WASHINGTON, Feb. 27According to a letter received at the Venezuelan legation to-day from Dr. Paul, secretary of state, dated Feb. 16, surgeons have found that, President Castro was making satisfactory progress. The letter gave details of the killing of General Paredes, the revolutionary leader, and his fol- lowers. After their capture on Feb. 21 near the Orinoco River, not far from where they landed, they were taken to an old fortress. Two days later Paredes endeavored to bribe his guards to permit them to escape, and this the guards in- terpreted as mutiny, "with terrible re- sults, for the life of General Paredes and
