

CONTENTS

- 2 THE CHALLENGE OF THE PERSIAN GULF CRISIS
BY JANICE GROSS STEIN
Middle East fault lines, a clear and present danger.
- 6 NEW GERMANY: EUROPE'S BENEVOLENT GIANT?
BY MADELEINE POULIN
There will be two Germanies for a long time yet.
- 8 TO NEW YORK, A MESSAGE FROM GENEVA
BY DAVID COX
Holding one arms control treaty hostage to progress on another is bad policy.
- 10 HAITI'S LONG UNHAPPY ROAD TO DEMOCRACY
BY CLAUDE MOÏSE
The hopes of many Haitians are riding on national elections set for December.
- 12 EMPTY SHELVES AND EMPTY MONEY
BY MICHAEL BRYANS
Soviet peoples face a winter short of both food and faith in the future.
- 14 THE GULF CRISIS AND THE ISRAELI-PALESTINIAN EQUATION
BY JIM LEDERMAN
Saddam Hussein has altered the course of Israeli-Palestinian relations.
- 24 LETTER FROM LIMA
BY MIRKO LAUER
Peru's new president does battle against his country's economic turmoil.

■ Janice Stein is a professor of political science at the University of Toronto; Madeleine Poulin is co-host of Radio-Canada's Le Point; David Cox is a professor of political studies at Queen's University in Kingston; Claude Moïse is a professor of history at Université du Québec à Montréal; Michael Bryans is editor of Peace & Security; Jim Lederman, a writer based in Jerusalem, is former Middle East correspondent for CBC Radio and National Public Radio; and Mirko Lauer is chief editorial writer of Lima's daily Pagina Libre and political editor for the Andean Report.

- | | |
|-----------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 15 FROM THE DIRECTOR | 19 REPORT FROM THE SECURITY COUNCIL |
| 16 DEFENCE NOTES BACKGROUND | 20 REPORT FROM THE HILL |
| 17 DEFENCE NOTES | 21 REVIEWS |
| 18 ARMS CONTROL DIGEST | 22 NEWS FROM THE INSTITUTE |