TO NAME PROGRESSIVES

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Nov. 3 .- (By Staff correspondent, Canadian Press) .-There is a likelihood, it is said, of a Progressive candidate in each of the three constituencies of Prince Edward Island. In Prince and King's a Progressive is already in the field. In Queen's which returns two members, the present candidates are two Government supporters, two Liberals, and one Labor. A Progressive convention has been called for Friday next, however, and there is every possibility that Queen's will see a four-cornered fight.
