VISIT TO CANADA OF SECRETARY OF STATE VANCE

The Secretary of State of the United States Cyrus Vance, will make an official visit to Canada on November 21 and 22.

The visit, at the invitation of the Secretary of State for External Affairs Don Jamieson, will provide an opportunity for discussions on a number of important bilateral subjects and to exchange views on international developments of mutual interest.

Mr. Jamieson and Mr. Vance have met formally and informally on a number of occasions over the past two years. Most recently, they have been closely associated in the group of five western foreign ministers working towards an internationally acceptable, peaceful settlement of the Namibia question.

Secretary of State Vance will be accompanied by Mrs. Vance during the visit to Ottawa.
