Reflection

The people acclaim the Liberal Party and have abandoned the idea of ever returning to power again a Government of misrule, mismanage ent, extravagance and discord. Electors, remember the dangerous condition of this Colony's finances un-der Toryism in 1894 and 1898 when Sir Robert Bond, came to the front like a true British Statesman, and and ruin.

Sir Edward Morris himself declar ed in the House of Assembly sever years ago that Sir Robert Bond was an able, hononrable and capable statesman. And yet this is the same statesman that the bellowing chief has the impudence to try and dishonour.
