STORAGE BATTERY COURSE ANNOUNCED

For Garage Men at Fredericton January 31 to February 25th.

Fletcher Peacock, director of vocational education, has announced that a storage battery course for garage men will be held at Fredericton from January 31 to February 25 under the auspices of the vocational board.

Those eligible are men with garage experience from any part of New Brunswick who can furnish satisfactory references.

Tuition will be $5.00. A $5.00 deposit is required to cover loss or breakage of equipment. The deposit (less deductions) will be returned at the completion of the course.

Certificates of attendance will be issued to students who satisfactorily complete the course.

The teacher is Mr. W. B. Bain.

Previous to going overseas Mr. Bain completed three years in electrical engineering at the University of New Brunswick. At the close of the war he took a thorough course in all phases of storage battery work at Toronto, and has since been constantly engaged in practical battery work.

OBITUARY.

William Wendell Thompson.

The whole community was shocked on Wednesday to hear that William Wendell Thompson had passed away early that morning.

After suffering for a few days with plural pneumonia in the General Hospital, Montreal, where every care and attention was bestowed upon him, he passed away about 4 a.m. Wednesday.

His sister Miss Alice, and his brother Albert who were present with him till the last, accompanied the remains to the old homestead at Point La Nim.

The funeral was held on Friday, when the Rev. J. M. Fraser conducted service at the house and also at the grave in the cemetery at Dulhouse.

Deceased who was 27 years of age leaves to mourn his early departure, both parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompson, one sister, Miss Alice and two brothers Albert and Ogilvie.

Deceased was a successful and promising student in third year medicine at McGill University, Montreal, and had never been under the necessity of taking any supplemental examinations.

At the early age of twenty-one he secured a N. B. Grammar School Teachers' License. During the war he served his king and country for four years overseas.
