

It is a real treasure. * * It stands in the front rank, and merits success.—Marshall P. Wilder.

Its teachings are sound and practical.—Am. Agriculturist.

Eminently practical, trustworthy, and enjoyable.—New York Tribune.

A valuable coadjutor in the cause of horticultural progress.—Gardener's Monthly.

The American Garden.

ESTABLISHED 1872 : Edited by Dr. F. M. Hexamer.

An Elegantly Printed and Beautifully Illustrated Monthly Magazine of Horticulture

For Fruit Growers,
Gardeners,
Florists,

For Amateurs,
Gentlemen Farmers,
Lovers of Nature.

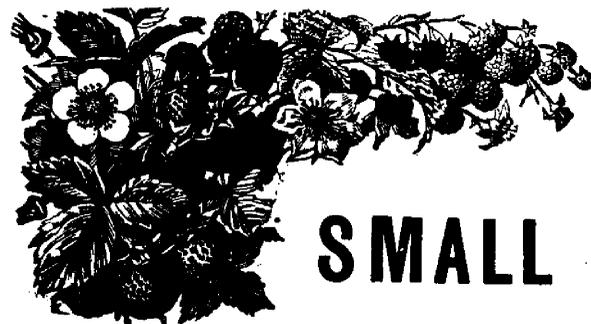

ITS CONTRIBUTORS are such men as P. M. Auger, W. C. Barry, "Elm," Wm. Falconer, A. S. Fuller, Chas. A. Green, J. H. Hale, Peter Henderson, Josiah Hooper, Dr. T. H. Hoskins, J. T. Lovett, Mansfield Milton, S. Parsons, L. B. Pierce, P. T. Quinn, E. S. Rand, E. P. Roe, J. B. Rogers, Chas. H. Shinn, Marshall P. Wilder, E. Williams, James Wood, and many other practical men and women.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $1; sample copy, 10 cents, which may be deducted from subscription when sent.

E. H. LIBBY, Publisher,

New York, and

GREENFIELD, Mass.

ALL KINDS

OF

SMALL FRUITS.

What to plant, how to SET OUT, CULTIVATE and PROTECT, and what soils are suitable, may be learnt from my

Free Descriptive Catalogue for Spring of '85.

(SEND POST CARD FOR IT.)

CENTENNIAL, OHIO, HANSELL AND MARLBORO' RASPBERRIES.

Cornelia Strawberry, Niagara Grape, and other Choice Sorts,

NEW AND OLD.

CHOICE PLANTS.

LOW PRICES.

T. G. ROBINSON,

No Large Fruit Trees or Ornamentals for Sale.)

Drawer 466, Owen Sound, Ontario.