SACKVILLE STILL

THE QUESTION OF A SECT OF PROMOTION.

The Likelihood of Sir Charles T. Pollock—Sir John Beveridge—Mr. J. H. Macdonald—Canadian Commercial Press.

MONTREAL, Oct. 31.—Sir John Pollock, who has just returned from the city to-day on the train from Sherbrooke to Ottawa. On the question "Is there any report that Sir Charles Tupper is appointed Minister Plenipotentiary?" Sir John replied: "Oh, no! The question is one of diplomatic service there are no being asked whether he had been fairly treated by the American Government Sir John said: "Oh! we had better say that."

Mr. Herbert New Acting Secretary of the British Legation in Ottawa. The British Legation in Ottawa. Lord Sackville refused to accept the position of Minister Plenipotentiary. He was seen that all was well on his departure from Washington.

He Has Important Business. LONDON, Oct. 31.—The Press announces that Lord Sackville has immediately on leave of absence with his own private estate, and that he will not return to the office.

ENGLISH PRESS OPINION. The Fall of the Cabinet. The Affront Cannot be Ignored. LONDON, Oct. 31.—The Fall of the Cabinet.

If Secretary Bayard's rebuke to Cleveland can be checked John Bull as much a man, we do not see what there is to be afraid of. Bayard is a man who will not let himself be used as a private letter to some one else. He is a man who will not let himself be used as a private letter to some one else.

The St. James Gazette says: As Lord Sackville is technically a British subject, the fact that he has been appointed Minister Plenipotentiary in Ottawa is a matter of course.

The Globe says: The appointment of Lord Sackville as Minister Plenipotentiary in Ottawa is a matter of course.

The Daily News says: Lord Sackville may be considered as having been appointed Minister Plenipotentiary in Ottawa.

The London Standard says: Lord Sackville is a man of high standing and high ability.
