PHYSICAL PAIN.

Little of it in Vaccination Affects Men.

The health board's free vaccines the other day a tall, thin man lay stretched on a table, while the policeman who held post in the office stood with a bottle of ammonia.

Miss L. Sloan, a widely known professional nurse, publishes the following letter, which will be read by thousands who are to-day contending against difficulties such as she has overcome.

Miss Sloan says: "I desire to volunteer the following information: My duty as a nurse is very exacting, and some time ago I became very greatly run down. I would get dizzy spells, with palpitation of the heart, on the least exertion. My blood became thin and watery, and I was utterly unable to perform my duties.

My friends became greatly alarmed and a physician was called in, but, though following all his directions, I did not improve. A friend who called on me, suggested that I should try Dr. Arnold's Tonic Pills, which I did, and I can truthfully assure you that I am thankful that I did so, as I am my old self again, and feel better than I have felt for many a day.

This is a frank, truthful and candid statement. I never gave a testimonial before, but consider I am doing right in sending you this. I can get plenty of them from friends, who have used your Pills, and I will be glad to answer all correspondence relative to my case."

Yours sincerely, LILLIE SLEA.

FOR AULD LANG SYNE.

"Should old acquaintance be forgot?" The answer comes mechanically from every Britisher. Nor should new acquaintance be forgot. Remember that on the bloody fields of South Africa your brave soldier boys were on the firing line flanked by loyal British subjects from Ceylon and India. In the midst of danger lasting friendships were formed, and you, ladies of Canada have it in your power to cement those bonds. The Green teas of Ceylon and India appeal to you from sentiment. By using them you not only aid your brother soldiers, but you get absolutely the best tea. Those of you who drink Green Japan tea have a revelation in store if you make the change. Blue Ribbon, Salada and Monsoon packets may be had from your grocer.—Colonist.

NO CHANGE IN CHINA.

British and Russians Stand Watching Each Other.

DEMANDS OF LONDON PRESS.

Admiral Alexieff Blamed—London Standard's Outspoken Views Concerning His Conduct—The True Story of the Railway Siding—The Situation Could Surely Be More Serious Without Bloodshed.

Tien Tsin, March 17.—There is no change in the situation developed by the Anglo-Russian railway dispute here. The Russian and British forces are still represented by small detachments, with officers, encamped on opposite sides of the railway siding. The utmost friendliness is exhibited towards each other by the opposing parties, but, as a measure of precaution, the guards have been reduced to 27 on each side, in order to prevent any possible collision during the negotiations. A Russian general arrived from Peking last evening.

Li Hung Chang Very Ill.

Peking, March 16.—Li Hung Chang again is seriously ill, and his physician says his life hangs by a thread.

TOUR ROUND THE WORLD.

Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and the Duchess of York Start From Portsmouth on Saturday.

Portsmouth, Eng., March 18.—Amidst the firing of a royal salute by the assembled fleet and hearty cheers from the thousands of people gathered at all points of the world, the steamer Ophir, with the Duke and the Duchess of Cornwall and York on board, started at about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon on the voyage which is not to terminate until their Majesty's return to England after a tour of the world.

Troops and bands of music playing the National Anthem lined the quays, and all the ships were manned and dressed, brilliant groups of naval, military and civil officials, in full uniforms, with bands of music, public, forming a magnificent showing both the state and the popular character of the send-off. King Edward and Queen Alexandra on board the royal yacht Victoria and Albert, accompanied by eight torpedo boat destroyers, escorted the Ophir a few miles out.

Before the departure the royal party landed at the Jetty where King Edward conferred the Victoria medal on the blue jackets of H. M. S. Excellent, who dragged the funeral of the horses before the Victoria railway station.

After luncheon the King toasted the Duke and the Duchess and wished them a prosperous voyage. His Majesty said that one of the objects of the tour was to express appreciation of the help rendered by the British colonies in the South African campaign.

The Duke of Cornwall and York proposed the King's health. The guests at the luncheon numbered about seventy, including Mr. Joseph Chamberlain.

The last farewell signals were exchanged between their Majesties and the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York near the Nab Light-house, though the vessels remained in sight of each other until the Ophir rounded the end of the jetty. The light entered the channel bound for Gibraltar.

Cost of the Trip.

London, March 18.—It is understood that the chartering of the Ophir for eight months for the Duke of York's trip costs the Government £25,000, and the bill for refurnishing and redecorating her will amount to £32,000 more. The admiralty insisted that the vessel should be manned by naval men, with the exception of the engineer staff. The crew includes 27 officers and 125 blue jackets, 100 marines, 37 members of the band, 88 engineers and 50 stewards.

ALLEGED A SWINDLE.

Farmers Signed a Contract to Pay if Farms Were Not Sold.

Woodstock, Ont., March 18.—A lot of farmers around here are in distress. Four or five years ago a man came around, who said he was the agent for the Canadian Farm Advertiser of Guelph. He got the farmers to let him advertise their farms for sale. If sold his concern was to get three per cent. of the price. A lot of farmers signed contracts. Some farms were sold; most were not.

Now another agent is around displaying to the astonished women a paper with their signatures attached, in which they agree, if their farms were not sold in three years, to pay the advertiser one per cent. of the price they put on them. One farmer has a claim of $210 against him. Others are lower. They are all angry. They all say they never made any agreement to pay one per cent., and claim it is a swindle.

ALEXIEFF MAKES TROUBLE.

And London Standard Indulges in Some Plain Talk.

London, March 18.—The Tien Tsin correspondent of the Standard says: "The railway dispute is another of the attempts of the Russian Admiral, Alexieff, to create trouble, and unless he is removed there will be constant friction, which will eventually lead to hostilities. He loses no opportunity to thwart the English. Commenting editorially upon its Tien Tsin advices, the Standard reminds Russia that 'the British fleet is as potent as ever, and Japan is burning to second the efforts of anyone ready to oppose the annexation of Manchuria.' It is a painful task, thus to be compelled even to hint at contingencies so vast and disturbing, but the perils of the moment are most likely to be overcome if it is thoroughly realized that we do not shrink from such action as would be best calculated to maintain our rights."

Germany Wants to Get Out.

Berlin, March 18.—The most striking feature during Friday's and Saturday's China debate in the Reichstag was the unanimously manifested feeling of weariness over the "China adventure." It was a regular chorus of "Let us get out from China." The Socialist speakers

Nothing of the King.

"Why, that's a genuine Raphael!" said the caller, surprised and delighted.

"Not at all," replied Mrs. Gaswell, with cold distinctness. "My husband never engages in raffish. He bought that picture in the regular way and paid cash for it."—Chicago Tribune.

Too Much For Them.

Bobbs—Old man Rocks doesn't seem worried because his boy is in the hands of kidnapers. Seems to think they'll turn him loose without ransom.

Dobbs—Yes. You see, the lad is a boy orator.—Baltimore American.

Not to Be Outdone.

"Has your wife much social ambition?" "Social ambition! When she read about Lady Curzon's elephant party in India, she said if she knew where she could run some whales she'd give a whale party."—Detroit Free Press.

Encouraging.

Mrs. Nurvus—What do you think about my eye, doctor?

Dr. Nottawit (replacing the bandage)—Oh, your eye will come out all right in a week or two.—Brooklyn Life.

Palliating It.

"But, ma, Uncle John eats with his knife."

"Tush, dear! Uncle John is rich enough to eat with a fire shovel if he prefers it."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Rivals.

Little Hortense (proudly)—My aunt has armorial bearings.

"Tush, dear! I don't care. My uncle in the country has a chicken with three legs."—Nuggets.

A Peril Recognized.

"That mature Miss Boggs has quit acting so childish of late."

"Yes, probably that kidnapping case frightened her."—Chicago Record.

King's Evil

That is Scrofula.

No disease is older.

No disease is really responsible for a larger mortality.

Consumption is commonly its outgrowth. There is no excuse for neglecting it, it makes its presence known by so many signs, such as glandular tumors, eruptions, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, rickets, catarrh, wasting and general debility.

Children of J. W. McGinn, Woodstock, Ont., had scrofula sores so bad they could not attend school for three months. When different kinds of medicines had been used to no purpose whatever, these sufferers were cured, according to Mr. McGinn's voluntary testimonial by which has effected the most wonderful, radical and permanent cures of scrofula in old and young.

Getting Thin

is all right, if you are too fat; and all wrong, if too thin already.

Fat, enough for your habit, is healthy; a little more, or less, is no great harm. Too fat, consult a doctor; too thin, persistently thin, no matter what cause, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil.

There are many causes of getting too thin; they all come under these two heads: over-work and under-digestion.

Stop over-work, if you can; but, whether you can or not, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, to balance yourself with your work. You can't live on it—true—but, by it, you can. There's a limit, however; you'll pay for it.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the readiest cure for "can't eat," unless it comes of your doing no work—your can't long be well and strong, without some sort of activity.

The genuine has this picture on it, talk to other.

If you have not tried it, send for a free sample, its a free taste will surprise you.
