

The Labour Movement in America.

By Prof. RICHARD T. ELY. 12mo. $1.50.
 This book is the result of several years' work on the part of Professor Ely, who is an acknowledged authority, both in Europe and America, on economic and social topics. It is the most complete historical sketch yet published of the origin and growth both of socialism and of labour organizations. No pains have been spared to secure accuracy. Professor Ely has collected for years books, pamphlets, labour newspapers, constitutions of trades unions and like material, with this in view; and during the preparation of this book he has travelled several thousand miles, visiting communistic settlements and leading industrial centres, and forming the acquaintance of labour leaders. His picture of the present condition of the labour movement may be relied upon as taken from life.

Stories from Life.

By SARAH K. BOLTON, author of "Poor Boys who Became Famous," "Girls who Became Famous," etc. 12mo. $1.25.

A collection of Mrs. Bolton's bright and entertaining short stories, which inculcate good moral lessons and hit of many of the follies and shams of the present day.

NEW BOOKS

The Mystery of Pain.

By JAMES HINTON, M.D. With an Introduction by James R. Nichols, M.D., author of "Whence, What, Where?" 1 vol., 16mo, cloth, $1.00.

"No word of praise can add anything to the value of this little work, which has now taken its place as one of the classics of religious literature. The tender, reverent and searching spirit of the author has come as a great consolation and help to many persons."—New York Critic.

Whence, What, Where?

A View of the Origin, Nature, and Destiny of Man. By JAMES R. NICHOLS. With portrait. Tenth edition. 16mo, cloth, gilt, $1.25.

The Best Hundred Books.

The Controversy started by Sir John Lubbock, and upheld by Carlyle, John Ruskin, the Prince of Wales, Mr. Gladstone, Max Müller, etc., etc., which has been shaking England and this country. Fiftieth thousand. Large 4to, paper, 25 cents.

Uncovering the Mummy of Rameses II.

KING OF EGYPT, and Persecutor of the Jews in the time of Moses. Three portraits, from photographs taken on the spot, of the Great Pharaoh after he had been swathed in mummy-clothes 3200 years; together with full text of M. Maspero's official report, and of Brugsch Bey's letter to the Illustrirte Zeitung, translated into English. Pamphlet 4to, 4 pages. Mailed for 15 cents.

The Winnipeg Country;

Or, Roughing it with an Eclipse Party. With 32 illustrations and a map. The work of a well-known scientist. 1 vol., 12mo, cloth, $1.75.

"As charming as Lord Dufferin's 'Letters from a High Latitude,' and quite as brilliant a piece of writing."—George E. Ellis, D.D.

D. LOTHROP & CO.'S NEW BOOKS.

HESTER, AND OTHER NEW ENGLAND STORIES. By Margaret Sidney. $1.25. "Here are some of the brightest, most natural stories, full of the peculiarities of New England character, and delighting one by their simplicity and naivete. They are real folks, and act and talk as hundreds of New England people do."

THE FULL STATURE OF A MAN. A Life Story. By Julian Warth. $1.25. This book was evidently written with a purpose, and the writer brings out some original ideas on the labour question and other social problems of the day, without in the least interfering with the interest of the story itself, which is wonderfully strong and attractive.

GRAFENBURG PEOPLE. Fiction but Fact. By Reuer Thomas. $1.20. There is a quaint, old-time style about this charming story which reminds one of Miss Mitford's writings, and is in refreshing contrast to much of the literature of the day.

A GIRL'S ROOM. By Some Friends of the Girls. $1.00. This volume has been prepared to show girls how to make their rooms pretty and comfortable, how to entertain their friends by attractive games, how to make dainty little gifts for friends, and contains many other bits of information equally desirable.

A LEISURELY JOURNEY. By William Leonard Gage. $1.00. Mr. Gage had the advantage of having been abroad several times before, and of thus knowing just where to go and what to look for. His descriptions of the lake country, of Wales, the Isle of Wight, and various resorts in Germany and Switzerland are full of interest.

SPUN FROM FACT. By Mrs. G. R. Alden (Pansy). $1.50. This is Pansy's latest book, and one of her strongest, and in these days when there is so much interest in psychological literature, will be eagerly read. Dr. Buckley's paper on "Faith Cures," that appeared in the June Century, has called attention to just such cases as are here told.

HOLD UP YOUR HEADS, GIRLS. By Annie H. Ryder. $1.00. Mrs. Livermore says of this bright little book: "It is from beginning to end a series of wise, sisterly chats with girls, who have had training but not experience. There is not a dull page in it."

The Cruise of the Mystery, and Other Poems.

By CELIA THAXTER, author of "Drift-Weed," "Among the Isles of Shoals," etc. Parchment cover. $1.

This beautiful book sings of the mystery and beauty of human love, the experience of human life. The charm of the subject and the added charm of the song lend peculiar attractions to the lyrics in this dainty volume.

Holy Tides.

By Mrs. A. D. T. WHITNEY, author of "Bonny-borough," "The Gayworthys," etc. Square 16mo, beautifully printed and bound, 75 cents.

A tasteful book of thoughtful poetry, celebrating the "red-letter" days of the Church—Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Whitsunday, Trinity, and Easter—days which commemorate events notable in the religious experience of mankind.

Orient.

Being the tenth volume of Boston Monday Lectures, with prefaces on current events, and five Appendices. By JOSEPH COOK. With a fine steel portrait. $1.50.

This book comprises six of the lectures given by Mr. Cook in 1883. They treat Palestine, Egypt, and the future of Islam; Advanced Thought in India; Keshub Chunder Sen and Hindu Theism; Woman's Work for Woman in Asia; Japan, the Self-Reformed Hermit Nation; and Australia, the Pacific Ocean, and International Reform.

Ten Dollars Enough.

By CATHERINE OWEN. 16mo. $1.
