathes! My fate is advise!'

It have none to counsel me; none to lips, but she vouchsafed no other reply; black, but it is morning light compared she feels only aversion and hatred!'

love again? You will keep unto her, and peace to the troubled heart,' her only, as long as time with you shall

He marvelled at the singular brilliancy oses-but oh, so dull of comprehension come back to it?' s man! he understood it not.

Fame and Fortune!

His voice took a hard, stern tone as he me the way to light once more !' gray as hammered granite. Ruth, pale, for he led her on up the path to the and the admiration of the other.

It is a bitter morning!'

'I have little more to add, except that unknown guest.

I am going away—where, I scarcely know; old, loveless being, you will remember he had lived and suffered. nce had a heart, but that a cruel fate ook away its vitality and left it lead.'

'Yes, I will remember.' 'That is well. I must go now, Ruth, and God bless you. It may be a long, long time until I see you again. God, in heaven, bless and prosper you! He held her for a moment in his brother-

v arms, kissed her cheek with affection. and went from the house. And Ruth, staggering back cried out in sharp despair:

'Yes; he said it would be a long time ere we met again, and so it will! the length and darkness of the grave lie between then and now!

CHAPTER IV.

THE WAGES OF DESPAIR. not strange that Gerard Middleton and against him.' Ruth Mowbray should be tenderly endeared to each other. Both were orphans, by manual labor. It was but natural, then, that their attachment should be deep and steadfast. With Gerard this affection was that of a Ruth it was the all absorbing passion of more! I can trust you. her life She never thought of happiness where Gerard was not; never dreamed of the door and passed out. heaven from whence he was excluded. Ruth fell on her knees, and while thank-Purely and entirely she loved him; her ing God that she had been taken from have saved him a pang; all her hopes and peace which passeth all understanding. joys were centered around him. She never paused to think of the consequences of this ardent love; she would have blushed with veriest shame if it had been Gerard Middleton.

Yet in her true and loyal heart, she Fearfully had she been punished! The chusetts bay. and dreary desert—there was no joy; no by innumerable piazzas, balconies, and

She held out her hand. He bowed his grim future in the face! Her faith was brehead upon it and said:

She had not the courage to look the house was fitted up in a style of grandeur small; her trust in God's gracious Propagation. The whole spacious interior of the house was fitted up in a style of grandeur small; her trust in God's gracious Propagation. smail; her trust in God's gracious Pro- rarely seen on this side of the Atlantic, would go down to death, and thus rid her was, in itself, a miracle of magnificence, bring it into existence? Whose care is stood alone; and through the snow and heart of its burden. There was rest in it was the entire size of an octagonal sleet a dark figure made its hasty way up dust. There would be none to mourn tower in the western wing of the buildfor her; Gerard, perhaps, might shed a ing: and its southern winding opened mother. In the gray of the morning there was an knock at the door of the tiny cottage her name would pass from his remem which were Mr. Winthorp's special pride.

In the gray of the morning there was few tears, but they would dry soon, and upon the superb gardens and shrubbery, which were Mr. Winthorp's special pride.

It was stronge to see how Wintfred's production and production of the tiny cottage.

Per Schr. Mattel & Bessie which served Ruth Mowbray for a shop berance. One little plunge beneath the The walls of this bouldir were found an angel's toward that wee child. When and dwelling house. Ruth was mistress of her trade now and in business for herself in an humble way.

Derance. One little plunge beneath the bosom of the sparkling river—a little with pictures, by the old masters, in frames of carved rosewood; the floor was a wondering of strangers over the drowned laid with an exquisite pattern of crimson dark eyes. The gentle mistress of the place un- girl-and all would be over!

closed the door, and admitted Gerald The night set in with storm clouds, vet. The chairs and sofa were covered their mistress idolized the babe; and so a true and faithful friend to him—therefore she forbore troubling him with perplexing questions.

There was a harp, and a cabinet from her scrupulous exactness, that a plant plant plant are specified mand the boy Wilderm, mens of work, imported from a foreign after its paternal grandfather, but Winder from her scrupulous exactness, that a plant pla He gazed into the fire; she sewed favored and welcome visitor was expected. choice pieces of music. Books there were her down on the lounge and retained the had taken. She did not shrink fountains of her life—but she conquered were a vile poison; and Winnifred, brought his father, and would kiss no one save his from the touch; she rested herself in the the motion, for the grave was not colder up as she had been in the strict tenents mother, either for threats or persuasions. July 10 1878.

solemn voice said:

'Child! what would you do?'

distress. I am but a boy-nineteen years you dare go unsummoned into the pres- missed them, evidently, but made no in have just passed over me, and yet I have ence of the Ruler of heaven and earth- quiry for their fate. all the strength and passion of manhood! the Lord of Hosts, who has forbidden I have awakened to the joy and sorrow of man to toy with the life which He has

'I have loved one as far above me as of that? the terrible hereafter! You are its cage be gold or iron!' roof of Atherton Hall—one night more of the stars are above the earth! A proud, young and fair; your face is like the face Mr. Winthorp smiled, his teeth glisten-of kindred; not a soul on whom I have was a world of cunningly-hidden sarcasm gently-'but for comfort in this trial, no strength! of those blue eyes; he wondered at the my sister; and not death, but life is the death alone can draw down the curtain. blush which made her cheeks like damask season for offering the petition. Will you The house was always filled with disti

His friendly hand drew her away from high in the social and political world; and 'Yes, Ruth, I loved her thus! No other the icy brink of the river; the strange eminent statesmen, poets, artists, and woman will ever enter into her place in persuasiveness of his voice brought a re- orators made up the coterie of his permy heart; no other footstep will wake action of feeling to her sore spirit. She sonal friends. the echoes of that sealed chamber where saw with measureless terror the frightful And among them ai!, Winifred moved her love is buried. Henceforth, I ignore doom from which he had saved her.

'I will shrink from no evil! Only show of her attire, the brilliancy of her jewels.

went up to her, alarmed by her still hour before. The lamp still burned over the establishment of Mr. Winthrop; rigidity. 'What ails you, dear Ruth? Why do the hearth. He seated her in a chair acquaintance, he knew of no lady whom you stand there so like a frozen thing?' before the grate, removed her shawl with he would have preferred to install in the 'I am cold; 'she drew near the fire. thoughtful care, for it was wet with snow, place of his wife. It is a bitter morning!' and then took a seat himself, on the Winfred was s 'Yes, truly; and your arms are bare, opposite end of the hearth. During the husband -she carefully avoiding him ex-Let me wrap this shawl around you,' space of silence which fell between these cept on occasions when such avoidance 'Thank you; and now go on. I am two so strangely brought together, Ruth would have attracted remark; and at but I must flee from the place which though delicately cut; the curve of the affinity for the other. holds her. I must not remain to tempt nostrils indicated firmness and courage, In all things, Winfred studied to obey her and expose my own weakness. And but the mouth was tender and beaut. fur her husband; his slightest was es were now, Ruth, if, in after years you shall as a woman's. It was a face of spiritual her aws. She had said to herself that in ear men speak of Gerard Middleton as a strength and beauty—the face of one who expiation of her weakness in judding to > ford, the pastor of Windfail.' She knew now, to whom she owed her same haughty induference.

life-the young ciergyman, whose burnthe Cross.

death. For this I thank you. During the God after the manner of her successors. day and night which are gone I have been mad -but I trust the frenzy is over. Some eyes and flinty face, he knew that time, to show you the truthfulness of my would not be safe to urge the matter, so gratitude, and to prove to you that I had he allowed the subject to drop. some cause for distress, I will confess to will fill me with shame, yet I owe it to Winfred Growing up to youth together, it was God for the sin I was about to comenit lovelinesss had ripened and grown more dence which it is not your pleasure to she known since the doors of Atherton both were poor-both were struggling give; but when you are saddened and op- Hall had closed behind her, when she through the world to obtain a subsistence pressed, come to me freety, that I may had gone forth a bride. share the weight of the burden.'

strong, and their regard for each other scruteny - his hand was upon the latch kept her thoughts from wandering after to go. 'You will be true to yourself-you will wore a cluster of dead arbutus flowers

He smiled upon her hopefully, opened words.

CHAPTER V.

MAPLEWOOD. The family mansion of Mr. Winthorp said to her, even in sport, You love this stood on a high bluff of land, some fifty rods from the coast. It was a wildly picturesque situation commanding a gloyielded up all on the shrine of the earthly rious view of the long reach of the Cape Cod, and the gleaming bosom of Massagolden dream had vanished. The skies, The house was a large, old, rambling lately so radient, were gray and cold; structure, brightened by numerous mo-storms of many a winter. She had not the courage to look the The whole spacious interior of the vidence weak. She said to herself she and the room appropriated to Winnifred humanity like her who has suffered to

The work table, mantle, and etageres enough in its attraction to draw her from the hat work, and come here and sit by my the colling nood—instened to the hollow the first time she came to the knowledge down in the leafloss trees, that she had wedded an infidel, one who denied the existence of God, and believed to the knowledge over his bright head, and he began to the knowledge over his bright head, and he began to the knowledge over his bright head, and he began to the knowledge over his bright head, and he began to the knowledge over his bright head, and he began to the knowledge over his bright head, and he began to the knowledge over his bright head, and he began to the knowledge over his bright head, and he began to the knowledge over his bright head, and he began to the knowledge over his bright head, and he began to the knowledge over his bright head, and he began to the knowledge over his bright he of these tokens of infidelity. Her soul

A moment afterward, Mr. Winthorn entered the chamber. His eye fell upon o I have come to you to pour out my 'Die! has God, then, called you? Do the table where the books had been: he 'llow does the arrangement of Mrs.

asked. She started, blushed; and then turned white as December snow.

'I am weary and heart-sick, good sir; 'Mr Winthorp has taken unnecessary and the tomb gives a dreamless sleep.' care in its appointments,' she replied; 'But the hereafter! Have you thought the prisoned bird does not mind whether beautiful, but tender-hearted girl! And of a child, why should you be weary of ing whitely through his black mountaine. forth from its blessed shelter, to dwell in for all her wealth and pride and beauty that life which you have just begun; and 'The bird will beat its wings until from which strong men buffeted by a thousand sheer weariness it becomes content. His torms cling to tenaciously? voice was soft and smooth; its intonation 'I am wretched and alone. Not a tie resembled a strain of music, but there > advise!'

> lips, but she vouchsafed no other reply;
> 'If you will permit me to stand to you and, finding her disinclined for conversawith hers! Only think of it, Ruth; com- in a place of a brother, I will be all that tion of any kind, he bade her a courteous pelled to cling for life to one for whom a brother should!' said the young man good evening and quitted the apartment. Winnifred's life at Maplewood was like 'And you loved, Grace-you loved her which you are evidently passing, you that of many another proud, beautiful deeply and strongly as you will never must look up to God, who alone can give woman, wedded to a man for whom no love is entertained -a fate the hardest 'I cannot look up! I have no courage; and bitterest that can fall to the sot of woman! A home without love-a union ALLEN & WILSON 'Strength will come in answer to prayer, but in name-a wretened farce, to waie guished guests, for Mr. Winthrop stood with her own stately grace and beautythe existence of Love; I live only for 'I will go back!' she cried earnestly— an acknowledged queen. The splendor but, above all, the perfection of her loveproceeded, and his face looked cold and It seemed that he knew her residence, liness, made her the envy of her own sex silent, leaned against the wainscot. He cottage which she had quit but a brief In truth, she was well fitted to preside

Winfred was seldom alou had time to observe fully the face of her such time there was no confidence, no communion of spirit between them. They The face was pale, its features finely were oil and water—the one had no an unsought love, sae would be to sir, 'You are Ruth Mowbray! I recognized Winthrop a true, faithfut and obedien you at once, from having seen you some-times at church. And i am John Ruther-fore she was cold and ca m toward him and his demeanor to her partook of the

In one thing only did she dely him ing eloquence had won so many weary When he requested her to give up her atones to rest their burdens at the foot of tendance at church -a wild and fanatical he Cross.

She arose, and held out her hand to his.

proceeding of which he did not approve
—she replied no! Mr. Winthrop anght From the fulness of her heart she spoke : do as he chose for himsen; but as for her 'Sir, you have saved my soul from so long as she lived she would worship And, loosing into her sternly fissaning I'wo years of this existence -15 could perfect. Envied, admired and flattered "Ruth, my sister, I ask of you no confi- as she was, not an hour of happiness had

The name of Gerald Middleton never He looked into her eyes with caim passed her hips; with jealous care she him; but close against her neart she tender brother for a dear sister; with think of that terrible self-destruction no hts lirst and last gift. And those desriv cherished flowers told more than mere WinnifredWinthrop's twentieth birtistay approached; it arrived, at length. The air was fragrant with spring's sweetest life she would have given, any day, to temptation, she prayed earnest y for that blossoms, but there was no feasting nor joy at Maplewood. A night of whid doub t and anxiety, at times dismay drew on but with the morning light came a happy

Mrs. Winthrop was the mother of a ring boy !

The father's delignt was unspeakable For the first time in his life a turn, warmer toan admiration swept tarouga his being for his wife, because she had brought him tas great blessing. A son to bear his proud name, to in perit his vast fortune, to keep up the Maplewood was tarown open in regardhalis, tamps flasged, wine flowed, and in her darkened camber langeis..ed the young wife, struggling with weathers-

Who can fathom the depth of tenterelse on eart, lov s a little chied but its flowers, on a ground of pale brown vel-

the only article of luxury which the furgal room contained.

The only article of luxury which the furgal room contained.

Ruth,' he said impatiently, 'put down that work, and come here and sit by my side. I have a confession to make.'

The cottage behind as the breaths of Araby's breezes; but her, she took the path through the snow, to the river.

She stood upon the high bank above the furgal room contained.

She stood upon the high bank above the boiling flood—listened to the hollow the first time she came to the knowledge murmur of the wind in the leafless trees, that she had wedded an infidel, one who over his bright head, and he began to would tarnish the lips to read, and stain de Vibraye, one of the leading agricul- Bank.

The calm, blue eyes of the girl were crumbled from under her feet—the chill lifted to his in earnest sympathy. She stroked back the bright hair from his her shudder—but she did not fall. A far out of the window. If this was a

A PROVINCIAL EXHIBITON WILL BE HELD IN

FREDERICTON

Winthorp's apartment please her?, he Sth, Sth, 10th and 11th October next.

made for the convey-Manufactures, by Rull-der at on at REDUCED to treight paid will be further all ringtion will be given on appl

Barristers and Attorneys AT LAW.

luctors, Notaries Public, Se., Loans New tiated, Accounts Collected. FFICE up-stairs in Wiley's Building, nex BECKWITH & SEELY. Attorneys-at-Law, Notaries Public, etc. Office in

CITY HALL. FREDERICTON Attend at Oromocto and Fredericton Junc-Accounts Collected, and Loans Negoti-

WAVERLY HOUSE FREDERICTON THIS well known botel has been improved on, and the premises enlarged. The Stables are the best in the city. Changes low.

JOHN B. GRIEVES, Proprietor

HUGH McMONAGLE, Sussez Corner, King's County, NEW BRUNSWICK.

York Street.

WHITTIE RE HOOPER

American and CANADIAN FLOUR

THE following brands in store Haxeil. Reliance Big " A, Dickson, Gibbs Best, Tidal Wave. Strong Bakers Venango, Hazol Dell, White Pigeon,

ALSO: Coles County Corn Meal, Oatmo ALSO :-1000 bush. Canadian Oats, a for seed. TIMOTHY AND CLOVER SEED.

Superphosphate, FARMERS' PLASTER. The Ail the above at lowest prices, and rades allowed a liberal discount.

Whittier & Hooper, EDGECOMBE'S BLOCK, From, May 11, 1878. York Street:

Locks Locks 8 CASES containing 80 doz. Rim and Mortic 40 dozen RIM and MORTICE KNOBS. For sale cheap by JAMES S. NEILL. Fton, May 18, 18/8.

GRIND STONES.

O'NE and a half Tous GRIND STONES.
For Sale by
JAMES. S. NEILL. Oats, Bran, Shorts

AND HEAVY FEED

A LWAYS on hand at the wareh undersigned, Campbell Street, Nation Seed Wheat and Seed Oats. ALSO FOR SALE,

A SECOND-HAND Express Waggon

GOOD AS NEW like hers, so gentle and tender : Wio GREEN HEAD LIME, LAND PLASTER CALCINE PLASTER and CEMENT. May 18, 1878, AES TIBBITS, JR

from Boston. 43PACKAGES HARDWARE

Just Received Of 12 Day, Cast Steel Scythes;
Kegs Cut Nails; I Barrel Pale Seal OII;
Forcel Codifish OII; I Barrel Olive OII; Dozen Enreka Clothes Wringers;
bozen Hoy ork Handles;

R. CHESTNUT & SONS

R. CHESTNUT & SONS. DON'T FORGET that the cheapest place is at G. L. Atherton & Co's Drug Store, ir Smith's Brick Building, adjoining People's

FISHER'S BUILDING, Queen Street, Fredericton, N. B. WOULD beg leave to inform his numerous friends and customers, and the public in general, that he has received from

EUROPE CANADA, and the UNITED STATES One of the best and cheapest stock of

CLOTHS, CLOTHING, HATS, CAPS,

- AND -Gents' Furnishing Goods ever ofiered in this market and will be sold CHEAP FOR CASH. Cail and examine for yourselve

Notice of Removal.

C. T. WHELPLEY WOULD respectfull—announce to his friends and the public generally that he has removed THREE DOORS BELOW THE OLD STAND, where with increased facilities to carry on a first-class Grocery store, he hopes to merit a continuance of the very liberal patronage he received for the last twelve years.

F'ton, April 13, 1878.

TAKE NOTICE! The Highest Prices in Cash paid HIDES & BEEF TALLOW.

F'ton Leather Co..

KING STREET, FREDERICTON. KEEP COOL. ICE. ICE. ICE. porting him in his fee undertakings and would inform his old customers and the public generally that he has now on hand the largest and best lot of 10 him to city, and will be prepared in the coming season to supply all of his old friends and as many new customers as will know him with their patronage, he hopes by strict them to the wants of his customers to merit continuance of the patronage so liberally between the public him during the last ten years that a has been in the business.

CASH FOR HIDES CHRAP

Gibson Tannery. (1384 and the highest prices paid for Hide for the Gibson Tannery, Monckton Point Gibson, by James McCauslan I, at the Tannery Bujamin Close, Gibson Corner, Railway ter minus; Christopher Broderick, Regent Street Fredericton; Richard Hudson, City Marxet Fredericton; Thomas A. Beckwith, Oromoto.

JOHN A. BECKWITH, Secretary-Treasur SALT AND MOLASSES. --AT--

ELY PERKINS

Landing this day :-100 SACKS SALT. Also, a choice lot April 27. STRAW GOODS, STRAW GOODS, STRAW GOODS.

50 DOZ. Mens' Youths' and Boys' Strate Hats. Best value in the market They will be sold from 10 cents upwards. THOS. W. SMITH. PER SCHOONER

MAUD & BESSIE. 60 R OLLS Rooting Felt.
12 Pitcher Spont Kitchen Pumps
12 Reams Flint Paper. Just received and for sale by R. CHESTNUT & SONS

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS. JUST received from Oshua, Ontario, 65 Pack ages as follows: ages as follows:
Manure and Hay Forks
Cast Steel and Malleable Garden Bakes:
Hoes, Sythes, Bush Sythes, Scythe Snau
Manure and Hay Ferk Handles; Shovel handles, For sale by ou, April 12, 1878. JAMES S. NEILL. PER S. S. DIRECT. 230 BOXES Window Glass, running from May 11, 1876. R. CHESTNUT & SONS

BEVERLY'S Bookstore and Bindery HAS REMOVED

Corner of QUEEN and CARLETON STS. May 4.

HARDWARE. Just Received : 4 DOZEN GO BE ANTE RNS dotoz. Glass Globes for same;
80 kegs Cut Nalls; 20 kegs Cut Spikes;
6 Double Mould Board Plows;
2 Heavy Jack Screws;
60 pair Japanned Shelf Brackets;
1 superior Refrigerator;
600 gross Wood Screws; 60 gross Brass Screws 60 gross Plated Screws; round heads—and for sale 1 w by R. CHESTNUT & SONS. SHAD AND SALMON TWINE, MILK Pans, Lamp Chimneys, Crocks, Flower Pots. For sale at BENJ, EVANS.

Queen Street. Fredericton, May 4, 1878. HARDWARE.

60 DOZEN T Hinges;
6 Dozen Garden Rakes;
2 "Extra handles;
3 Turnup Seed Drills—(a new thing here);
3 Lawn Mowers;
6 Patent Churns—(splendid article);
Just to hand and for sale low by Fiton, May 11, 1878. R. CHESTNUT & SONS. CUT NAILS.

160 K EGS Cut Nails and Spikes.
JAMES S. NEILL.

GRANULAED SUGAR. 20 B BLS. Granulated Sugar.

April 27. GEO. HATT & SONS. QPLINTS, SPLINTS at BEVERLY'S.

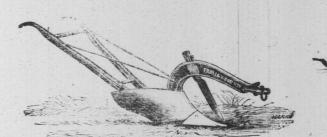

13 MOWING MACHINES; For sale by

R. CHESTNUT & SONS.
F'ton, May 25, 1878. NOW LANDING FROM CARS. 50 B bbls, Haxull Flour; 50 bbls, Shirk & Shider Extra; 20 "Graham Flour Granulated Sugar.

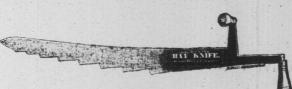

April 37 G. HATT & S

G. HATT & SONS.

50 WROUGHT IRON BEAM AND STEEL MOULDBOARDS

50 CAST IRON BEAM AND STEEL MOULDBOARD. 25 CAST IRON BEAM AND STEEL MOULDBOARD AND END 25 CAST IRON BEAM AND CAST MOULDBOARD;

25 HAY KNIVES R. CHESTNUT & SONS.

Opened to day.

BY RAIL!

4 R

4 Bales of GREY COTTONS.

Dever Bros. F'ton, June 15.

GOOD VALUE.

Per Schr. "Jessie" FROM BOSTON: 25 ROLLS dry Sheating Caper;
abarree Southern Piner;
5 " Tar';
5 " Coal Tar;
1 " ReadsGoot of Quite;
36 Large Pors with small shoulders, to 3 doz. Fifth Wheels; 40 Pair Smoothe Sad Irons; " Barn Boor Bors Mollasses Gales Mollasses Gales Centennial Si

3 " Polishing from, Niekle Plate; Stands only. Just received and for s Fton, June s. R. CHESTNUT & SONS. BROOMS, PAILS, CEMENT, an LIME. 50 DOZ, Breom, pridox, Palls

REFRICERATORS. JUST Received from Brockville, Ontario, REFRIGERATORS: 1 ARTIC; 1 PALACE;

For sale by JAMES S. NEILL. H. RUTTER, SADDLER and HARNESS MAKER

QUEEN.

DEALER IN BRUSHES, CURRY CODS, BLANKETS, AT THE OLD STANK

Opposite the County Court House Glacon Street, Plant, N. Fron, April, 29, 1878. YORK COUNTY DEBENTURES FOR S.I.L. FROM $8,000 to $10,000, in denomination $200, $300 and $500.

Fr dericton, June 21, 1878.—Rep. DOG TAXES.

PAPER! PAFER!! NORTH BRITISH & MERCAN-THE INSURANCE CO. OF EDINDURAN & LONDON

Mowing Machines. JULIUS L. INCHES: From, May 18, 1878. GLASS.

Cheap Travel. MIGRANT Tickets via the Intercolonial Railway to the Great North West Tarri I MIGRANT Tickets via the Intercolonial La Railway to the Great North West Territory at lower rates than ever before offered. Tacket from Boston to New York and return, for School, by the Old Colony Railroad and Fall River Line of Palace Steamers. Magnificent Brass and String Bands. No drawing rooms or bedrooms can possibly equal the luxuriance displayed in those steamers. The conductor

Tickets for sale at the subscribers office. JOHN RICHARDS. R. R. Ticket Agent, JUST RECEIVED BY RAIL

4 CASES READY MIXED PAINTS, from VARNESH, in | Pints, Pints, Quart ale Glue; om:mon Black Glue; remaining Burnt Umber, raw Umber containing Burnt Umber, raw Umber, at Sceanna; Baw Sceanna; Drop &; Indiao Red, Chromo Yellow, Ver-on, (gr und in oil and dry); 50 lb. Rose Honax; I case Potash; I kag Alum, Reg Saithetre; Ecases Axie Graise; reams Sand Paper; Snellace; Glazien Points, etc. For sale by JAMES S. NEILL.

FROM BOSTON.

A BACK SEAT. 50 BARRELS.

ELY PERKINS H AS 50 bbls, of this extra A. Howland for his customers to try, P'too, April 13, 1878. Brushes. Brushes. UST received by rail from McLaughian's Brush Factory, Boston.

For sale cheap by JAMES S. NEILL. Font April 20, 1878.

75 KEGS BEST WHITE LEAD; 90 Kegs Yellow, Red, Green, Blue and Black;

Hogs Pure Zinc White;

50 one pound cans lisst ight Snat ter Green;

50 by pure origin Rad (new color);

50 of the pound fins White Lead;

50 of the pound fins White Lead;

50 of the pound fins White Lead;

50 of the pound Grays—

FARMERS! WHITTIER & HOOPER Are selling the best grades of AMERICAN AND CANADIAN FLOUR at as low rates as can be bought in F'ton,

Suitable for Seed or feeding purposes. annel Goods, Brooms, Dried and Smoked Fish, Smoked Meat, Butter, etc., etc., WHITTIER & HOOPER,

The Subscriber begs to announce to the the that he has always on hand a good at varied stock of

CONSISTING OF Dry Pine Plank, 14, 13 and 2 inch, thorough-ALSO. Good Dry Laths and Sawed Cedar Shingles

TRICHARD A. STEY. SOMETHING NEW.

noothest Walt or Celling of any Ans person can use it. Superior will cover about 400 square teet, for use in five minutes. JOHN RICHARDS,

TO LOAN. 250 B Sale low by JAMES S. NEILL FRANCE, WERMORE & WINSLOW-FRANCE, WERMORE & WINSLOW-FROM, May 15, 157

PLOWS

6 DOUBLE MOULD BOARD PLOWS: 6 WOODEN BEAM AND CAST MOULDBOARD.

THE Millers say all other brands have to take a back seat when this brand of FLOUR is in

I case of Brushes containing Whitewash, faint, Paste, Varnish, House, Scrub, Dandy nd Shoe Brushes, Sash Tools, marking, and Paints. Paints.

R. CHESTNUT & SONS.

ORNMEAL, best quality, very low. ATMEAL, extra quality, at St. John prices. GOOD CANADIAN OATS.

Edgecombe's Block, York Street. From, April 13, 1878. LUMBER FOR SALE.

SPRUCE, PINE and HEMLOCK LUMBER,

Pierse call at my yard, West End Mill. TO PAINTERS AND OTHERS.

June 22.