

The Monetary Times, of Toronto, says:-"The thirty-first annual statement of this oll and sound company appears to-day, brim full of figuresfigures which tell of ample provision for the willows and orphans in whose favor its policies are drawn. The muin features of this repot fare: an increase of $767.255 27 in the assets, now above $25,400,001; a decrease of $210,000 in the de oth claims of the year, and an increase in the market value of the assets sufficient to produce a growth of over $37123.570 in the surplus. The Canadian branch of the Ena's bisiness, we are told, hus been in sking active progress during the past year, applications for consilerably over two millions of dollars of insurance having been received and accepted during that time."

The Hartford Times says:—<sup>6</sup> The business of the ÆTNA LIFE has been built up by the most energy tic but at the same time cautious methods, and sound principles of finance are the foundation upon which its colossal success has rested."

The Hartford Post says:-"The past year has been a continuation of the ETNA'S successful career. With its efficient management, it may reasonably be expected to continue the increase of its large and prosperus business. The ETNA is unquestionably one of the strengest and best life in unner companies in existence. Its management from the outset has been eminently conservative giving it a reputation that any compary in the world might horostly feel proud of. Successful as its past has been, its future career will even exceed the past in point of success."

The Hartford Courant says :-" The figures speak volumes of commendation for the excellent management. The year has assuredly been a prosperous one with the  $\pm$  TNA, and the showing of figures is sound proof that there is no better company in the country in which to insure."

The Examplical Churchman, of Toronto, says:--"Among the modern arrangements for the benefit of human society we give a high place to Life Assurance There are many excellent companies and associations engaged in this work, in Ergund and America, and we have no hesitation in saying that we believe one of the best of them makes an appearance in our columns to day, and a good appearance. We refer to the Ætna Life Insurance Company of Hartford, whose solid pyrumid of assets speaks strongly in favor of its ability and reliability. The year just closed, we understand, shows a further increase of nearly a million dollars in the assets, and an addition of about $350,000 to its surplus."
