In conclusion, he thanked the mayor and aldermen for their kind attitude, Dr. Chamberlain for his kind report to the Ontario Government, and well-wishers generally.

The Benefactor's Remarks.

Mr. Hugh Ryan then spoke of the principles which had prompted him in aiding the institution, saying that his experience as contractor among the workingmen had shown him the need of sucn an institution. He thanked the Archbishop for his expressions of good-will.

Dr. O'Reilly, who followed, said that there was not the slightest feeling of antagonism between his institution and St. Michael's. The best feeling existed between them, and they were of mutual benefit to each other.

Rev. Dr. Hunter also spoke, and thanked the Board of Directors for the kindly way in which he had always been received. Dr. Pearson gave expression to the same sentiment. The Benefactor's Remarks.
