CASTLE NOWHERE, a Romance of Lake Michigan. By Miss CONSTANCE FENIMORE WOOLSON. Contents—Castle Nowhere, Jeannette, The Old Agency. Crown octavo, 104 pages. Price Fifteen Cents. One of the cheapest of Canadian Reprints. May be had of all booksellers, or sent post-free by the Publishers on receipt of price.

Miss WOOLSON's clever sketches have been favorably compared by the American critics with those of BRET HARTE, a tribute of praise of the highest character. The New York Tribune says:—"Since the day when 'The Luck of Roanoke Camp' awoke us all to a new sensation, there has been published no book of short stories so fresh in scenery and incident—so indisputably original."

JAMES NEISH & SONS, Publishers, Odessa, Ont.

SOLOMON, AND OTHER "LAKE COUNTRY" SKETCHES. By Miss CONSTANCE FENIMORE WOOLSON. Contents—Solomon, Wilhelmina, St. Clair Flats, The Lady of Little Fishing. Crown octavo. Price Fifteen Cents.

"The Lake Country which Miss WOOLSON sketches is the region of the great inland seas, Superior, Huron, and the rest, and the term is allowably stretched to include that part of Northern Ohio, in which the Community of the Zoar Separatists prosperously doze their lives away. The ground is new, and Miss WOOLSON gathers from it a harvest out of which the grain had not been threshed long ago. Her story of Solomon is really a triumph of its kind—a novel kind, as simple as it is fresh."—ATLANTIC MONTHLY.
