FORTY-YEAR ANNUITIES.

The undersigned will receive Tenders for the Purchase of Terminable Annuities running for a period of forty years, issued by the Province of Onlario under authority of an Act of the Provincial Pathament (47 Vict., cap. 31).

The Annuities will be in the form of certificates signed by the Provincial Treasurer guaranteeing half-yearly payments at the office of the Provincial Treasurer in Toronto of sums of $100. or larger sams, on the 30th day of June and 31st day of December in each year for forty years from 30th day of June next, the first half-yearly certificates being payable on the 31st December next.

The total amount of Annuities to be issued in 1800 and for which Tenders are asked, is $8,000 annually, but tenders will be received for any part of the same not less than $200 annually.

Tenderers will be required to state the capital sum which will be paid for either the whole Annuities offered or such portion as may be tendered for. Tenders will be received up to the 23th day of Argust next. Notifications of allotments will be given to tenderors on or before 4th September, and payments from accepted tenderers will be required to be made within tendays thereafter.

Tenders for the whole amount offered, if preferred, may be upon condition that the annuities be payable in Great Britain in storling.

The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted unless otherwise satisfactory.

R. HARCOURT, Provincial Treasurer.

Toronto, 24th June, 1896.

Note.—Hinstration of calculation on interest basis —At the rate of $\frac{3}{2}$ per cont. per annum (or in strictness $1\frac{7}{2}$ per cont. half-yearly), a present payment of $2.14$ would represent an annulty of $100 for forty years payable half-yearly, while the actual yearly payment for the forty years would be a fraction above $.06 per cont. on the principal sum. N.B.—No unauthorized advertisement will be paid for.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The anti-saloon campaign is a war in which organized good citizenship moves victoriously upon the fortifications of bad citizenship.—Rev. Howard H. Russell.

Thirty odd years ago no one could enter the Imperial city with a Bible, now there are eleven Protestant Churches in Rome, where the Bible is openly read and expounded.

If we would have moral legislation we must elect moral legislators, and any party which puts itself on the wrong side of a moral question forfeits its right to be voted for.—Rev. D. F. McGill.

No member of your race in any part of this country can harm the weakest or meanest member of mine without the proudest and bluest blood in the Anglo-Saxon race being degraded .- Booker T. Washington.

is cheaper than any quantity of cure. Don't give children narcotics or sedatives. They are unnecessary when the infant is properly nourished, as it will be if brought up on the Gail Borden Eagle Brand Condensed Milk.

It would appear that Madagascar, under the new influences, is rapidly falling back into its old ways. It is reported that six members of a trading caravan (among whom were three Englishmen) were massacred on their way from the capital to Ambohipiana.

Dean Farrar, referring to the development of Christian enterprise during the present century, states that whilst in 1800 there were only seven missionary societies, there are now seventy, and that whilst then there were only seventy-nine mission schools, now there are twelve thousand. During the period named at least two million heathens have been converted to Christianity.

A distinguished Egyptologist has died in the person of Grant Bey, medical graduate of Aberdeen University, who for the past 30 years had been in practice in Egypt. A native of Methlick, James Andrew Sandilands Grant took his M.D. in 1864, and went out to Egypt in the following year, and in 1880 the Khedive conferred on him the rank of Bey. The deceased was 56 years of age.

the people who could take advantage of it. But because Fibre Chamois is quite inexpensive and easy to get perhaps some have not yet tested its merits and found out for themselves the splendid winter comfort a layer of it will impart to all outdoor garments. Its weather proof qualities are genuine, founded on the fact that it is made entirely from Spruce Fibre, and is therefore a complete nonconductor of cold. This, as well as its light weight, makes it an ideal addition to every one's fall and winter clothing.

It is reported, on what is said to be reliable authority, that the action of Russia in Turkey is about to undergo a decided change. The Czar's eyes have been opened, it is said, by the perusal of official documents forwarded by his relatives in London, Copenhagen, and Athens. If this is true, royalty has seldom done so timely and noble a service to humanity. If the Czar will throw in his great influence with that of England, Cretes and Armenians will have cause to re-

HEART DISEASE.—Relief in thirty minutes in most alarming cases of heart trouble: A strong statement to make for Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart, but it is borne out by the testimony of thousands who to day proclaim themselves snatched from the grave by its wonderful curative powers. If the heart flutters, palputates, tires easily, it indicates heart disease. Be warned in time. Use this surest and quickest cure; it never fails. James Allen of St. Stephen, N.B., writes: "I was troubled with very severe pains in the heart, pain in the side, and shortness of breath. I became completely exhausted with the least exertion. Doctors said my case was a hope-less one. I procured a bottle of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart. A few doses gave me permanent relief—six bottles entirely cured me, and to-day I am well, and strong as I ever was. I think it the best medicine on earth for heart trouble.
