

the Rector of that Parish on the fourth Sunday after Easter. Mr. Wiggins is always a welcome visitor to Dorchester.

SHEDIAK.—This Parish in particular, and the Diocese at large, has to mourn the death of the Hon. Daniel Hanington in his eighty-seventh year. He was the son of a veritable pioneer Churchman, William Hanington, a native of London, England, who came to Shediac in 1774. This old gentleman used to hold Services as a Lay Reader long before there was any Bishop in the Colonial Church, inasmuch as he acted in this capacity thirteen years before the consecration of Dr. Chas. Inglis, the first Colonial Bishop. The late honourable gentleman, like his father before him, was a great lover and supporter of the Church in all departments of her work; and, whatever difficulties and complications arose from time to time in the Parish, he was always found standing by the Church. No troubles ever kept him or any of his large family from the services of the Church. He died on Sunday, May 5th, full of years and full of honours. His remains were accompanied by a very large concourse to the Church of S. Martin in the Woods (his father's Parish Church in England was S. Martin in the Fields), and his remains were borne into the Church, and from the Church to the grave, by six of his sons. The day was beautiful, and the service most solemn and impressive. The Rector was assisted by Rural Dean Campbell. Besides his sons who were present, were his three daughters with members of their respective families, for he enjoyed the blessing of seeing his children's children, and peace upon Israel.

CAMPOBELLO.—We were gladdened in this Parish on Saturday and Sunday, May 25 and 26, by a visit from His Lordship the Bishop Coadjutor. On Sunday morning we had a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 o'clock, at which 12 of the faithful communicated. At 10.30 o'clock His Lordship administered the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. The Church at this Service was packed full, every seat being occupied, and yet the congregation was most devout and attentive. Our Rector presented a class of 21 persons for Confirmation, a large number for this Parish. The Bishop spoke most earnestly and lovingly, and his words will long be remembered. At 2.30 a Children's Choral Service was held, and at 7 p. m. Evensong was said, and the Bishop preached to another large congregation. The services of the day were most profitable to all who attended them, and the Bishop said he could not refrain from expressing what a refreshment it was to hear the heartiness of the responding.

CHRIST CHURCH—St. Stephen.—On Thursday, May 23d, His Lordship Bishop Kingdon visited this Parish and administered the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation to 12 candidates, 5 males and 7 females. The Church was filled, and the Services most reverent and hearty. The Rev. J. W. Millidge, of St. David, was present, and read the Preface in the Confirmation Service.

The congregations at Church Church are steadily improving. The Rector gives one Service each Sunday in St. Anne's Church, Calais.

TRINITY MISSION—St. Stephen.—On Monday, May 27th, Bishop Kingdon visited this Parish and administered the Rite of Confirmation. Before the Service began the Church was crowded. Besides the Bishop and the Rector, Rev. W. W. Campbell, the Rev. O. S. Newnham, Rector of Christ Church, and Rev. J. W. Millidge, Rector of St. David, were present and had seats in the Sanctuary. The Bishop confirmed 21 candidates.

On Friday evening, May 24th, a meeting was held in Trinity School Room in connection with the D. C. Society. This was a joint meeting for the two Parishes. The meeting was addressed by the Bishop Coadjutor, Rev. Leo. A. Hoyt, of Andover, and Mr. G. Herbert Lee, of St. John.

A meeting of the Ruri-Decanal Chapter of St. Andrews will be held (D. V.) in St. George on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 11 and 12.

WOODSTOCK.—On Tuesday, May 7th, we had the pleasure of a visit from the Bishop Coadjutor. In the morning the rite of "Laying on of Hands" was administered to twenty candidates (six males and fourteen females). On the following evening a large audience gathered in the Opera House to learn something more of the "Conditions and needs of the Church in this Diocese." The speakers of the evening were His Lordship the Bishop Coadjutor; Rev. O. S. Newnham, Rector of Christ Church, St. Stephen, and Mr. C. N. Vroom, St. Stephen. Mr. A. P. Tippet was also expected in this capacity, but did not "show up." The addresses were all very interesting and instructive, and will elicit from our people a more liberal and earnest support of the D. C. S.

BENTON.—Work on our new church has been at a standstill for some time—reason, lack of funds. The outside of the building is finished, but nothing has yet been done to the interior. The people of this little village do what little they can in the best way they can, but they will need outside assistance for an early completion of their Church.

WICKLOW.—On May 14th Bishop Kingdon visited Centreville, Carleton Co., and at 10.30 a. m. bap-
