

Guelph Evening Mercury

THURSDAY EVENING, SEPT. 25, 1873

The writ for the South Huron election to the Ontario Legislature has been issued. Wednesday, Oct. 8th, is the day of nomination, and polling takes place on the following Wednesday. According to the Hamilton Times, the contest promises to be a triangular fight. Mr. Archibald Bishop, Warden of Huron, is the regular Reform candidate. Mr. George Case, of Seaford, is the regular Tory candidate. Dr. Worthington, of Clinton, comes out as a prohibitory candidate. The Huron Signal of Wednesday, however, thinks that according to present appearances there is not likely to be a contest.

The Monetary Times says:—"It is confidently stated in banking circles in Montreal that the existing Pacific Railway Company will immediately throw up the charter. If the project was difficult to finance before, there does not now exist the remotest possibility of floating it in the present hands."

Hon. John Young and the Ministry.

The Montreal Herald, of Wednesday, publishes a long letter from Hon. John Young to the electors of Montreal West, in which he explains the whole affair of the Pope-Macdonald letter. He says that he applied to the Hon. T. N. Gibbs on the 19th ult., asking him for the form in which he should apply for his commission as flour inspector under the new Act. Gibbs replied that, as it was an office of some emolument, it would, if accepted by him, prevent him from retaining his seat in Parliament; so he (Gibbs) had not contemplated submitting his name to the Governor-General for re-appointment. Hon. Mr. Young then went to Ottawa to see Gibbs. He saw Pope, who thought the Inspection Act did not interfere with his continuing as member of Parliament and as Inspector also. On the 25th ult., he received an intelligible telegram from Pope: "I will see you to-morrow on my way home. No cause for alarm." He then says: "On Tuesday evening I met Mr. Pope, who declared that, in his opinion, neither my position as Inspector nor my seat in Parliament would be interfered with. I intimated to him, however, that whatever might be the result to me personally, I had made up my mind not to give up my seat for the Western Division of Montreal. Soon after I got the interrupted letter from the Premier to Pope. When I realized that it was genuine, and recollecting that it was in reply to Mr. Pope's letter, after seeing me here on the 27th, I saw a deep laid scheme of political villainy between the honorable gentleman; and I felt it would be an act of moral cowardice in me not to hold up to the public view this gross iniquity in our public men. While Pope and Sir John were assuring me that there was no intention of interfering with the Western Division or my commission as Inspector of Flour, they were conspiring together to rob me of both, under the belief that I would be compelled to yield to the pressure from necessity. Macdonald wrote on the 6th Sept., saying he would be justified in publishing Young's letter of the 23rd Aug., laying Young's case before the Government. Young replied to publish it by all means, but he added that he hoped Sir John would also publish all the private and official letters to the Department of Inland Revenue. The Premier dare not do that. Mr. Young leaves it for the electors to decide whether he has done right or wrong. Hutchinson his deputy, has laid a petition before the Superior Court, praying that a writ of mandamus be issued, authorizing him to take the office of Flour Inspector, on the ground that he is better qualified than Young. Such a mean act is worthy only of one of the Premier's underlings.

The Provincial Show.

The London Advertiser says that the exhibition in the Horticultural Hall and the palace do not reach, for the number of entries at any rate, the level of expectation. The Horticultural Hall will show many bare spots which doubtless would have been filled had the weather on Monday, and during the end of last week, not interfered with the preparations. The Hall has been very tastefully decorated throughout with evergreens, intertwined with streamers.

In the live stock department the show is a great success. There are breeders from all parts of the country with stock of the purest blood and really first-class in all that constitutes excellence. The County of Wellington is largely represented.

The extensive carriage sheds are filled with vehicles of all patterns, the local manufacturers showing a splendid collection. Outside the sheds are a lot of horse-drawn carriages, agricultural and other kinds, is very large and varied. A number of exhibitors have taken advantage of the steam power provided by the Association and show a good collection of small machinery in the building provided for that purpose. No one will be dissatisfied with the display of poultry, all the favourite varieties being well represented and the coops all full.

J. B. Armstrong & Co., Guelph took the first prize for their patent cast-iron springs, and an extra prize for an assortment. The various springs which competed were tested by the judges as to their strength, and the identical springs which took the first prize at Guelph, over Mr. Armstrong's, broke under the testing pressure, whilst Mr. Armstrong's springs came out of the ordeal unimpaired. It should be noticed, also, that every light vehicle which took a prize was fitted with Messrs. Armstrong's springs.

Messrs. Wm. Hood and Thomas McCrae, of Guelph, have between them carried off every prize in the class of Gallows. Mr. Hood takes twelve, and Mr. McCrae nine. This is a clean sweep. With one exception, also, all the prizes for grade cattle go to exhibitors from this county. Many other prizes in the live stock and other departments are carried off by residents of this section, details of which we shall give.

On Wednesday, a popular day there was glorious weather, and the hopes of a large attendance have been realized to the fullest. The number of paying visitors to the ground is about 32,000. This is about 12,000 more than visited last year's show at Hamilton and about 6,000 more than attended the last Provincial Exhibition held in London. The length and number of the trains coming into the city during the day bringing people from all quarters, were something amazing. The city is honored with the presence of His Royal Highness the Prince of Hesse, the husband of our Princess Alice. His Royal Highness, whose ship now is lying at Halifax, came on Tuesday night, very quietly. His Highness was met by the Bishop of Huron, whose guests he is during his stay of a day or two. His Highness paid a visit to the fair ground, and was conducted round by the President of the Association, Mr. Andrew Wilson, of Maitland, and other officers.
