

A CHANGE IN THE FIRM NAME.

By reference to the advertising columns our readers will observe that the firm name of the publishers of the CANADIAN BEE JOURNAL has been changed from "D. A. Jones & Co." to "Jones, Macpherson & Co." The change is because of the organization of a joint-stock company for the carrying on of the bee, honey and supply business as "the D. A. Jones Company," and is merely a legal formality which the formation of the company necessitated. There is no change in the personel of the firm.

HONEY MARKET.

CHICAGO.

Without any material change. White comb honey in one pound frames brings 16 cents; very fancy 17 cents. Dark is slow sale. Extracted honey 6 to 8 cents per pound. Beeswax 25 to 26 for yellow, market steady.

R. A. BURNETT.

Chicago,

CINCINNATI.

There is a very slow demand from manufacturers for extracted honey, with a large supply in the market, while the demand is very good for clover honey in square glass jars. Prices for all qualities are low and range from 4 to 8 cents a pound on arrival. Supply and demand is fair for choice comb honey in small sections, which bring from 12 to 15 cents per pound on arrival. Good yellow beeswax is in good demand and arrivals are fair. It brings 20 to 22 cents on arrival.

CHAS. F. MUTH.

Cincinnati,

BOSTON.

Honey is selling very well but prices are very low, and we are often obliged to shade our prices in order to make rates. We quote 1 lb. comb, 14 to 16 cents. 2 lb. comb, 12 to 14 cents. Extracted, 6 to 8 cents.
