

ALERTS TO MEET WINDSOR RACE FOR ONTARIO TITLE

Amateur Teams Throughout
Province Approach Finals
As Playoffs Drawn.

SAINTS PLAY HERE

Swiftly Ontario amateur baseball is approaching the finals. Alerts have been declared winners of the Inter-Club League, and have been drawn to meet the Windsor team Saturday. Originally the game was scheduled for London, but as there is a Mini League game here Saturday, the Alerts have been moved to Windsor. Alerts probably will play their first home game Wednesday or Saturday of the playoffs.

Efforts are being made to stage a few workouts for the Alerts before they travel westward for their first game in the first round of the play-off for the Intermediate O. B. A. championship.

Saints Meet London

Wednesday St. Thomas Saints meet London at Tecumseh Park in a game for the Ontario title. Should the Saints win they will be declared the league winners. Windsor, however, has been drawn to meet Windsor in the first round of the playoffs.

Woodstock and Leam also will play in the playoffs.

ALERTS CAPTURE INTER-CLUB FLAG

Overcome One-Run Lead of Oriens in Fifth Frame

Saturday.

Alerts, by virtue of their win over the Oriens Saturday, won the Inter-Club flag, and with that honor goes the distinction of representing London in the Intermediate O. B. A. playoffs.

Alerts won Saturday by a score of 8 to 4. Oriens fought bitterly for the first four frames, and held a one-run lead that looked bad at times. In the fifth they blew up, and Alerts won by a score of 4 to 1.
