AN ABLEGATE FOR CANADA.

A Montreal despatch, dated Nov. 6tb. announces "that Rev. Father Forbes, a Scotch minister of the Society of Jesus, of that from 1765, the year of the first this city, has been summoned to Rome enumeration after the British conwhere he will be offered the appoint- quest, up to 1890-91, the French-Canament of papal ablegate to Canada." dians increased from 69,810 to 1,804,974. ment of papal ablegate to Canada." The French-speaking population of Since Hoffmann's Directory gives no the Dominion of Canada was shown Father Forbes, S. J., in its " List of Cath- by the census of 1891 to be 1,404,974; olic Clergymen of Canada and New- but of these 100,000 were French Aca-Louis.

Not so fast, Brother Preuss. There is Forbes, whose habitual residence is Paris. He occasionally contributes wellmay have erred in saying that he was summoned from Montreal, though he may have been passing through that city; but of his existence and capacity there can be no shadow of a doubt for us who know him personally.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

We are now within two weeks of the Municipal elections and it behooves every citizen to seriously consider the situation and having done so to proceed to do what in him lies to ensure the good government of the city. There are evidences on all sides that an era of prosperity is at hand such as we have not enjoyed for many years past, and the immediate future will in all likelihood prove to be a period of revival in busiand of grand oppportunities. It is most important, therefore, that Winnipeg should have at the head of its affairs men whose standing in the community and whose general record as citizens mark them out as fit to preside over and direct the destinies of the community, men whose ability is undoubted, who have themselves great interests at stake, and who may be relied upon to give to the affairs of the city that careful supervision which they give to their own business whilst at the same time they will be able and can be trusted to take due advantage of all the openings which may present themselves of developing and improving the city. Present appearances indicate that there will be no lack of aldermanic candidates and for the mayoralty several names are mentioned. Amongst them we notice the name of Mr. E. F. Hutchings who, we understand, has consented to stand. We think he will be elected, for a better selection at this point in the city's history could hardly be made, and in our estimation he possesses qualifications for the position above all the other candidates who have announced themselves.

HE SAW HIMSELF.

"You must excuse me, gentlemen. for I cannot drink anything," said a man who was known to the entire town as a drunkard.

"This is the first time you ever refused a drink," said an acquaintance. "The other day you were bustling around after a cocktail, and in fact, you even asked me to 'set em up.' " That's very true, but I am a very different man now.

"Preachers got hold of you?"

"No, sir, no one has said a word to me.

"Well, what has caused the change?" "I'll tell you. After leaving you the other day, I kept on hustling for a cocktail, as you call it, until I met a party of friends. When I left them, I was about half drunk. To a man of my temperament, a 'half drunk' is a miserable condition, for the desire given by the St. his self-respect in his effort to get cinal purposes. Just before reaching the gate, I heard voices in the garden, and looking over the fence, I saw my little son and daughter playing. 'Now, you be ma,' said the boy, 'and I'll be pa. Now you sit here, and I'll come home drunk. Wait, now, till I find the bottle."

"He took a bottle, ran away, and filled it with water. Pretty soon he returned, and entering the playhouse, Prof. Warman's charming talk on Scientific Physical Training at the ColThe girl looked up from her work, and

"'James, why do you do this way?"
"'Wizzer way,' he replied.
"'Getting drunk?"
"'Who's drunk?"

"You are and you promised me when the baby died, that you would not drink any more. The children are almost ragged, and we haven't anything to eat hardly, but still you throw your money away. Don't you know you are breaking my heart?" "I hurried away. The action was too life-like. I could think of nothing during the day, but those little children playing in the garden. You must excuse me, gentlemen, I cannot drink again."

FRENCH CANADIAN GROWTH.

From data compiled by Mr. John Davidson, of the New Brunswick university, it is shown that the French-Canadian population is doubled every twenty-six years. The outcome of the data drawn from all sources is The French-speaking population of the Dominion of Canada was shown by the census of 1891 to be 1,404,974; but of these 100,000 were French Acadians, so that the total number of French-Canadians resident in Canada was 1,304,974. The American census of 1890 made no distinction beolic Clergymen of Canada and Newfoundland," the despatch has not even a border is reduced to 500,000. , By adding these to the figures given for the Pominion in 1891, we on in 1,804 974 for the total French-Canadian population. If this aggregate be compared with of 69,810 returned in 1765, we shall find that normally, the number of French-Canadians is doubled in a little less than twenty-six years.
