In calling public attention to the subjoined list of the Ships which comprise our Boston Line of Packets, we believe that its general reputation as the first of American Lines is sufficiently well known and established. The Thousands of Letters which have been sent by American Immigrants to their friends in every part of Europe, have borne ample testimony to the Rapid and Successful passages made by those Ships, and to the superior Health, Comfort, and Safety which their Passengers have hitherto enjoyed. Many of them will be recognized as vessels which have gained the very highest character, by a succession of unusually rapid passages.
