

to this country for

long summer afternoon, and blending with
the air after years, were blowing on the sandy
dunes, as the
dunes, laden with the
The time passed
time, when they
other members of the

; and as the close-
dawn, the three, arm
in hand, or stood to look upward by the beams
of light of that evening soon to be widely
spread through life,
guiding principle,
through all the days,
of the monious whole, the
and that principle was before, "Seek ye first