

Remember that goodness always shines through our faces.

Lesson Subject—Jesus declared to be the Son of God.

Lesson—Do you remember where Jesus and His disciples were, and what they were talking about in the story last Sunday (Recall)? Six days passed in which we do not hear of Jesus. He was getting ready for His greatest work, the dying on the cross and the rising again from the dead. Then He called the disciples who were His nearest friends, Peter, James, and John, and took them to a high mountain.

The Transfiguration—Tell very simply the wonderful story of the transfiguration. Jesus' heavenly Spirit and glory shone out all over Him, so that His garments became pure and shining white like snow. Tell of those greatest men of olden times appearing as attendants upon Jesus, showing that He was greatest of all. Then a cloud covers them. Then the voice.

Golden Text—Repeat. Can you remember another time that we heard the voice saying almost the same words—"Hear Him"? All others are less than He is! No other teacher can compare with Him! Tell the rest of the story. Was it not kind of God to show the disciples the glory of Jesus, so that they would really know Him to be the Son of God? They were to see Him suffer so much, perhaps they might have doubted, might not have remained faithful. Jesus had never before appeared but as a man, and His disciples might have become discouraged at His death. But now! What a wonderful story they have to tell the other disciples! Ah, listen to Jesus, "Tell no man, etc.", v. 9. It would be too wonderful for people to believe. They would think the disciples had been dreaming, but after the resurrection wonder, they would quite believe it. Remembering what they had seen on the mountain-top, would make very real to the disciples the heaven into which Jesus went after He had risen.

A Change in Us—

"Speak a shade more kindly
Than you've ever done before;
Pray a little oftener,
Love a little more.
Cling a little closer to the Saviour's love:
Life below shall liker grow
To the life above."

Something to Remember—I should hear and obey Jesus.
