THE Methodist Church has secured the valuable services of the Rev. Leonard Gaetz, who is to preach on the 22nd instant, and deliver his popular lecture on "Golden Signs of spring all around us. The snow Letters," on the following Monday. Mr. Gaetz has held some of the most prominen charges in the Methodist Church. He is a pleasing and effective preacher, and his visit to our town should be hailed by large con gregations to hear his sermon and lecture.

HE had a sort of clutch-me gaze, and spasmodic effort to balance bliss-fully on space; but suddenly he tumbled to the rackett, and sought seclusion and rest in mud puddle, whilst the horse struck for the prairie, bringing to our minds the sublime words of Tom Hood :
