SAYS the Halifax Chronicle : Anoth rowning accident is reported to have oc urred in the basin late yesterday after and, and the unfortunace young fellow is William Johnson, During the day he and several others hired a yacht at the north end and went out for a sail. They went as far as Steven's Islands, and it was while returning home that the accident happen ed. In some unexpected manner Johnso was struck by some of the boat's gear, an news of the sad event was brought to the city by one of the young men who were in his company. Up to 9 o'clock last night the body had not been recovered.

He was stricken He was miraculously cured at St. Anne's aud returned home once more able to walk eft his orutches at the shrine. Anothe remarkable curs was that of a Sister of Meroy of Watertown, who was taken from no medical skill could save her. She wa carried to St. Anne's supported in a chair and after the religious ceremonies were over that same Sister walked unaided down the aisle and out into God's sunlight On the return to the boat it was quite affecting to see her and Mr. O'Denn affecting to see her and Mr. O'Dennell approach each other, and shake hands. A little boy aged about four years, who was a cripple, and who had never walked, was so benefitted as to be able to stand and take a few steps before Montreal was reached on the homeward trip. A five year-old daughter of Clayton Giroux, of Ellenberg, was also very much improved in her walk and also in the use of her right arm.—Canadian Freeman, Kings ton, Ontario.
