

Bennett, Right Hon. R. B.—Con.

Budget, 2388. No recognition shown by opposition of the fact that we are in the midst of a world crisis; appreciation by people of Canada of the services rendered by the present government, 2388; looking at world conditions in the light of events from 1914 to 1918; amazing recovery of the world in the years from 1919 to 1925; reorganization of industry and expansion of trade after 1925 until the peak of the business cycle in 1929; effect of mass speculation apparent in every part of the world; weakened resources of European countries caused by sending money to the great centres of finance on this continent, 2390; effect of passing of Great Britain from the gold standard, 2391; full benefits of the moratorium with respect to debts lost; reaction of insolvent condition of Austrian commercial groups on Europe generally; Canada's exceptional progress under present conditions, 2392; significance of the balance of trade; result of lowering the tariff after the war so that Canada became a dumping ground for the products of other countries, 2393; adverse tariff balance against us in March, 1930; imposition by Great Britain of duties against imports, 2394; Hon. Walter Runciman on the British general tariff; protecting Canada from economic loss by order in council, 2395; valuation of the pound sterling for import purposes; protecting our industrial life from destruction by dumping from other countries, 2396; Sir Arthur Salter on the balance of trade; the tariff an instrument for the preservation of the credit and solvency of our country, 2397; Mr. Mackenzie King's reference to address of Mr. Burton of the Robert Simpson Company on prohibitive duties on imports; our visible balance of trade with Britain, 2398; position of lending and borrowing countries; amount of adverse balance of trade in 1930; figures of the League of Nations showing that world trade has fallen by one-half; decrease in revenue collected on spirituous liquors, 2399; world-wide effect of depression on values of agricultural and other products; Dow

Bennett, Right Hon. R. B.—Con.

Budget—Con.

Jones average index of industrials for 1931 and 1932; more wheat and flour sold but less revenue received on account of lower values, 2400; increase of exports to Great Britain for March, 1932, over exports for the previous year; increase in price of silver and exports of silver and copper; Mr. Ralston's criticism of the sale of the conversion loan at four and a half per cent, 2401; conversion loan in 1922 under Liberal administration; our revenues falling short of the government's expectations; the Liberal amendment and the sub-amendment; Macmillan report on maintenance of currency values, 2402; effect of changes in the income tax; interest taken by Liberal members in the speech of Mr. Woodsworth; a new organizer of the Liberal party in the person of Mr. Vincent Massey; Mr. Mackenzie King's reference in 1931 to Sir Robert Hudson, 2403; Mr. Massey's trip across Canada in the interests of the Liberal party; the League for Social Reconstruction, 2404, 2405; approaching Imperial conference; memorandum of Sir Wilfrid Laurier at the Imperial conference of 1902, 2406, 2407; the government ready and prepared to deal with every problem that will be met with at the conference; responsibility of the opposition for delaying the country's business, 2409; the world confronted with the second effort towards rehabilitation; appreciation by the people of Canada of the difficulties, responsibilities and burdens under which the government is at present labouring, 2409

Speech of 1931, estimate of revenues in, 1883-4

Burnaby, B.C., unemployment relief, M. (Mr. Reid), 167, 1573

Business of the house, 2957

Adjustment in recording of pairs, 431, 432
Ascension day adjournment, 2540

Bills, standing over at request of opposition members, 178

Privilege, Mr. Mackenzie King, 225

Privilege, Mr. Bennett, 227

Second reading, rescission of, 2985