It is a long time since so many and such monster sturgeons have been caught here, as this season. To-day M. Dunphy hauled down four from the Anderson fishing grounds, great monsters. One was over 8 feet long, and half filled a large waggon. As crowds drew about the team to see it, it would open its mouth, taking several hours to die.

French Teacher.

We have received a copy of a "new method" of 'eaching the French language by Laurent H Tremblay, Professor of French. We have looked carefully through the book and are of the opinion it has all the merits the author claims for it. The books aims at supplying the place at once of text book and teacher the surport wooseds to simplify plying the place at once of tex' book and teacher, because the author proceeds to simplify, according to general rule, some of the linguistic problems which puzzle the English tongue. The method of dividing the words into syllables for the purpose of "assimilating French sounds to correspondent English sounds" is novel and excellent. The professor has obtained a large number of subscribers for his book both in Nova Scotia and NewBrunswick. Some of the leading scholar in Fredericton have also subscribed to the book.
