RECEPTION AND RELIGIOUS PROFESSION.

The very interesting ceremony of Reception of the Holy Habit and Religious Profession took place in the chapel of the Hotel Dieu yesterday morning. The young lady who received the white veil was Miss Kate Leahy, cousin of the Rev. Mother, and she who made her final vows was Miss O'Gorman, of Ennismore. A very appropriate and touching sermon was given by His Lordship Bishop O'Brien. He spoke of the various callings, which go to make up the web-work of the world, one dependent on the other. No matter what may be our calling, all must end by our being placed on the right hand or the left, which will depend on how heeded towards God in his suffering members. "Because what you have done to the least of my little ones you have done it to me; or because you have done it not to the least of my little ones you have done it not to me. These young ladies, who are now to be consecrated to Almighty God, are leaving the world, and its false pleasure to administer to these suffering members of Jesus Christ." After the sermon mass was begun. Very Rev. J. Farrelly, V.G., was invited by his Lordship to perform the ceremony, as he, (Father Farrelly) named the parents of one of the young ladies, as well as baptized herself. After the "Graduale," the "Veni Creator" was sung, and the celebrant took his place near the grate of the altar and interrogated both postulant and novice as to the motives that induce them to enter the religious life and as to their knowledge of the responsibilities attending it. He then blessed the various articles of dress and presented them to the postulant and placed a crown of flowers on her head to remind her that she should, by a virtuous life, earn for herself a crown of glory. The mass was then continued to the communion, when the novice read her vows and made her profession. At the end of mass the "Te Deum" was sung. The following priests also took part in the ceremony: Fathers Donohue, or Erinsville; McWilliams, of Lohore, and Twohey, of Kingston.—British Whig.

THE PAPIST IN SPITE OF HIMSELF.

Mr. Editor:—An event which might have been edifying were it not somewhat amusing, occurred in Nelson county not long since. Rev. W. C., a Presbyterian minister of the strictest kind, full of zeal, undertook to visit the husband of a lady member of his congregation. The husband was confined to his bed by sickness. He was utterly indifferent to Presbyterianism himself, though his wife was a pillar of the church. The preacher officiously made the visit as though he had some claim on the sick man. The mother of said husband, a devout Catholic, happened to be present when the minister called. He desired to pray and read for the sick man, Mr. W. No objection being made, the preacher prayed for the conversion of the invalid. His prayer being finished, the mother said to him: "Now let us offer an 'Our Father,' and a 'Hail Mary' for the Pope." And the Rev. W. C. went down on his knees, and in spite of himself, prayed with the old lady for the Pope, (the anti-Christ, the Man of Sin, the Son of Perdition, according to the Confession of Faith by the Presbyterian Church of America) and he prayed.

Had Mrs. W. exhorted during fifty years, she could not possibly have hit the poor parson harder than she did in making him pray, on his knees, for the Pope, the anti-Christ, etc., and his most officious visit was not repeated.—Louisville Catholic Advocate

PRINCE CHARLES' PROCLAMATION TO THE ROUMANIANS.

Bulgaria having been laid waste, its population abandoned to the cruelties of undisciplined Asiatic hordes, and a war of extermination having been declared against all Christians we should have no guarantee that our lot would be better than that of the Christians in Turkey. Victorious Turkey would make herself mistress of Roumania, and so long as the Turkish fortresses from Adakale to Matchin bombard our towns and destroy the international and local commerce of the Danube, so long as a humane administration is not introduced into Bulgaria and the rights of the Christians are not secured, Roumania cannot believe, and has no right to believe, that it is at peace and protected against the present and future. Roumania must contribute in proportion to her strength to the establishment of such a state of things. Are we forever to lean on others' shoulders, and never rely on our own strength and vitality? The time has come when Roumania, by the self-sabotage of all classes and by the army of her children, can prove to Europe that she possesses the requisite vitality for the fulfilment of her mission at the mouths of the Danube, and for contributing towards the establishment of order and the stability of the East. By the side of the Russian flag, on which is inscribed, "The emancipation of the Christian people in the East," we raise the Roumanian flag, which bears the device "Independence of the State of Roumania."

EXPECTED DEMONSTRATION.

The Kilmallock demonstration in honour of Messrs. Parnell and Biggar and their fellow obstructives, promises to be one of the most hearty and enthusiastic witnessed in this country. On the arrival of the train bringing the above-named gentlemen, together with Major O'Gorman and Mr. Kirk M. P., a public procession is to be formed to escort them to the place of meeting, and in the evening during the banquet a display of fireworks will take place and the town will be illuminated. The good people of Kilmallock evidently mean that there shall be no mistake about their sentiments with regard to the policy of vigorous action in the House of Commons.

CANADIAN ITEMS.

PROBABLY CHILD MURDER.—On Tuesday morning a box was found on the road near the St. Charles Cemetery, Quebec, containing the dead bodies of twin infants, new born. Suspicious of foul play are entertained.

WHEAT RECEIPTS OF GRAIN.—The receipts of wheat in this city up to the 22nd inst. being no less than 313,985 bushels, and for the week ending September 23rd, 1877, the receipts were 545,346 bushels, against 69,988 for the corresponding period last year, being an increase of 475,358 bushels for the above week this year. These receipts are almost exclusively from Chicago and the Western States, which do not appear to tally with the report that the farmers there are holding back their grain. There receipts in Chicago this morning were 487 cars of wheat and 488 cars of corn; and shipments from the point during the week on export account via New York and Boston have been equally large daily. The fact is the Americans are realizing on their wheat at present price just as fast as circumstances will permit them, the great drawback being the insufficiency of their railroad freight capacity, in placing the crops on the market. A great many dealers in Chicago have already advanced the full amount of their means on wheat, which will come forward as soon as cars can be sent to the different country stations to bring it away. If farmers in Canada are really holding back their crops for better figures, it is thought they are making a serious mistake, not only in the attainment of their object, but to the injury of the trade, which must suffer just in proportion as they keep the country merchants waiting.
