were present.

Mr. W. C. Wilson of Montreal made the purchases. They are as follows:

Prima Lalum, 5, b m. by Southward, dam Lelia, by Beechnuk, for $235.

Bright Prattler, 14, b h. by John Bright, dam Koxle, by Norman, for $225.

The bidding on the several consignments was spirited, 92 horses passing under the hammer at fairly good prices. Quite a number of the offerings were weanlings and yearlings by young sires with reputations to make, and their sales tended to pull down the general average of the day. The sale opened with considerable competition for the

The climax of an East End turf sensation was expected to be reached on Feb. 13 next. That was the day fixed for a match race on the ice between the bay horses owned respectively by a St. Matthew's Ward butcher and druggist.

A month ago the man of chops and steaks accured an old skate that had seen many a close finish in his day and had a mark of 2.33. His quality was not in his looks, and a wholesale brother of the butcher looked for a nag to conquer.
