The Judge Thomas A. Moran, of Chicago, has a large family of children, of all of Moran as a marican fishing vessel Adams, says there seems to be no room for doubt that the master of this vessel acted illegally, and that the seizure was properly made. The people of the United States did not know what they were doing when they abrogated the clauses in the Washington Treaty, and they not?" asked the court, in the Washington Treaty, and they find now that their fishermen cannot pursue their business profitably, unless they are permitted to take or purchase bait on our shore. For the sake of lands, for the sake of the Empire, we hope the Imperial Government, if they interfere in this business openly or secretly, it will be to help us to maintain our rights, and not to thwart, hamper or restrain enforcing the terms lisbed, instead of a high school, but as the matter stood at present felt he could not vote for the motion.

Goun. Styles believed there were many children in Victoria who need the advantages of a night school, but he felt that owing to the lack of money the matter would have to be postponed.

His worship said it was the duty of the government, not of the city, to provide means for the education of the children.

On division the motion was lost.
