

by Rule 136, and by declaration in evidence of the service of a copy of the notice and of a copy of the petition as provided by Rule 137. The petition, notice, and evidence of publication and service, and all papers connected therewith shall thereupon stand as referred, without special order to that effect, to the Standing Committee on Divorce.

Copies of petition, etc., Furnished to Committee.

A copy of every petition for a Bill of divorce or relating to any matter arising out of an application for divorce, and of every document and paper accompanying such petition or produced in evidence before the Committee, shall be furnished to the Committee by the person on whose behalf the petition, document or paper is presented or produced. B. 635.

Committee to examine papers.

142. The Committee shall examine the notice of application to Parliament, the petition, the information endorsed upon or appended to the petition, the evidence of publication of the notice, the evidence of the service of a copy of the notice and of a copy of the petition, all other papers referred with the petition, and also the notice, if any, given by the respondent to the Clerk of the Senate.