Body of Late R. R. Dobell Will Not Be Brought to Canada.

Cabinet Has Definitely Decided on February 13 For Opens ing Session.

Question of Investigating B. C. Salmon Fisheries Being Considered.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Ottawa, Jan. 13.-The governmen was informed today that the remains of Hon. R. R. Dobell will be interred in England. Nearly every member of the cabinet has cabled his condolences to Mrs. Dobell and family. Lord Strathcona was asked by wire tonight to represent the government at the funeral and to secure a beautiful floral offering as a tribute from the late minister's co.

leagues in Ottawa. At today's meeting of the cabinet it was decided to call parliament for the despatch of business on Tuesday, February 13.

The government has sent a search party to look for the three Mounted Policemen supposed to have been drowned on the Stikine river.

The opening meeting of the new city council was marked by the presence of Hon. R. W. Scott, who was mayor of Bytown 50 years ago. He delivered an interesting address. Smallpox is rapidly on the decrease

Liberals Hoot Lord Rosebery

Meeting of the London Association Shows Hostility to Him.

And Yells Itself Hourse Over Miss Hobhouse the Lady Agitator.

London, Jan. 13 .- The inaugural tion at St. James hall tonight had been because it was probable that light would be thrown upon the future relations be- son. tween Lord Rosebery and the Liberal party. Taken as a whole, the demonstation could hardly be taken as an enthusiastic welcome to Lord Rosebery's reappearance in public life.

Lord Rosebery was not present at the meeting, at which Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, Liberal leader in the House of Commons, and Earl Spencer were the principal speakers. The temper of the meeting was distinctly hostile to the expremier. The speech of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman clearly indicated that if Lord Rosebery returned to the Liberal fold he must come unreservedly and in full accord with the present policy of the Liberal party.

The hall was crowded. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and Earl Spencer were greeted vociferously. Miss Hobhouse, who was the first person to agieappearance in public life. house, who was the first person to agi- Holland.

carried to the platform and received an ovation. In the meantime pamphlets denouncing Lord Rosebery as a traitor to the party, were thrown broadcast from the galleries.

The reading of Lord Rosebery's letter of representations are received with mingled to the party was received with mingled. of regret was received with mingled cheers, hoots and hisses, the latter predominating. In his letter Lord Rosebery said he hoped that the meeting would aim to secure the unity of "common sense Liberalism," to which the writer hoped he had contributed to in his recent sneed at Chestorfield.

The consensus of opinion, however, was that with the large bodies of ore in some sections, and the high grade but smaller ledges in others, that the mining industry could be carried on with considerable profit. Should prices continue as they are at present there seems little doubt, according to those present, but that the price of treatment, of supplies and of labor would have to be reduced in order that a profit may be made. Steps were taken to have representatives at the approaching meeting of the Dominion Board of Trade.

This action was brought to recover the sum of $6,442.80, being the balance alleged to be due plaintiff by defendant company under an agreement made between the parties in regard to the handling of ore rom the Lenora mine. The plaintiff claims that under the terms of the agreement he was entitled to haul all ore supped by the company up to 15,000 ns, at $2.22 per ton, and that in case of the termination of agreement the company would pay the net profits up to said amount, and that after the shipment of 15,000 tons, the company would give the plaintiff the refusal of a contract to haul a further 5,000 tons. On the 6th of December, 1900, the company terminated the contract, at which time the plaintiff had hauled 7,1691/2 tons of ore. The net profits made by the plaintiff amounted to $1.05 6-10 per ton. Defendants allege that under the terms agreement they were not bound to pay plaintiff profits on hauling more than before Mr. Justice Drake, who held that the plaintiff profits on hauling more than account to be taken before the registrar. From this judgment the plaintiff, and L. P. Duff, K.
