

Notification of the approval of an amendment by a Signatory shall be transmitted to the Depositary by the Party concerned, and such notification shall signify the acceptance by the Party of such amendment. For the purpose of approval of an amendment, all Signatories designated by a single Party will be considered jointly as a single Signatory.