Partisan Outport News.

Protests are still pouring in against the booming of politicians in the Outport news message.

Our Harbor Grace correspondent says: "The public message sent to all parts of the island daily is termed by many people as political sandwich and a Morris dish, expected to be served daily for the next ten months or so."

Another correspondent in the north says: "I was pleased to see you take the Government to task, in your paper a day or two ago, about the misuse to which they are putting the Telegraph System in connection with the daily message. It is an insult to the intelligence of the people of the Outports, the stuff that is compiled in these despatches under the title of 'news.' I would suggest that the Opposition keep a close watch on these messages between now and November next, as there will be many an occasion to correct the impressions intended to be made by those messages which are semi-political."

Yesterday we re-published a short editorial from the Trinity Enterprise of last week. The editor said: "If the messages sent to Trinity are specimens of what go to other places, the Telegram has good cause for its protest; not alone for the partisan nature of some of the messages, but for the general 'twaddle' that is included under the name of news."

The most glaring and outrageous misuse of the Outport news despatch was the misrepresentation of the attitude of the Evening Telegram towards that well-advertised explanation of Sir Edward Morris. We pointed out that Sir Edward Morris had not reconciled the conflict between his statement in the House of Assembly about having no interest, direct or indirect, near or remote, in timber wealth and the record of his possession of 40,000 shares in the St. George's Lumber Company.

We also pointed out that instead of clearing away the discrepancy between the two statements, his letter and that of Manager Prince had copper-fastened the discrepancy. Yet in spite of this the compiler of the Outport daily despatch sent broad-cast throughout the island and before the readers could obtain correct information a partisan misrepresentation, viz., that the Evening Telegram virtually admitted the collapse of the case.

The same notion is being circulated by an editorial writer in the Bay Roberts Guardian, under the caption, "Ignominious Back-down of Premier's Accusers," who advances the remarkable argument "that the fact of his being a shareholder in a lumber company had no more to do with timber limits than it had to do with mining in Mars."

The writer is apparently oblivious of the fact, attested by Manager Prince that the Lumber Company, in which he held shares, possessed timber limits, and that being so, it is not a correct statement for any shareholder in such a Company to make a declaration that he had no interest, direct or indirect, near or remote, in any timber wealth.

The Harbor Grace Standard in its last issue says editorially:—"The Telegram had a perfect right to draw attention to the discrepancy as the Premier had to show the circumstances of the case. The two slots have by the correspondence published in all the daily papers been placed before the reading public. The matter is so plain that it almost appears like a reflection on the intelligence of readers to make any. But we do not question the right to do so. We were, however, pained to see in the outport public message of Thursday week a comment on the case of partisan character, which whether correct or not had no right to be made, and had the exigencies of our space allowed at the late date of its receipt, we would have expostulated against the messages paid for out of the revenue by both sides of politics being perverted to partisan ends, even as we did on a former occasion, at the time of last general election."

Portraits by Electric Light.

The new Electric Lamp for taking portraits at night, that we have recently installed, has proved a huge success.

Now there is no occasion to wait for a fine day; we are independent of weather conditions. You can come yourself, or bring the children, day or night, and the results are equal in every respect to those taken by daylight.

Appointments can be made from now to Xmas, at a hour up to 10 p.m. Ring up phone 521.

No Fighting.

Special Evening Telegram.

LONDON, To-Day. Extreme anxiety is manifested by all European Governments to deny reports of warlike preparations and to represent the political situation as peaceful and satisfactory. This in itself is an indication how slender the thread of the issues of peace and war in Europe now hang. The danger arises not alone from the conflicting interests of Austria and Serbia and other Powers, but from the possibility of Turkey following her traditional policy of profiting by the embroilment of the great Powers. She may adopt an irreconcilable attitude in the peace negotiations. Beyond the fact that the plenipotentiaries met yesterday, nothing is yet known, not even whether there is an armistice. There appears to be a suspension of operations on the Tchatalja lines, apparently by tacit consent rather than by formal agreement. The semi-official Bulgarian newspaper, Mir, in an editorial voices the Government's irritation at Turkey's dilatory methods in the negotiations and accuses the Porte of deliberately nominating delegates from remote points in order to gain time. This probably refers to Osman Nizami Pasha, Ambassador to Germany, who has just arrived at Constantinople from Berlin. In the diplomatic field the most important reports are that Serbia declines to reply to the Austrian demands until the war is concluded. Germany has not undertaken to mediate between Austria and Russia. News of Serbia throwing further obstacles in the way of the Austrian representative at Prochaska and Prinsend is another disquieting feature. Fighting continues around Adrianople, where the besieging forces have drawn their investigating circle within two-thirds of a mile.

Here and There.

Mr. Stephen Hannaford, electrician at Grand Falls, arrived here to-day and will remain for a short time.

Don't take chances with your fine clothes. Have them attended to with care by C. M. HALL, Specialist in Dressing, etc., 243 Theatre Hill. Parcels called for and delivered.—nov18,tf

A LAND SLIDE—While the express which arrived yesterday was bound west last week and when near "Crabbe" it was discovered that a land slide had occurred, and the train was held up for 5 hours while the debris was being cleared away. Trees, rocks, clay and boulders fell from the cliff, and the train hands worked hard to clear the track of this impediment.

FOGOTA'S PASSENGERS. — The Fogota sailed north at 4 a.m. to-day with a full freight and these passengers: Mrs. Wm. Barbour, Miss Sansbury, Capt. E. Bishop, Mrs. C. Winsor, Mrs. E. Hann, Rev. J. S. Hiscok and D. Andrews, W. F. Bemister, M. W. Penny, Mrs. Newman, A. Scammel, E. S. Powell, Miss M. Winsor, F. S. Myers, Capt. F. Yarmouth, Mr. Hopkins, A. Jacobs, Thos. Riggs and 50 second class.

THE L. S. P. U.—The members of the L. S. P. U. will hold a card tournament to-night for six prizes. Last night the quarterly meeting was held and afterwards a meeting of the Executive. The sum of $1,000 was expended the past quarter in mortality fees, and for the previous quarter $1,350. Last week the Union arranged with the owners of the smaller steamers to hire only Union men in the loading and discharging of these steamers. Formerly the crews in most cases did the work.

MUCH SNOW FELL.—Passengers by yesterday's train say that there is much snow on the ground between Glovertown and Bay of Islands. It is frosty at night and heavy rain there was a mid-winter blizzard in that section. At Westville, Greenspond, and in fact all over Bonavista Bay there is over a foot of snow on the ground and sleighs are being used in several places. In most of the arms and harbors ice has formed, and the Dundee had some difficulty in forcing through.

McMurdo's Store News.

TUESDAY, Nov. 26, 1912. In "Tonto for Shaving" seems to be reached the limit of what a rapid-shaving preparation can do. You simply wet the face with hot or cold water and then rub the "Tonto" which is a soft bland cream well into the beard so that the skin beneath it is reached, and then begin to use the razor. The beard will come off instantly and easily, leaving the face perfectly soft and smooth. Tonto makes no lather and requires no brush. All who have used it are loud in its praise. Price 35c a pot.

Our bulbs are practically all gone now, the only thing left being a few white and yellow hyacinths of the finest grade for water culture. These we are selling at the low price of $1 a dozen to clear.
