the Privy Council at Ottawa. He carries things with a high hand, trading on his grey hairs. He is now a veteran and is seemingly not alive to the great changes being worked around him. He calls the Toronto Railway Company in his correspondence a "bus" line, Well, the bus line can laugh at that; but it shows the old man's ignorance and conceit. This line of railway consists of over 75 miles of track railway consists of over 75 miles of track Awde, traversing and intersecting an area of 25 square miles. It admirably serves the wants of nearly 300,000 in this city square miles. It admirably serves the wants of nearly 300,000 in this city and its vicinity, inclusive of those who constitute our daily inroad of visitors. It is well-managed and it pays. It is not a by word over all this continent and Great Yenganstroad the While the committee is park-hunting it should not lose sight of the desirability of securing a large site over the Don, somewhere about the same distance east of by word over all this continent. by-word over all this continent and Great by-word over all this continent and Great Britain for wasted capital, lost opportunities, slovenly service, weak management, elephantine inactivity, sublime selfishness, fatuous self-sufficiency, and consequently—no dividends! piece of blundering upon the part of this railway to antagonize the 500 members of the Jockey Club, who are all Pullman car travelers the second of the site at a low rental with the option of purchasing in 10 or 15 years.

The best kind of a deal to make is to secure the site at a low rental with the option of purchasing in 10 or 15 years.

Standard Life Assurance Company, held at Edinburgh on Tuesday, the 11th of April, 1893, the following results for the year ended 15th November 1892, were renorted: the Jockey Club, who are all Pullman car travelers, the immense number of persons along their line who will be finding their way to Toronto for the races, and last, but not least, the residents of East Toronto. It is also stated that the Jockey Club propose issuing a circular to horse owners and intending visitors asking them to patronize the C.P.R. at points where the two railways are in competition. All this makes people wonder why the Grand Trunk management invariably opposes itself to popular convenience. But in this characteristic of the English-owned and English-officered road is to be found the reason why a new and rival railroad has been able to parallel the Grand Trunk and steal its business throughout this Province of Ontatio. There seems to be no instinct in the Grand Trunk is along the intended to the letter of Major Mason, which appears in another column, relative to our water supply. In that letter is quoted a report submitted to the council in 1880 by Hon. Frank Smith, in which he warned the council that it was a mistake to bring our water through the bay either by a wooden or iron conduit. He stated there was a possibility or rather a probability of the pipes becoming leaky through accidents, and recommended bringing the water from Humber Bay. The very thing has happened that the Senator pointed out would likely occur. Mr. Smith's idea (with modifications) will have to be carried out before we can have a supply of pure water, and the sooner it is carried into execution the better. seems to be no instinct in the Grand Trunk execution the better, executive rising above the level of grabbing Proposal For Temporary Relief.

Judging from the length of time necessary to start and complete any public undertaking in the City of Toronto, we may safely conclude that the time is far distant when we shall be supplied with water from a new system. It has taken many years to bring the Ashbridge Bay reclamation to a head; indeed, the contract is not signed yet. People have an idea that the Court House will be ready for occupation in seven years. If the same progress is made in the future that has characterized the half.

Always on Hand,—Mr. Thomas H. Porter, and the point of th of building a new water system to be decided upon at once its final completion is a long way off.
