

Minister Regan said "I am sure that the Provinces and the Canadian industry are as gratified as I am that these countervailing investigations have ended. It has been a long haul for all of us since the Petition was first filed last October and our success in turning back this threat to a vital Canadian industry is testimony to the full and close cooperation which has been maintained throughout between the Federal and Provincial Governments and the Canadian industry".