was in a dreadful state, weak and miserable. Doctor said I had Bright's disease. My kidneys were in dreadful condition. I read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and decided to give it a trial, thinking at the time it was not much use as nothing helped me before. But, thank God, I got relief after the first bottle. I kept on taking it and used five bottles; am now a cured man; never felt better. I owe my life to Hood's Sarsaparilla. JOSEPH SMITH, 201 Market Street, Bradford, Ontario.

Later in the morning the weather cleared, and as the association was convening for the annual meeting reports came from a number of anglers that the large baskets full of silver bass at the mouth of the river at Fort Niagara. Dominion Trades and Labor Congress Will Meet Here Next Year.

The Patrons Admitted After a Lively Discussion.

Sunday Street Cars Debated—The Officers Elected—Minimum Age for Factory Boys Wanted Placed at 14—Close of the Convention.

OTTAWA, Sept. 7.—The Trades and Labor Congress resumed its business at 9 a.m. again today. It was decided to urge upon the Quebec Government the necessity of appointing building and scaffolding inspectors.

Delegate Armstrong, of Toronto, moved a resolution that the Patrons of Industry be allowed representation in the Congress in the same manner as laid down in the constitution.

Delegates Draper, Ottawa, and Delegate O'Donoghue, Toronto, were the mover and seconder of an amendment, "That the advisability of admitting members of the Patrons of Industry single-taxers and Grangers, as well as adopting the initiative and referendum system, having been referred to the different organizations, numbering in the neighborhood of 300, in view of the fact that only 10 organizations declared on the questions so submitted, the delegates do not justify this body giving a vote which can be called a representative one."

Delegate Darlington, of Montreal, moved, and Delegate Carey, of Toronto, seconded, an amendment to the amendment that the congress welcome a delegation from the Patrons of Industry elected from their executive upon the same basis that district assemblies and trade councils are represented.

Delegate Dover opposed the motion to admit the Patrons.
Delegate Armstrong said that the congress should be proud to admit the Patrons. The Patrons had made more progress in passing legislation in the past three years than the wage-earners had made in the last quarter of a century.

Delegate Metcalfe, of Montreal, said that his union was opposed to the admission of the Patrons, as they were farmers and not tradesmen.
Delegate O'Donoghue held that the Patrons were not the friends of labor and should not have representation in the congress.

The question was voted upon, and Delegate Darlington's amendment, admitting the Patrons to representation, was carried with an overwhelming majority. The vote stood—Ayes, 147; nays, 133.
A resolution was passed asking the Dominion Government to give letter carriers to all towns and cities in the Dominion of over 5,000 inhabitants.

Delegates Chiquette, Armstrong, Draper, Little and Dubreuil, were appointed a committee to investigate the question of a municipality it should submit the matter to a vote, and if favorable to Sunday cars, that the Legislature be petitioned in favor of it.

The following resolution was lost: "That it is inadvisable that any body be accorded representation on the Trades and Labor Congress and clearly pronounced in favor of a minimum rate of wages, the shortening of the hours of labor in all branches of industry, and in opposition to the expenditure of public money in the aiding, encouraging or bonus of immigration from abroad to the Dominion of Canada."

The next resolution which was carried was an instruction to the executive to petition the Legislature to amend the Municipal Act so that the entire electorate could vote on money bylaws.

LABORATION WANTED.

A resolution was also adopted recommending a change in the Ontario statutes to the effect that the assessment of garden or nursery property in cities, towns or villages, whether incorporated or not, be placed at a figure corresponding with what the property would freely sell for.

The Ontario Government will be asked to amend the Ontario Factory Act by increasing the minimum age of boys to 14 years.

THE OFFICERS.

The officers for 1895 were elected as follows:
President—P. J. Jobin, Quebec.
Vice-President—J. A. McDonald, Ottawa.
Secretary—G. W. Dower, Toronto.

Ontario executive, John Armstrong and D. Carey; Quebec, Wm. Darlington and H. Langer.

London was voted for as the next place of meeting. After passing some formal resolutions the congress then adjourned to meet in London next year.

As a result of his investigation of several days into the consolidated debt account of Chatham, Accountant Jewell, of London, in a voluminous report, accompanied by a detailed statement, states the situation fully, and says he does not regard it as alarming, but advises for the future a conduct of the treasurer's department more in keeping with the requirements of this special account. His work has straightened out the financial snarl.

A civic committee recommends that the lake, not the river, be resorted to for the future supply of water for Chatham. The engineer estimates the cost of a lake service to the company at less than $100,000, and for a filter service at $33,000. The water-works company have been given to Oct. 1 to decide what they would do in the matter.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

An Improvement in Trade in the United States.

Much Fewer Failures Than Last Year—An Increase of Failures in Canada—The Wheat Exports.

New York, Sept. 7.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review says:

The business outlook is much like an April day, alternately clouds and sunshine. In some branches strong improvement still continues, while in others trade is diminishing. In the adjustment to new conditions such conflicting signs are to be expected, and the more because the deferred business which had awaited a settlement was by no means evenly distributed. For some time to come it is likely the conditions in different trades and in even different minor branches of the same trade may vary widely. Strikes lessen for the time the working force perhaps as much as it is otherwise increased, but the strike of garment makers spreads so rapidly that an early end is considered certain, while the strikes in cotton mills have advanced prices so much that a settlement is thought not distant. Of the aggregate volume of trade no exact measure exists, but payments through clearing houses for the first week of September were 7.1 per cent greater than last year, though 29.7 per cent smaller than in 1892.

White boot and shoe industry has been less affected the past year than any other. The cotton manufacture, after some weeks of increasing business, which has been peculiarly stimulated by the strikes, rejoices in a really large demand, with rising prices. Several large mills have gone into operation this week and others will soon follow.

The iron manufacture has materially increased its output since the coke troubles ended, but with the result that pig iron is weaker. The woolen manufacturer, in which deferred business might naturally have been larger than in others, does not increase its working force, and after two or three active weeks the business has slackened with about three-quarters of the usual transactions for the season.

BUSINESS FAILURES.
The failure in August aggregated liabilities of $14,135,447, of which $3,172,330 were in manufacturing and $5,678,133 in trading concerns. During the week the failures were 215 in the United States, against 223 last year, and 47 in Canada, against 25 last year.

BRADSTREET'S MORE FAVORABLE.
New York, Sept. 7.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: Special telegrams to Bradstreet's from more important distributing points make it plain that in the mercantile lines trade is fairly active, fully meeting earlier and more favorable anticipations in a majority of instances and exceeding the demand for iron pipe at the south and west has had a stimulating effect on manufacturers. There is an improvement in the demand for money at Boston, New York and Chicago, but rates are not as high as usual at this season, nor is the supply of commercial paper as large. Notwithstanding, great carriers have arranged for the necessary funds with Chicago banks at 5 per cent.

Special advices regarding the northwestern crop of flaxseed are that it is seriously curtailed by drought.

Exports of wheat, United States and Canada, both counts flour included as wheat, amount to $3,207,000 bushels during the six business days ending with Sept. 6. Total number of business failures in the United States this week was 207, compared with 192 last week and with 379 in the first week of September, 1893.

CANADIAN TRADE.
Advices are received from Montreal that September opens with an improved tone to trade, that orders received have increased, but prices are close. Collections are said to be better in Quebec than Ontario. There is also an improvement noted at Toronto, where the Industrial Exhibition has attracted many interior buyers, thereby helping business. At Halifax trade is quiet and collections remain unchanged.

Bank clearings at Hamilton, Toronto, Montreal and Halifax amount to $14,108,000 against $15,225,000 last week, and as compared with $18,356,000 in the first week of September, 1893. There are 39 business failures reported in the Dominion of Canada this week, 27 in the week a year ago and 29 two years ago.

BLENHEIM, Ont., Sept. 8.—During a heavy electric and rain storm, early this morning the barns of Joseph Wetherall, two miles from here, were struck by lightning and entirely consumed, together with the whole season's crop. Four horses were struck by the electric fluid and killed instantly, and a son of Mr. Wetherall's and two other men were in the barn at the time but all three escaped with a slight shock.
