

RESEARCH COMMITTEE

COMMISSION REPORT

1. The Commission was organized in 1947 to study the problems of the American people in the field of health, education, and social security.

The Commission was organized in 1947 to study the problems of the American people in the field of health, education, and social security.

2. The Commission has held numerous public hearings and has received many suggestions from the American people.

The Commission has held numerous public hearings and has received many suggestions from the American people.

3. The Commission has also conducted extensive research into the various problems it was created to study.

The Commission has also conducted extensive research into the various problems it was created to study.

4. The Commission believes that the American people are entitled to a higher standard of living and that this can be achieved by a more equitable distribution of income.

The Commission believes that the American people are entitled to a higher standard of living and that this can be achieved by a more equitable distribution of income.

5. The Commission recommends that the Federal Government take certain steps to bring about a more equitable distribution of income.

The Commission recommends that the Federal Government take certain steps to bring about a more equitable distribution of income.

6. The Commission believes that these steps are essential for the well-being of the American people.

The Commission believes that these steps are essential for the well-being of the American people.

7. The Commission believes that the American people should have a greater voice in the making of public policy.

The Commission believes that the American people should have a greater voice in the making of public policy.

8. The Commission believes that the American people should have a greater voice in the making of public policy.

The Commission believes that the American people should have a greater voice in the making of public policy.

9. The Commission believes that the American people should have a greater voice in the making of public policy.

The Commission believes that the American people should have a greater voice in the making of public policy.

10. The Commission believes that the American people should have a greater voice in the making of public policy.

The Commission believes that the American people should have a greater voice in the making of public policy.

11. The Commission believes that the American people should have a greater voice in the making of public policy.

The Commission believes that the American people should have a greater voice in the making of public policy.

12. The Commission believes that the American people should have a greater voice in the making of public policy.

The Commission believes that the American people should have a greater voice in the making of public policy.

13. The Commission believes that the American people should have a greater voice in the making of public policy.

The Commission believes that the American people should have a greater voice in the making of public policy.