LOCAL & OTHER ITEMS

Greater London has a population of 7,292,963, and an area of 963 square miles.

Five persons are known to have been killed and property worth $1,000,000 destroyed by a hurricane in Charleston, South Carolina.

A report from San Jose says that fifteen men were killed there in a powder explosion, caused by the carelessness of a soldier.

Alphonse Schlegel of Ottawa and Jos. Leblanc of Three Rivers, Que., were killed at East Templeton on the Ottawa River by a falling tree during the fierce wind and rain storm.

We regret to learn the death of Mr. P. R. Bowers, formerly editor and publisher of the "New Era" newspaper in this city, which occurred suddenly at St. John's, Nfld., on the 18th inst. He leaves a widow to mourn. R. I. P.

Cadet Percy Landrigan of Queen Square School Cadet Corps won third place in the Tyro match in the D.R.A. meet at Ottawa. The match was 500 yards, 7 shots, and Cadet Landrigan put on 25 windmill $8. His showing is an exceptionally good one when it is considered that 250 shots from all over Canada entered.

St. John's, Nfld., advices of the 26th, referring to forest fire says: Sweeping towards the sea with a violence which no human agency can control, two million dollars' damage has already been done by fire, which since Thursday forenoon has threatened with destruction the extensive pulp and paper plant of the Albert E. Reed Company at Bishop's Falls.

Mr. Joseph McDonald of Scotchfort, about 70 years of age, dropped dead at his home on Tuesday evening of last week. He had gone to the field where a binder was being started and making some remarks about the machine he suddenly fell forward into the arms of his son and expired. His wife predeceased him some years and he lived with his son and daughter. R. I. P.

Lieut. W. K. Rogers, Major J. M. Jones, Sgt. E. McInnis, Jr., J. Landrigan, Gr. J. D. McRae, Gr. F. Kennedy, R. V. Longways, the 32nd, and Cadets Percy Landrigan, J. N. Conroy, Alex. McKinnon and Willie Allan of this city, who had been attending the D. R. A. meet at Ottawa returned on the main train last Monday evening. They give glowing reports of the time they had and the good shooting done.

Speeding eastward behind time the Valley passenger train ran into a special on the trestle near Manchester, N. Y., Friday, and two day coaches plunged down 40 feet, striking the embankment like a pair of projectiles. In the awful plunge at least thirty seven persons were believed to have been killed and more than 60 injured. The injuries of several are so serious that they will die. The train was crowded with passengers, most of whom are war veterans and excursionists from the G. A. R. encampment.

Twenty six dead from suffocation, twenty-five seriously injured, thirty suffering from minor hurts, is total exacted at Combsburg, Pa., during an inexcusable panic at a moving picture show. The moving picture machine developed a slight defect and a small boy shouted "Fire." Botsa Dobrowski, a foreign miner, a giant in proportions, jumped from his seat and ran wildly for the exit. In a moment there was a fighting struggle made after him. As he rolled down the stairs he swept others from their feet who were awaiting their turn to enter the building and soon there was an indescribable pile of humanity at the foot of the stairs battling for life.

The community was shocked on Monday morning to learn of the sudden death of Mr. John A. McDonald, 22, S. 2nd, at Combsburg, Pa., which occurred about 7 o'clock. He held court on Friday and was shot down on Saturday. Sunday he was not well; Monday morning his physician called and found him lying in bed. Deceased was a native of New Glasgow in this province and was in his 39th year at the time of his death. He studied law in the office of Peters and Peters. In 1900 he was appointed magistrate of Charlottetown and Judge of the City Court. In military matters he stood high. He served with distinction in the South African campaign and was Major of the Light Horse Brigade. Three years ago he married the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Armas Lord, who with a son about two years old survive him.

Stalwart Liberal Denounces Laurier and His Government a Sink of Political Corruption

Joe Maatin has again jumped into Canadian politics, and issued the following statement at a meeting in Winnipeg on the 23rd: "Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the past ten or twelve years has given Canada one of the worst administrations in the world. I know that there is more political corruption in Canada today than there has ever been, and a verdict in favor of the government would mean a continuation of this state of affairs. "I am hopelessly against Sir Wilfrid and colleagues because
