Manifold Uses of the Lemon.

I have carefully perused all the little facts which I have found concerning the many uses to which the lemon may be applied in the household, which I have compiled as follows:

Lemonade made from the juice of the lemon is one of the best and safest drinks for any person, whether in health or not. It is suitable for all stomach diseases, excellent in sickness, in case of jaundice, liver complaints, inflammation of the bowels and fevers. It is a specific against skin complaints. The seeds crushed may be used with sugar and water and taken as a drink.

Lemon juice is the best anti-scorbutic remedy known. It not only cures this disease but prevents it. Sailors make daily use of it for this purpose. The gums, by being rubbed with lemon juice are kept in a healthy condition. The hands and nails are also kept clean, white, soft and supple by the daily use of lemon instead of soap. It also prevents chilblains.

Lemon is used in intermittent fevers, mixed with strong, hot, black coffee, without coffee. Neuralgia may be cured by rubbing the part affected with a cut lemon. It is invaluable, also to cure warts and to destroy dandruff on the head by rubbing the roots of the hair with it. It will alleviate and finally cure coughs, and colds, and heal diseased lungs, if taken hot on going to bed at night.

Its uses are manifold, and the more we apply it internally and externally, the better we shall find ourselves. Lemon juice is useful for removing tartar from the teeth. Lastly, a doctor in Rome is trying it, experimentally, in malarial fevers, with great success, and thinks it will in time supersede quinine.—New England Grocer.
